The following correspondence was sent to employees of Marshall & Ilsley Corporation.

Dear M&I Employees,

On Monday, September 24, Marshall & Ilsley Corporation began mailing a proxy statement related to its intention to separate Marshall & Ilsley Corporation and Metavante Corporation into separate public companies. This proxy statement was mailed to all M&I shareholders, including employees who participate in M&I's Retirement Plan, Employee Stock Purchase Plan, or through personal investment strategies.

The proxy statement provides great detail on the proposed separation and distribution of shares and also provides notice of the special meeting of shareholders to be held on October 25, 2007. The meeting is expected to be brief, with no management presentations. The purpose of the event is to vote on the proposal to approve and adopt the investment agreement dated as of April 3, 2007, and adopt the transactions contemplated by the investment agreement, as well as approve any adjournments of the special meeting should a quorum for the meeting not be achieved.

Your vote is very important. We cannot complete the transaction unless an affirmative vote of the majority of the outstanding shares of M&I is received. Therefore, if you are a shareholder, please take a moment to review the materials you receive in the mail and vote your M&I shares either by mail, phone, or online. Voting instructions are included on the proxy card.

This is a very important time in the history of both M&I and Metavante, and the outcome of this special shareholder vote will have an impact on the success of both organizations going forward. Thank you in advance for voting your shares in a timely manner.
