Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 10, 2006, Hudson Technologies, Inc. (the "Registrant") entered into an Amended and Restated Employment Agreement (the "Employment Agreement") with Kevin J. Zugibe, the Registrant's Chief Executive Officer, for a period of two years, which expires in October 2008 and is automatically renewable for successive two year terms unless either party gives notice of termination at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration date of the then current term. Pursuant to the Employment Agreement, Mr. Zugibe is receiving an annual base salary of $179,900 with such increases and bonuses as the Board may determine. In addition, pursuant to the Employment Agreement, in the event of his involuntary separation from the Registrant without cause, or in the event of his voluntary separation for a good reason as enumerated in the Employment Agreement, Mr. Zugibe will receive severance payments, in the form of the continuation of his annual base salary and benefits for a period of 24 months, and a lump sum payment equivalent to the highest bonus paid to Mr. Zugibe in the 3 years prior to his termination, pro-rated to the date of his termination. The Employment Agreement also provides, in the event of Mr. Zugibe's disability, for the continuation of at least 75% of Mr. Zugibe's salary for up to one hundred twenty (120) days after the commencement of his disability. Pursuant to the Employment Agreement, Mr. Zugibe has also received payment in the amount of $5,000, and has received 9,300 stock options under the Registrant's 1997 Stock Option Plan as additional consideration for Mr. Zugibe's agreement to certain covenants and restrictions, which include an agreement that Mr. Zugibe will not compete with the Registrant in specified geographic areas for a period of 24 months after his termination for any reason. The description of the Employment Agreement described in this report does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Employment Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and incorporated herein by reference.

On October 10, 2006, the Registrant entered into an agreement with Brian F. Coleman, the Registrant's President, pursuant to which, in the event of his involuntary separation from the Registrant without cause, or in the event of his voluntary separation for a good reason as enumerated in the agreement, Mr. Coleman will receive severance payments, in the form of the continuation of his annual base salary and benefits for a period of 18 months, and a lump sum payment equivalent to the highest bonus paid to him in the 3 years prior to his termination, pro-rated to the date of his termination. The agreement also provides, in the event of his disability, for the continuation of at least 75% of his salary for up to one hundred twenty (120) days after the commencement of his disability. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Coleman has also received payment in the amount of $4,500, and has received 8,100 stock options under the Registrant's 1997 Stock Option Plan, as additional consideration for his agreement to certain covenants and restrictions, which include an agreement that he will not compete with the Registrant in specified geographic areas for a period of 18 months after his termination for any reason. The description of the October 10, 2006 agreement between the Registrant and Brian F. Coleman described in this report does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the October 10, 2006 agreement between the Registrant and Brian F. Coleman, which is filed as Exhibit 10.2 to this report and incorporated herein by reference.

On October 10, 2006, the Registrant entered into an agreement with James R. Buscemi, the Registrant's Chief Financial Officer, pursuant to which, in the event of his involuntary separation from the Registrant without cause, or in the event of his voluntary separation for a good reason as enumerated in the agreement, Mr. Buscemi will receive severance payments in the form of the continuation of his annual base salary and benefits for a period of 12 months, and a lump sum payment equivalent to highest bonus paid to Mr. Buscemi in the 3 years prior to his termination, pro-rated to the date of his termination. The agreement also provides, in the event of his disability, for the continuation of at least 75% of his salary for up to one hundred twenty (120) days after the commencement of his disability. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Buscemi has also received payment in the amount of $3,000, and has received 6,500 stock options under the Registrant's 1997 Stock Option Plan as additional consideration for his agreement to certain covenants and restrictions, which includes an agreement that he will not compete with the Registrant in specified geographic areas for a period of 18 months after his termination for any reason. The description of the October 10, 2006 agreement between the Registrant and James F. Buscemi described in this report does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the October 10, 2006 agreement between the Registrant and James F. Buscemi, which is filed as Exhibit 10.3 to this report and incorporated herein by reference.

On October 10, 2006, the Registrant entered into an agreement with Charles F. Harkins, the Registrant's Vice President Sales, pursuant to which, in the event of his involuntary separation from the Registrant without cause, or in the event of his voluntary separation for a good reason as enumerated in the agreement, Mr. Harkins will receive severance payments, in the form of the continuation of his annual base salary and benefits for a period of 18 months, and a lump sum payment equivalent to the highest bonus paid to him in the 3 years prior to his termination, pro-rated to the date of his termination. The agreement also provides, in the event of his disability, for the continuation of at least 75% of his salary for up to one hundred twenty (120) days after the commencement of his disability. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Harkins has also received payment in the amount of $4,000, and has received 7,900 stock options under the Registrant's 1997 Stock Option Plan, as additional consideration for his agreement to certain covenants and restrictions, which include an agreement that he will not compete with the Registrant in specified geographic areas for a period of 18 months after his termination for any reason. The description of the October 10, 2006 agreement between the Registrant and Charles F. Harkins described in this report does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the October 10, 2006 agreement between the Registrant and Charles F. Harkins, which is filed as Exhibit 10.4 to this report and incorporated herein by reference.

On October 10, 2006, the Registrant entered into an agreement with Stephen P. Mandracchia, the Registrant's Secretary and Vice President Legal and Regulatory, pursuant to which, in the event of his involuntary separation from the Registrant without cause, or in the event of his voluntary separation for a good reason as enumerated in the agreement, Mr. Mandracchia will receive severance payments, in the form of the continuation of his annual base salary and benefits for a period of 18 months, and a lump sum payment equivalent to the highest bonus paid to him in the 3 years prior to his termination, pro-rated to the date of his termination. The agreement also provides, in the event of his disability, for the continuation of at least 75% of his salary for up to one hundred twenty (120) days after the commencement of his disability. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Mandracchia has also received payment in the amount of $3,500, and has received 7,400 stock options under the Registrant's 1997 Stock Option Plan, as additional consideration for his agreement to certain covenants and restrictions, which include an agreement that he will not compete with the Registrant in specified geographic areas for a period of 18 months after his termination for any reason. The description of the October 10, 2006 agreement between the Registrant and Stephen P. Mandracchia described in this report does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the October 10, 2006 agreement between the Registrant and Stephen P. Mandracchia, which is filed as Exhibit 10.5 to this report and incorporated herein by reference.
