Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On February 23, 2016, Genco Shipping & Trading Limited (the “Company”) received notice from the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (the “NYSE”) that the price of the Company’s common stock fell below the NYSE’s continued listing standards. The NYSE requires the average closing price of a listed company’s common stock to be at least $1.00 per share over a consecutive 30 trading-day period.

Subject to the NYSE’s rules, the Company has six months from the date of its receipt of the NYSE notice to regain compliance with the minimum share price rule. The Company expects that during the cure period, shares of the Company’s common stock will continue to be listed and trade on the NYSE, subject to the Company’s continued compliance with the NYSE’s other applicable listing rules.

The NYSE notification does not affect the Company’s business operations or its Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) reporting requirements and does not conflict with any of the Company’s credit agreements.

The Company has notified the NYSE of its intention to cure this deficiency. The Company will actively monitor its stock price and evaluate all available options in order to regain compliance within the prescribed time frame, which may include a reverse stock split.

A copy of the press release announcing the Company’s receipt of the NYSE notice is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
