On December 8, 2010, First Financial Bancorp announced its intent to exit the four locations comprising its Michigan geographic market and its single location in Louisville, Kentucky. In addition, the company announced that it would be consolidating seven banking centers in Ohio and Indiana. The decisions to exit these markets and to consolidate other markets were made following an internal strategic review and, subject to appropriate regulatory approval/non-objection, are expected to be completed by March 31, 2011.
