Bachoco Reaches Agreement with Grupo Agra to Expand its Table Eggs Business

Edgar Filing: Industrias Bachoco S.A.B. de C.V. - Form 6-K

CELAYA, Mexico, Dec. 18 /PRNewswire--FirstCall/ -- ("Bachoco" or "the Company") (NYSE: IBA; BMV: Bachoco B), Mexico's leading producer and processor of poultry products, today announced that it has reached an agreement with "Grupo Agra", a table eggs company located in the states of Nuevo Leon and Coahuila in Northeast Mexico. The agreement establishes a rent scheme of the facilities, which include laying hens farms with a capacity of approximately 1.0 million hens, a table eggs processing plant, distribution centers, and the Agra brands. In addition, Bachoco will acquire all the working capital.

Cristobal Mondragon, Industrias Bachoco CEO, said, "This agreement brings flexibility to our business and reinforces our table eggs business line in the northeast market of the country. We will immediately focus on the integration of this operation with our table eggs operation located in the state of Coahuila and take advantage of synergies."

The agreement will be financed with internal resources and Bachoco will take control of the facilities immediately.

Company Description

Industrias Bachoco S.A.B. de C.V. (also referred to in this report as Bachoco or the Company) was founded by the Robinson Bours family in 1952, in the state of Sonora. Since then, it has grown into the largest poultry company in Mexico, with over 700 production and distribution facilities currently organized in seven complexes throughout the country. Bachoco's main business lines are chicken, eggs, and swine, and the Company is also an important player in the balanced feed industry in Mexico. The Company's headquarters are based in Celaya, Guanajuato, located in Mexico's central region.
