- * Mr. Li Liangwen has resigned as the Company's vice president.

The board of directors of the Company (the Board) announces that:

(1) Mr. Yang Chao has resigned as the Company's president, but would remain as the Company's executive director and chairman

In order to comply with the code provision that the chairman and chief executive of a listed company should not be the same person, as set out in the Code on Corporate Governance Practices issued by The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, and to promote the corporate governance practices of the Company, Mr. Yang Chao (Mr. Yang) tendered his resignation to the Board as the Company's president on 5 January 2006. Mr. Yang's resignation was approved at the 19th meeting of the first session of the Board held on 5 January 2006 and took effect upon conclusion of the meeting. Mr. Yang would remain as the Company's executive director and chairman.

(2) Mr. Wu Yan has been re-designated from the Company's non-executive director as Company's executive director and was appointed as the Company's president

By a resolution passed at the 19th meeting of the first session of the Board held on 5 January 2006, Mr. Wu Yan (Mr. Wu) has been re-designated from the Company's non-executive director to executive director, and was appointed as the Company's president with the nomination by the chairman of the Company. Such re-designation and appointment took effect from 5 January 2006.

Background of Mr. Wu

Mr. Wu, aged 44, has been the non-executive director of the Company and the vice president of CLIC, the Company's controlling shareholder since 2003. He served as director and president of China Life Asset Management Company Limited, the Company's subsidiary (in which the Company owns 60% interest) from October 2003 to January 2006. He served as party secretary of the Central Finance League and president of the National Finance Youth Union from 1998 to 2003. Prior to that, he served as the vice minister of Central Communist Youth League organization department, party secretary of Central Communist Youth League organization department, party secretary of the Communist Youth League of Xinjiang Autonomous Region, a member of the standing committee of Beortalar Autonomous County Communist Party Committee; and party secretary of the city of Bole. He graduated in 1981 from Xinjiang College of Finance and Economics with a major in finance. In 2002, he graduated from the China Academy of Social Sciences with a Ph.D. in National Economics.

Save as disclosed herein, Mr. Wu does not have any relationship with any directors, senior management or substantial or controlling shareholder of the Company. Mr. Wu does not have any interests in shares of the Company within the meaning of Part XV of the Securities and Futures Ordinance.

Other than his directorship with the Company, Mr. Wu has not held any directorship in any other listed public companies in the past three years. There is no service contract entered into between Mr. Wu and the Company. Mr. Wu will be subject to retirement by rotation and re-election at annual general meetings of the Company in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association. Mr. Wu will be entitled to an annual director fee to be determined by the Board with reference to his responsibilities. Save as aforesaid, there are no other matters relating to Mr. Wu's re-designation that need to be brought to the attention of the shareholders of the Company.

(3) Mr. Miao Fuchun has been re-designated from the Company's executive director as the Company's non-executive director and has resigned as the Company's vice president

Owing to appointment as CLIC's vice president, by a resolution passed at the 19th meeting of the first session of the Board held on 5 January 2006, the Board approved the re-designation of Mr. Miao Fuchun (Mr. Miao) from the Company's executive director as the Company's non-executive director and accepted the resignation of Mr. Miao as Company's vice president. Such re-designation and resignation took effect upon conclusion of the meeting.

Background of Mr. Miao

Mr. Miao, aged 59, has been a director and vice president of the Company and vice chairman of China Life Asset Management Company Limited since 2003. Before joining the Company, Mr. Miao served as vice president of CLIC from 1999 to 2003, and as director of the Central Finance and Economy Office from 1995 to 1999. Mr. Miao's other positions include director of the Administrative Office of MOFTEC (now the Ministry of Commerce), and deputy director and department chief of the Administrative Office of the State Council. Mr. Miao, a senior economist, enrolled in Renmin University in 1965, obtaining both Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Economics.

Save as disclosed herein, Mr. Miao does not have any relationship with any directors, senior management or substantial or controlling shareholder of the Company. Mr. Miao does not have any interests in shares of the Company within the meaning of Part XV of the Securities and Futures Ordinance.

Other than his directorship with the Company, Mr. Miao has not held any directorship in any other listed public companies in the past three years. There is no service contract entered into between Mr. Miao and the Company. Mr. Miao will be subject to retirement by rotation and re-election at annual general meetings of the Company in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association. Mr. Miao will be entitled to an annual director fee to be determined by the Board with reference to his responsibilities. Save as aforesaid, there are no other matters relating to Mr. Miao's re-designation that need to be brought to the attention of the shareholders of the Company.

(4) Proposed resolution to nominate Mr. Ma Yongwei as the candidate for Company's independent non-executive director

The Board passed a resolution at the 19th meeting of the first session of the Board held on 5 January 2006 to nominate Mr. Ma Yongwei (Mr. Ma) as the candidate for the Company's independent non-executive director. The Company would put forward such resolution for shareholders approval at the EGM to be convened. Such proposed appointment will take effect upon shareholders' approval at the EGM.

Background of Mr. Ma
