Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

The total amount of funds required by the Reporting Persons to acquire the Shares was $23,419,286.98. Each of the Funds used its own assets to purchase such Shares, which may at any given time include funds borrowed in the ordinary course in their margin accounts.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

On December 21, 2005, the Reporting Persons sent a letter to the Board of Directors of the Issuer (the December 21st Letter). In connection with the foregoing, and as may be appropriate from time to time depending on the course of discussions with the Issuer or other actions taken by the Issuer, the Reporting Persons will consider the feasibility and advisability of various alternative courses of action with respect to their investment in the Issuer, including, without limitation: (a) the acquisition or disposition by the Reporting Persons of additional Shares; (b) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries; (c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries; (d) changes in the present board of directors or management of the Issuer; (e) a material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Issuer; (f) other material changes in the Issuer's business or corporate structure; (g) changes in the Issuer's articles of incorporation or bylaws or other actions that may impede the acquisition of control of the Issuer by any person; (h) causing any class of the Issuer's securities to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association; (i) causing a class of equity securities of the Issuer to become eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Exchange Act; or (j) any action similar to those enumerated above. Except as described in the first paragraph of this Item 4 of the Schedule 13D, the Reporting Persons do not currently have any plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the actions specified in clause (a) through (j) of this Item 4 of the Schedule 13D.

The Reporting Persons reserve the right, based on all relevant factors and subject to applicable law, at any time and from time to time, to review or reconsider their position, change their purpose, take other actions (including actions that could involve one or more of the types of transactions or have one or more of the results described in paragraphs (a) through (j) of this Item 4 of the Schedule 13D) or formulate and implement plans or proposals with respect to any of the foregoing. The Reporting Persons intend to review their investment in the Issuer from time to time on the basis of various factors, including the Issuer's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, general economic and industry conditions, the securities markets in general and those for the Issuer's stock in particular, as well as other developments.

Capital Senior Living Corporation

Independent Members of the Board of Directors

Mssrs. Hartberg, Nee and Moore; Ms. Krueger

14160 Dallas Parkway, Suite 300

Dallas, Texas 75254

Dear Independent Board Members:

We are again writing to you as one of the largest independent shareholders of Capital Senior Living Corporation (the Company or CSU), with an approximate 9.8% ownership stake in the Company. In our previous letter to you dated December 21, 2005, we outlined the gross failures of the Board of Directors in exercising its fiduciary duties to shareholders. We described the excessive executive compensation, all the more outrageous in the face of continuing operating losses for the Company, as well as offensive evergreen long term contracts for seriously underperforming executives. You rejected our call for a sale of the Company without reviewing the substance of our views and instead replied that the Company was pursuing a vague business plan that did not, with any meaningful degree of specificity, address the continued operating losses of the Company or the other concerns we have expressed.

Since the date of that letter, neither the financial performance of the Company nor the executive compensation practices of the Board of Directors have improved. In fact, they have remained poor or worsened. For such a critical metric as operating profit or loss, it was somehow not stated until the fourth page of a bizarrely self-congratulatory press release that the Company continued to lose money in the fourth quarter and for the year. Buried in the press release is the sad truth that the Company lost $1,734,000 before income taxes in the fourth quarter of 2005 and $7,187,000 before taxes for the year-ended 2005. These results, together with how they were presented to stockholders, are unacceptable.

Against this backdrop, despite the continuing losses the Board of Directors actually increased executive compensation in 2005, as disclosed in the Company's recent proxy statement. We do not know how the Compensation Committee Mssrs. Moore, Nee and Hartberg can possibly believe that they are fulfilling their fiduciary duties as directors, but to actually increase executive pay in the face of such truly awful performance is incomprehensible. The Board of Directors also decided for some inexplicable reason to reward such terrible performance with additional restricted stock awards to Lawrence Cohen, Chief Executive Officer, and Keith Johannessen, President, each in the amount of $454,350. In the face of continued operating losses and an industry high G&A level, this sort of outrageous compensation is highly offensive and preposterous on its face.

Notwithstanding that these three gentlemen collectively own 5,800 shares (Mr. Hartberg actually owns no shares) and therefore clearly have no financial interest or alignment with common shareholders, we nonetheless would expect any individual to refuse or renegotiate such outlandish pay. While much is made of pre-existing contracts, the Board of Directors also meekly rolls over such evergreen contracts for the top five (at least) executives, perpetuating a shareholder wealth-destructing practice. We hereby demand that you unilaterally terminate all such contracts prior to the May 9, 2006 Company Annual Meeting, or we will be left with no choice but to pursue all alternatives available to us to end this corporate waste.

We reiterate our call for the Company to put itself up for sale through an auction process. The Company is far too small and its assets are too geographically dispersed to have any hope of achieving a critical operating mass. We believe strongly that larger competitors would pay a healthy premium in an acquisition to absorb the Company's asset base and eliminate the Company's ongoing G&A crisis.

We look forward to some evidence that this Board of Directors is serious about fulfilling its role as fiduciaries to the shareholders. We demand action prior to the 2006 Annual Meeting to remedy these serious defects in performance and compensation by hiring an independent investment banking firm to consider strategic alternatives and publicly announcing this course of action. Terminating the evergreen provisions of the five executives' employment agreements is also unquestionably necessary.

Sincerely yours,
