Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 17, 2013, TriCo Bancshares (TriCo) and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Tri Counties Bank (the Bank), entered into Change of Control Agreements with certain of TriCo s executive officers, including Thomas Reddish, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer; Richard O Sullivan, Executive Vice President Wholesale Banking; Craig Carney, Executive Vice President Chief Credit Officer and Dan Bailey, Executive Vice President Retail Banking.

The Change of Control Agreements replace and supersede the executives previously existing change of control agreements and provide substantially similar benefits. Each Change of Control Agreement provides that if a change of control occurs and, within the following year, the executive s employment is terminated other than for cause or the executive terminates his employment after a substantial and material negative change in his title, compensation or responsibilities, then the executive is entitled to receive a severance payment equal to twice the combined amount of his annual salary then in effect plus the annual bonus compensation he received during the previous year, provided that the payment shall not be more than 299% of the executive s compensation as defined by section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code. Each Change of Control Agreement has a one-year term but automatically renews for successive one-year terms each year unless terminated by either party 90 days prior to the end of the term. In exchange for receiving the benefits under his agreement, each executive agrees to devote his full and exclusive time and attention to TriCo s and the Bank s business and to keep confidential all of TriCo s and the Bank s trade secrets.

A change of control as defined in the Change of Control Agreements would occur upon a person becoming the beneficial owner of 40% or more of the combined voting power of TriCo s voting securities, TriCo s shareholders approval of a merger of TriCo where TriCo is not the surviving corporation, a tender offer, the sale of all of the assets of TriCo or the Bank or their dissolution, or a change in the majority of the board of directors of TriCo or the Bank over any two-year period unless approved by at least two-thirds of the directors in office who were directors at the beginning of the two-year period.

This summary of the Change on Control Agreements is qualified by the form of agreement included as an exhibit to this report.
