Item 4.01. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On January 12, 2009, Holtz Rubenstein Reminick LLP ("HRR") was dismissed as the independent accountant of NanoViricides, Inc. (the "Company"). The Board of Directors acting in the capacity of an audit committee approved the dismissal of HRR.

HRR's reports on the Company's financial statements for the years ended June 30, 2008 and 2007 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles except that the reports for both years indicated that the Company is in the development stage, has suffered significant operating losses, and is dependent upon its stockholders to provide sufficient working capital to meet its obligations and sustain its operations. Accordingly, such reports indicated that there was substantial doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern and that the financial statements did not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

During the years ended June 30, 2008 and 2007 and through January 12, 2009, there were no disagreements with HRR on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of HRR, would have caused it to make reference thereto in connection with its reports on the financial statements for such years. During the years ended June 30, 2008 and 2007 and through January 12, 2009, there were no matters that were either the subject of a disagreement as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K or a reportable event as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The Company provided HRR with a copy of the foregoing disclosures and requested HRR to furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not HRR agrees with the disclosures. A copy of HRR's letter is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

On January 13, 2009, the Company's Board of Directors acting in the capacity of an audit committee engaged Li & Company, PC ("Li") as the Company's new independent accountant to act as the principal accountant to audit the Company's financial statements. During the Company's fiscal years ended June 30, 2008 and 2007 and through January 7, 2009, neither the Company, nor anyone acting on its behalf, consulted with Li regarding the application of accounting principles to a specific completed or proposed transaction or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, and no written report or oral advice was provided that Li concluded was an important factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to any such accounting, auditing or financial reporting issue.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
