Item 8.01 Other Events

Vance D. Coffman, Chairman of the Board of Lockheed Martin Corporation, retired as an employee of the Corporation, effective as of September 1, 2004. Effective September 1, 2004, the Board of Directors of the Corporation approved the payment of cash compensation to Dr. Coffman, as a non-employee Chairman of the Board, at the rate of $500,000 per annum, in addition to the cash and equity compensation otherwise payable to him as a non-employee director of the Corporation under the Corporation's existing director compensation programs. Non-employee directors of the Corporation receive an annual retainer that is payable half in cash ($75,000) and half in stock units, options or a combination of both ($75,000). Effective September 1, 2004, as a non-employee director, Dr. Coffman received an award of 460 stock units (valued at $25,000 based on the closing price for the Corporation's common stock on that date) and will receive a cash retainer of $25,000, which respectively represent the pro rata portions of the stock and cash retainer payable to non-employee directors for the balance of 2004.

Prior to August 5, 2004, Dr. Coffman served as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation. Effective August 5, 2004, Robert J. Stevens was elected to serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws

Consistent with the actions reported above, the Board of Directors of Lockheed Martin Corporation amended the Corporation's Bylaws, effective as of August 5, 2004, to provide that the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation shall be its President (as opposed to the Chairman, previously) and to amend references in Article IV, Sections 4.01 and 4.02, of the Bylaws to the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer to refer to the President and Chief Executive Officer. Section 4.03 of the Bylaws, which previously created the office of President and Chief Operating Officer, was deleted and the remaining sections of Article IV were renumbered.
