Dear [INSERT NAME],

I want to share with you some important news about Altera. Earlier today we announced that Altera will be acquired by Intel, the world's largest semiconductor company and a proven technology leader.

We believe this transaction will bring many exciting opportunities to our valued customers. Intel is committed to growing our current business. Additionally, as part of Intel we will be able to develop innovative FPGAs and system-on-chips for our customers in all market segments.

It is important for you to know that until the transaction is completed, which is anticipated within six to nine months, Altera and Intel will remain separate companies and will conduct business as usual.

Thank you for your continued partnership and ongoing support. If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to your normal Altera contact.

Sincerely,
