Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers:
Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On August 4, 2011, John (BJ) Lackland notified the board of directors of Power Efficiency Corporation (the “Company”) that he will be resigning from the positions of Chief Financial Officer, Secretary and Director effective August 15, 2011. Mr. Lackland’s resignation is not as a result of any disagreement with the Company’s operations, policies or practices.

On August 5, 2011, Brian Chan was promoted to the position of Vice President of Finance and Accounting. Mr. Chan will continue to be the Treasurer of the Company, a position which he has held since 2005. Upon Mr. Lackland’s resignation, Mr. Chan will serve as the principal accounting officer and he will assume all of the duties previously performed by Mr. Lackland. Before joining the Company, from 2003-2005 Mr. Chan was an accountant at Johnson Jacobson Wilcox, a Las Vegas accounting firm specializing in privately held construction and real estate companies. Mr. Chan is a licensed Certified Public Accountant in California (inactive), and has a Bachelor of Arts in Business Economics with an emphasis in Accounting from University of California Santa Barbara.

On August 5, 2011, the Company promoted Rick Sander to the position of Chief Operating Officer. Prior to joining Power Efficiency, from 1997 to 2011, Mr. Sander was the President & Chief Executive Officer of ISE Corporation, a developer of a hybrid/EV drive system for commercial vehicles. Prior to ISE, Mr. Sander was the Vice President of Worldwide Operations and Supply Chain Management for Smart Modular Technologies, a $1 billion producer of memory and embedded computing. Mr. Sander earned his M.B.A. from San Diego State University and a B.S. in Industrial Manufacturing Engineering from Oregon State University.
