FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Oncolytics Biotech Inc. Reports Highlights and Financial Results for 2004

Calgary, AB, March 4, 2005 Oncolytics Biotech Inc. (TSX:ONC, NASDAQ:ONCY) (Oncolytics or the Company) today reported its financial results for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Selected Highlights:

- Expanded the clinical program to the United Kingdom with the approval and commencement of a Phase I systemic administration trial;
- Received approval in February 2005 to commence a Phase I study examining the use of REOLYSIN® in combination with radiation therapy in the U.K.;
- Received clearance in February 2005 to commence a Phase I/II study examining the use of REOLYSIN® in patients with recurrent malignant gliomas (brain cancers) in the U.S.;
- Reported final results from the T2 prostate cancer clinical trial;
- Successfully transferred the manufacturing process to a supplier located in the U.K.;
- Expanded the intellectual property base with the issue of three U.S. patents, including patents covering manufacturing technology and other cellular proliferative diseases; and,
- Raised net proceeds of $23.5 million to expand and accelerate the clinical trial program.

During 2004, Oncolytics advanced the development of REOLYSIN® in a number of important areas, said Dr. Brad Thompson, President and CEO of Oncolytics Biotech Inc. We made progress in expanding our clinical trial program internationally, particularly in the United Kingdom, adding to our intellectual property portfolio and strengthening our financial resources to support our expanding clinical program.

About Oncolytics Biotech Inc.

Oncolytics is a Calgary-based biotechnology company focused on the development of REOLYSIN®, its proprietary formulation of the human reovirus, as a potential cancer therapeutic. Oncolytics' researchers have demonstrated that the reovirus is able to selectively kill cancer cells and, in vitro, kill human cancer cells that are derived from many types of cancer including breast, prostate, pancreatic and brain tumours, and have also demonstrated successful cancer treatment results in a number of animal models. Phase I clinical trial results have indicated that REOLYSIN® was well tolerated and that the reovirus demonstrated activity in tumours injected with REOLYSIN®.

This press release contains forward looking statements, within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Forward looking statements, including the Company's belief as to the potential of REOLYSIN® as a cancer therapeutic; the Company's expectations as to the success of its research and development programs in 2005 and beyond, the Company's planned expansion, the value of the additional patents and intellectual property; the Company's expectations related to the applications of the patented technology; the ability of the technology to strengthen the core technology; the Company's expectations as to adequacy of its existing capital resources; the design, timing, success of planned clinical trial programs and the Company's planned expansion of such programs; and other statements related to anticipated developments in the Company's business and technologies involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties, which could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those in the forward looking statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, among others, the availability of funds and resources to pursue research and development projects, the efficacy of REOLYSIN® as a cancer treatment, the success and timely completion of clinical studies and trials, the Company's ability to successfully commercialize REOLYSIN®, uncertainties related to the research and development of pharmaceuticals, uncertainties related to the regulatory process and general changes to the economic environment. Investors should consult the Company's quarterly and annual filings with the Canadian and U.S. securities commissions for additional information on risks and uncertainties relating to the forward looking statements. Investors are cautioned against placing undue reliance on forward looking statements. The Company does not undertake to update these forward looking statements.
