CVRD Concludes Sale of Fazenda Brasileiro Gold Mine

Rio de Janeiro, August 15, 2003 □ Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD) informs that it concluded today the sale of the assets of Fazenda Brasileiro gold mine to Yamana Resources Inc. (Yamana), a Canadian mining company for US$ 20.9 million, as publicly announced on June 18, 2003.

With the sale of Fazenda Brasileiro, CVRD discontinues gold production. However, the Company continues to invest in mineral exploration aiming at the discovery of new gold reserves and, furthermore, all CVRD copper projects, except 118, will produce gold as a by-product.

This press release may contain statements that express management's expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and CVRD cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which CVRD operates. For additional information on factors that could cause CVRD's actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see CVRD's reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
