Item 8.01 Other Events

The Board of Directors of Farmers & Merchants Bancorp regrets to announce the passing of Chairman Emeritus, Ole R. Mettler.

Mr. Mettler began his career with Farmers & Merchants Bank of Central California in 1960, serving as President until 1994 and Chairman of the Board until 2010. Upon his retirement, and in recognition of his years of service and many contributions to the Bank and Company, the Board of Directors elected Mr. Mettler to the position of Chairman Emeritus. Mr. Mettler continued to serve as a community ambassador for the Bank and as an advisor to Executive Management.

In addition to his management roles at Farmers & Merchants Bank, during his career Mr. Mettler served in a variety of leadership positions in the banking industry, including Director of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, President of the California Bankers Association, and President of the Independent Bankers of Northern California. Additionally, he served as a Director of the American Institute of Banking and the California Community Reinvestment Corporation. In 2002, Mr. Mettler was the first banker to receive the “Distinguished Banker of the Year” award presented by the California Bankers Association.
