P&G Highlights Transformation to a Profoundly Different, Much Stronger, and More Profitable Company

Details Portfolio of Leading Brands Consistently Ranked #1 in Market Share

Sets Record Straight on Nelson Peltz's Flawed and Outdated View of the Company

CINCINNATI September 11, 2017 The Procter & Gamble Company (NYSE:PG) today reiterated the facts about its leading market share brands, winning total shareholder return and strong plans for continued value creation, setting the record straight regarding Triana's flawed and outdated view of the Company.

P&G is a profoundly different, much stronger, and more profitable company than it was just a few years ago, said David S. Taylor, P&G's Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer. Now is the time to build on our momentum and prevent anything from derailing the work that is delivering results.

Ahead of the Company's upcoming 2017 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, P&G strongly recommends that shareholders vote to support the P&G Board by voting the BLUE Proxy Card FOR ALL of P&G's highly qualified Directors. Additional information regarding the proxy contest, as well as the Company's strategy and recent results, is available at <http://voteblue.pg.com>.

The full text of the letter released to shareholders today follows:

We have the right team with the right structure in place – experienced, agile, empowered, accountable and definitely committed to win.

-David S. Taylor, Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer, Barclays Conference, 9.7.17

Over the past several weeks, the P&G team has been on the road meeting with shareholders. We have been highlighting the strategy and plans P&G is executing to create value for consumers and for all of P&G's shareholders.

We have been delivering one clear message: P&G is a profoundly different, much stronger, and more profitable company than it was just a few years ago. P&G has transformed itself with a focused portfolio of leading brands – many are consistently ranked #1 in market share in their categories – where products solve problems and performance drives purchase.

P&G Brand	Market Share ¹	Rank	P&G Brand	Market Share ¹	Rank
	54%	#1		41%	#1
	44%	#1		34%	#1
	28%	#1		36%	#1
	50%	#1		49%	#1
	40%	#1		66%	#1
	64%	#1		47%	#1

The ongoing transformation efforts by P&G are creating value:

P&G met or exceeded each of its going-in fiscal 2017 objectives: balanced top- and bottom-line growth, cash productivity and cash delivered to shareholders.

P&G has delivered Total Shareholder Return above peers and above the weighted average return of those companies on which Mr. Peltz serves on the Board.

P&G's Winning Total Shareholder Return

Today's P&G is well positioned with the right plan, the right structure and the right Board in place to deliver results and shareholder value for the short-, mid- and long-term. P&G is successfully executing a winning strategy and has strong momentum. We firmly believe now is not the time to risk derailing our progress by adding Triant's Mr. Peltz to the P&G Board.

Mr. Peltz's flawed suggestions and outdated views underscore his fundamental misunderstanding of the P&G of today. While we won't belabor all of these flawed suggestions, here are the facts:

FACT: P&G IS ALREADY A MORE FOCUSED, AGILE AND ACCOUNTABLE COMPANY

P&G is simplifying its structure through one organizing principle: the business is run by category. Category leaders have complete ownership of the business from idea to sales execution and the bottom line. Prior to our transformation, we studied numerous organization designs, including one similar to what Mr. Peltz proposes. We concluded it would result in higher costs, lower efficiency, reduced profits, and an added layer of management complexity. Furthermore, we believe this proposal is code for another restructuring and a precursor to a breakup of the Company's cookie-cutter activist plan.

FACT: P&G'S PRODUCTIVITY PLAN IS ALREADY DELIVERING RESULTS FOR SHAREHOLDERS

P&G's productivity program is substantive and impactful. P&G over-delivered on its first $10 billion productivity goal and is well positioned to deliver up to $10 billion more in savings. This program overcame $7 billion in negative foreign exchange impacts. It enabled investment in R&D innovation, enhanced selling capabilities and increased sampling of superior products to new consumers. It increased profit per employee by 45%. It significantly increased our industry-leading margins, which we will continue to improve going forward.

FACT: P&G'S INNOVATION MACHINE IS WORKING AND IS FOCUSED ON GROWING MARKETS AND MARKET SHARE

P&G's noticeably superior innovation is meeting consumer needs and driving growth. We do more than simply study innovation, as suggested by Mr. Peltz. P&G's innovation machine has delivered new brands such as Always Discreet and Unstopables; delivered blockbuster new sub-brands such as Tide PODS, Ariel PODS, Gain FLINGS, Pampers Pants, Always Radiant, and Oral-B Genius; and upgraded the superiority of entire brands such as Dawn, Fairy, Charmin, Bounty, Head & Shoulders, SK-II, Old Spice, and Vicks to sustain their market-leading growth. To suggest that P&G's innovation machine is broken is ludicrous. P&G consistently dominates the IRI New Product Pacesetter rankings as the #1 company for successful new product innovations.

FACT: P&G IS WINNING IN DIGITAL AND GROWING SHARE IN E-COMMERCE

P&G's digital and e-commerce results speak for themselves:

P&G grew overall e-commerce sales at roughly a 30% rate last fiscal year.

P&G grew share in eight out of 10 categories in e-commerce in the last fiscal year.

P&G's e-commerce sales are over $3 billion more than our top two competitors combined.

P&G is one of the leading advertisers in digital media, and our consistently strong digital and e-commerce efforts are winning across multiple brands with people in all life stages, including millennials.

Among millennials, numerous top-selling P&G brands hold the #1 share position, and more than half have grown household penetration in the past year.

P&G is on the right track. We've done our homework. Don't let Mr. Peltz derail the progress we are making. Reject Mr. Peltz's bid to get on your Board.

P&G's Board has significant leadership experience across a range of industries and geographies. While Mr. Peltz claims to have consumer packaged goods experience, his experience is limited to food and beverage companies not household and personal care categories. We have done our homework. Mr. Peltz does not have the requisite skills nor the experiences we seek, and is not the right Director for P&G. The Board and management team have talked to numerous directors, CEOs and senior executives who have worked with Mr. Peltz, and positive recommendations were not forthcoming. Several people, however, would only speak candidly about their experiences with Mr. Peltz if those discussions were kept confidential, for fear of retribution.

Edgar Filing: PROCTER & GAMBLE Co - Form DEFA14A

P&G people are working with passion, ownership and commitment to create value for consumers and for you P&G shareholders. We never quit. We intend to win in the marketplace. We would have it no other way. Which is why the P&G Board, management team, and I continue to strongly believe it is in the best interest of our company and all of us who care about P&G to VOTE BLUE.

On behalf of your Board of Directors, we thank you for your continued support.
