Item 8.01 Other Events

On August 31, 2012, a jury in the case titled "Garden Grove Galleria LLC v. Cathay Bank," Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Orange, Case No. 30-2010-00342212, delivered a verdict awarding damages in the amount of $11.6 million in favor of Garden Grove Galleria LLC and against Cathay Bank, which is a subsidiary of Cathay General Bancorp. The jury verdict is not final and is subject to further legal proceedings. Among other matters, the trial in the case is not yet concluded. The trial judge has yet to rule on those portions of the case which, under applicable law, are triable by the court rather than a jury, including Cathay Bank's cross complaint against Garden Grove Galleria LLC for the $19 million unpaid balance of a loan.

Garden Grove Galleria LLC is the borrower on a construction loan made by Cathay Bank with two bank participants. The participants own a combined 50% participation interest in the loan and Cathay Bank owns the remaining 50%. As such, Cathay Bank's potential liability is expected to be limited to 50% of any final award that may be entered in favor of Garden Grove Galleria LLC.

Because the case has yet to been concluded, Cathay General Bancorp and Cathay Bank intend to observe their policy of not commenting on pending litigation.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this Form 8-K are forward-looking statements that involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Such forward-looking statements may include such words as "anticipates," "believes," "can," "could," "estimates," "expects," "intends," "may," "plans," "seeks," "shall," "should," "will," "potential," "possible," and variations of these words and similar expressions. For such statements, we claim the protection of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Actual events or results may differ materially from our expectations. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, contingencies beyond the control of Cathay General Bancorp and Cathay Bank including adverse legal developments in the proceedings. Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those stated or implied by our forward-looking statements are disclosed in our other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These forward-looking statements represent our judgment as of the time of the filing of this Form 8-K. We disclaim any intent or obligation to update these forward-looking statements, other than as may be required under applicable law.
