Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

SunGard Data Systems Inc. (the Company) and Robert F. Woods, the Company's chief financial officer, are parties to an existing employment agreement, effective January 1, 2010, which provides for severance benefits upon Mr. Woods' resignation for good reason in connection with a change of control of the Company or upon Mr. Woods' involuntary termination by the Company without cause. The employment agreement was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 8-K on December 22, 2009.

On May 17, 2011, the Company and Mr. Woods amended the employment agreement to provide that Mr. Woods will receive severance benefits upon his resignation for good reason, without regard to a change of control, and to modify the definition of resignation for good reason. Under the employment agreement, a change in Mr. Woods' positions, titles, offices or responsibilities that constitutes a material and adverse change from Mr. Woods' positions, titles, offices or responsibilities as in effect immediately before such change without Mr. Woods' consent gives rise to a right to resign for good reason. Under the amendment, a material and adverse change in Mr. Woods' positions, titles, offices or responsibilities will not be deemed to have occurred for this purpose solely as a result of a spin-off of the availability services business of the Company, the sale of some or all of the assets of the availability services business or an initial public offering relating to the stock of the Company or any of its affiliates. The amendment also modifies the definition of resignation for good reason to include the occurrence of either of the following, without Mr. Woods' express prior consent: (1) a material change in the geographic location at which Mr. Woods is required to perform services for the Company or (2) a material breach by the Company of the employment agreement. The method of calculating the amount of severance benefits has not changed.
