P&G Colleagues,

Today, we issued the next letter in our series of letters to P&G shareholders about the ongoing proxy contest with Trian Partners. The purpose of these letters is to help P&G shareholders which include many of you make an informed decision as they vote their proxy cards between now and our Annual Shareholder Meeting on October 10. You can find additional information at voteblue.pg.com.

As we discussed in the webcast, we are on the right track. Since November 1, 2015, our team has delivered total shareholder return (TSR) of 27% well above the vast majority of peers selected by Trian throughout that same time period.¹ P&G also outperformed the S&P 500, which delivered a TSR of 24% in that same timeframe.² Please note that the weighted average return of the companies where Mr. Peltz serves as a Board member has been only 8%. Only one of these companies, Mondelez International, is a large, multinational company. The returns there have been a NEGATIVE 3%.

We believe Mr. Peltz initiated the proxy contest to satisfy his own agenda and meet the expectations of his limited partners. What's best for P&G right now is balance and focus. P&G will not benefit from change for the sake of change. Now is the time to build on our momentum, and prevent anything from derailing the work that is delivering improvement. We strongly believe it is in the best interest of our Company, our shareholders, and each of us who care about P&G and the communities in which we live and work, to vote the Blue Proxy Card.

There's a line of P&G blue that connects every one of us. This is the time to support the Company so that we can continue to deliver on our plan that is working.

Thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

David
