Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 6, 2014, Hudson Technologies, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an Underwriting Agreement (the “Underwriting Agreement”) with William Blair & Company, L.L.C., for itself and as representative (the “Representative”) of Craig-Hallum Capital Group LLC and Roth Capital Partners, LLC (collectively, the “Underwriters”), in connection with an underwritten offering (the “Offering”) of 6,000,000 shares of the Company’s common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the “Firm Shares”). Subject to the terms and conditions of the Underwriting Agreement, the Company has agreed to sell to the Underwriters, and the Underwriters have agreed to purchase from the Company, an aggregate of 6,000,000 shares of common stock at a price of $2.3375 per share, and the price to the public was $2.50 per share. Pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement, the Company also granted the Underwriters a 30 day option to purchase up to 900,000 additional shares of its common stock to cover over-allotments, if any (collectively, the “Option Shares” and together with the Firm Shares, the “Shares”). The Company will also reimburse certain expenses incurred by the Underwriters in the Offering.

The Company estimates gross proceeds from the Offering to be approximately $15,000,000 (assuming no exercise of the Underwriters’ over-allotment option), before deducting underwriting discounts and estimated offering expenses. The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the Offering for working capital and general corporate purposes which may include, among other things, funding acquisitions, although the Company has no present commitments or agreements with respect to any such transactions. The Company may also use a portion of the proceeds to reduce or repay indebtedness under its loan agreement with its existing commercial lender.

The Underwriting Agreement contains customary representations, warranties, conditions to closing, indemnification obligations, including for liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended and other agreements and obligations of the parties. The closing with respect to the sale of the Firm Shares is expected to be held on or about June 11, 2014, subject to customary closing conditions.

The Shares will be issued pursuant to a prospectus supplement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, in connection with a shelf takedown from the Company’s registration statement on Form S-3 (File No. 333-185490) which became effective on January 22, 2013.

Pursuant to the terms of the Underwriting Agreement and related lock-up agreements, the Company and all of its directors and executive officers also agreed not to sell or transfer any common stock held by them for 90 days after June 6, 2014 without first obtaining the written consent of the Representative, subject to certain exceptions, extensions and terms as set forth in the Agreement.

A copy of the opinion of Blank Rome LLP relating to the legality of the issuance and sale of the Shares in the Offering is attached as Exhibit 5.1 hereto.

A copy of the Underwriting Agreement is filed as Exhibit 1.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference, and the foregoing description of the terms of the Underwriting Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to such exhibit.
