FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Agrium responds to misleading statements in recent CF filing

Corrects CF s mischaracterizations of regulatory approvals status and process

June 18, 2009 ALL AMOUNTS ARE STATED IN U.S.$

CALGARY, Alberta Agrium Inc. (TSX and NYSE: AGU) today responded to misleading assertions in a recent CF filing regarding the regulatory review of the proposed Agrium/CF transaction.

CF has seriously misrepresented the status and character of the antitrust review of Agrium s proposed acquisition of CF, further supporting our concerns that CF is not acting in the best interests of its stockholders.

Agrium and its counsel have been in close communication with the relevant antitrust authorities in Canada and the U.S. and are confident that there are no material impediments to closing an Agrium/CF transaction, nor are there expected to be any material delays in closing as a result of regulatory review. The waiting period under relevant Canadian law expired on March 23, 2009. While Agrium and its antitrust counsel continue discussions with the Canadian Competition Bureau, Agrium s antitrust counsel is of the view that no further Canadian competition approvals under Canadian law are required to legally close the transaction today.

Agrium will re-file its HSR Form with the U.S. Federal Trade Commission once it completes its ongoing discussions with the FTC, which the Company believes can be satisfactorily concluded in short order.

Agrium believes CF s misstatements on this and other matters provides even more rationale for CF stockholders to tender their shares into the Agrium offer and send a strong message to the CF Board. Agrium s offer is far superior to any alternative articulated by CF, including remaining independent or paying a premium for Terra. Tendering shares into Agrium s exchange offer is the only way for CF stockholders to send an unambiguous message to CF s Board that you will not tolerate entrenchment.

Agrium s exchange offer expires at 12:00 midnight, New York City time, on June 22, 2009.

Agrium s offer is not subject to a financing condition. Agrium has sufficient cash resources and committed financing underwritten by Royal Bank of Canada and The Bank of Nova Scotia to fund the cash portion of the offer.

Other information regarding potential participants in such proxy solicitation and a description of their direct and indirect interests, by security holdings or otherwise, will be contained in any proxy statement filed in connection with the proposed transaction.

All information in this press release concerning CF, including its business, operations and financial results, was obtained from public sources. While Agrium has no knowledge that any such information is inaccurate or incomplete, Agrium has not had the opportunity to verify any of that information.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements and other information included in this press release constitute forward-looking information within the meaning of applicable Canadian securities legislation or constitute forward-looking statements (together, forward-looking statements). All statements in this press release, other than those relating to historical information or current condition, are forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, estimates, forecasts and statements as to management s expectations with respect to, among other things, business and financial prospects, financial multiples and accretion estimates, future trends, plans, strategies, objectives and expectations, including with respect to future operations following the proposed acquisition of CF. These forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our control, which could cause actual results to differ materially from such forward-looking statements.

Events or circumstances that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements, include, but are not limited to, CF s failure to accept Agrium s proposal and enter into a definitive agreement to effect the transaction, Agrium common shares issued in connection with the proposed acquisition may have a market value lower than expected, the businesses of Agrium and CF, or any other recent business acquisitions, may not be integrated successfully or such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected, the expected combination benefits and synergies and costs savings from the Agrium/CF transaction may not be fully realized or not realized within the expected time frame, the possible delay in the completion of the steps required to be taken for the eventual combination of the two companies, including the possibility that approvals or clearances required to be obtained from regulatory and other agencies and bodies will not be obtained in a timely manner or will be obtained on conditions that may require divestiture of assets expected to be acquired, disruption from the proposed transaction making it more difficult to maintain relationships with customers, employees and suppliers, general business and economic conditions, interest rates, exchange rates and tax rates, weather conditions, crop prices, the supply, demand and price level for our major products, gas prices and gas availability, operating rates and production costs, domestic fertilizer consumption and any changes in government policy in key agriculture markets, including the application of price controls and tariffs on fertilizers and the availability of subsidies or changes in their amounts, changes in development plans, construction progress, political risks, including civil unrest, actions by armed groups or conflict, governmental and regulatory requirements and actions by governmental authorities, including changes in government policy, changes in environmental, tax and other laws or regulations and the interpretation thereof and other risk factors detailed from time to time in Agrium and CF s reports filed with the SEC.

Agrium disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements in this press release as a result of new information or future events, except as may be required under applicable U.S. federal securities laws or applicable Canadian securities legislation.

These forward-looking statements are based on certain assumptions and analyses made by us in light of our experience and perception of historical trends, current conditions and expected future developments as well as other factors we believe are appropriate in the circumstances. Expected future developments are based, in part, upon assumptions respecting our ability to successfully integrate the businesses of Agrium and CF, or any other recent acquisitions.

All of the forward-looking statements contained herein are qualified by these cautionary statements and by the assumptions that are stated or inherent in such forward-looking statements. Although we believe these assumptions are reasonable, undue reliance should not be placed on these assumptions and such forward-looking statements. The key assumptions that have been made in connection with the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, CF s acceptance of Agrium s proposal and the entering into of a definitive agreement to effect the proposed transaction, closing the proposed transaction, the market value of Agrium common shares issued in connection with the proposed acquisition, our ability to successfully integrate within expected time frames and costs, and realize the expected combination benefits and synergies and costs savings from, the combination of the businesses of Agrium and CF, or any other recent business acquisitions, and our ability to maintain relationships with customers, employees and suppliers during the course of the proposed transaction.
