On June 22, 2009, SC VI purchased from the Issuer a secured convertible promissory note and warrants to purchase 208,950 shares of Common Stock for approximately $4,000,000 of consideration paid out of the working capital of SC VI. The note matured on September 30, 2009 and was converted on October 22, 2009 into 696,500 shares of Common Stock. The warrants have an exercise price of $5.74 per share and a term that expires June 22, 2019.

On October 22, 2009, SC VI also purchased from the Issuer 696,500 shares of Common Stock for approximately $4,000,000 of consideration paid out of the working capital of SC VI.

On November 23, 2010, SC VI purchased an unsecured convertible promissory note from the Issuer for $2,932,242 of consideration paid out of the working capital of SC VI. On April 15, 2011 the note was converted into 278,005 shares of Common Stock and warrants to purchase 69,475 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $10.55 with a 10-year term. Each Unit consisted of one share of Common Stock and one warrant to purchase half of one share of Common Stock at an exercise price of $11.00 per whole Common Share (the IPO Warrants). The Units were purchased by SC VI using its working capital. The 440,000 shares of Common Stock underlying the IPO Warrants are not exercisable until August 8, 2013, and therefore are not included in the total 4,082,547 shares reported above.

- (d) Under certain circumstances set forth in the operating agreement of SC VI, the equity holders of SC VI and SP SAS may be deemed to have the right to receive dividends from, or the proceeds from, the sale of shares of Common Stock owned by SC VI.
- (e) Not applicable.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer.Lock-Up Agreement

In connection with the IPO, SC VI agreed that, subject to certain exceptions, without the prior written consent of Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Société Générale and Barclays Capital Inc. on behalf of the underwriters of the IPO, SC VI will not, during the period ending November 5, 2013 (as such period may be extended under certain circumstances), offer, sell, contract to sell, announce the intention to sell, pledge, grant any option to purchase, make any short sale or otherwise dispose of any shares of Common Stock, or any options or warrants to purchase any shares of Common Stock, or any securities convertible into, exchangeable for or that represent the right to receive shares of Common Stock, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, owned directly by SC VI (including holding as a custodian) or with respect to which SC VI has beneficial ownership within the rules and regulations of the SEC, or exercise any right with respect to the registration of such shares, or demand or cause to be filed any registration statement in connection therewith, under the Securities Act, as amended (the Securities Act).

Shareholders Agreement

On April 15, 2011, the Issuer and SC VI, together with other holders of the Issuer's Common Stock, options and warrants, entered into an Amended and Restated Shareholders Agreement, which was further amended on November 4, 2011, February 6, 2012 and May 2, 2013 (as amended, the Shareholders Agreement). The Shareholders Agreement provides registration rights, as well as customary rights provided to major investors including pre-emptive rights, rights of first refusal, co-sale rights with respect to stock transfers, rights regarding the election of investor designees to our board of directors, drag-along rights in the event of a sale of the Company, information rights and other similar rights. All of these rights, other than the registration rights, terminated upon the completion of the IPO. The registration rights are described below.

Registration Rights

SC VI and other holders of an aggregate of approximately 8.5 million shares of the Issuer's Common Stock, including shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of warrants that were in existence prior to the date of the IPO, are entitled to rights with respect to the registration of these shares under the Securities Act for resale to the public (the Registrable Securities). All of these rights are provided under the terms of the Shareholders Agreement and include demand registration rights, piggyback registration rights and Form S-3 and Form F-3 registration rights, in each case as described below. The registration rights will terminate for any particular holder with registration rights at such time following the IPO when all securities held by that holder may be sold pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act.

Piggyback Registration Rights. If the Issuer decides to register any of its securities under the Securities Act, either for its own account or for the account of a security holder or holders, the holders of registration rights, including SC VI, are entitled to prompt notice of the registration and are entitled to include their shares of Common Stock in the registration. These piggyback registration rights do not apply with respect to a registration statement relating to an employee benefit plan or to a corporate reorganization or other transaction under Rule 145 of the Securities Act.

Demand Registration Rights. At any time after 180 days from the effective date of the IPO, subject to certain limitations, the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities then outstanding (the Initiating Holders) have the right to demand that the Issuer file a registration statement covering the registration of at least 10% of the Registrable Securities then outstanding and having an aggregate price to the public of not less than $15.0 million. The Issuer will not be required to effect a registration if (1) the Issuer has effected three registrations that have been declared effective and have remained effective until the holders have completed the distribution related thereto, (2) the Issuer's board of directors, in its reasonable judgment, determines that it would be detrimental to the Issuer and its stockholders for such registration statement to be effected at such time, in which case the Issuer has the right to defer such filing for up to 90 days following receipt of the demand request from the holders and (3) the Initiating Holders propose to dispose of Registrable Securities that are immediately registrable on Form S-3 or Form F-3, as applicable.

Form S-3 and Form F-3 Registration Rights. At any time after the Issuer becomes eligible to file a registration statement on Form S-3 or Form F-3, any holder or holders of Registrable Securities for which a Form S-3 or Form F-3 is available may require the Issuer to file such a registration statement having an aggregate price to the public of not less than $1.0 million. The Issuer is not obligated to file more than two Form S-3 or Form F-3 registration statements in any twelve-month period. In addition, the Issuer is not obligated to effect a registration if (1) a Form S-3 or Form F-3, as applicable, is not available for such offering by the holder or holders, (2) the Issuer's board of directors, in its reasonable judgment, determines that it would be detrimental to the Issuer and its stockholders for such registration statement to be effected at such time, in which case the Issuer has the right to defer such filing for up to 90 days following receipt of the Form S-3 or Form F-3 demand request from the holder or holders and (3) with respect to a particular jurisdiction, the Issuer would be required to qualify to do business or to execute a general consent to service of process in effecting such registration, qualification or compliance.

Expenses of Registration. The Issuer generally is required to bear the expenses of all registrations, including the expense of a single special counsel to the holders of each registration not to exceed $75,000 per registration. However, the Issuer will not be required to pay for underwriting discounts and commissions or expenses in connection with the exercise of demand and piggyback registration rights if the request is subsequently withdrawn by the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities, subject to limited exceptions.

The foregoing summary of the Shareholders Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Amended and Restated Shareholders Agreement and the First, Second and Third Amendments thereto, which are filed herewith as Exhibits 1, 2, 3 and 4, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.
