On page 23 of First Data Corporation's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2003, First Data indicated that, to facilitate Bank One's deconversion schedule, a tentative agreement had been reached for First Data to continue providing card processing services to the Bank beyond the June 2004 expiration of the existing agreement with Bank One. Subsequently, the parties were unable to finalize the tentative agreement. The issue of whether a First Data subsidiary must continue to offer processing services at current rates after the June 2004 expiration date and certain other matters are now the subject of a binding arbitration proceeding, pursuant to the terms of the processing agreement.
