The Company is a party to a consent agreement, dated January 31, 2017, with JAB Holding Company, Parent, and P&G whereby (i) P&G provided its consent under the Tax Matters Agreement to the purchase by Parent of Class A Common Stock in certain open market transactions, which occurred later in 2017, and (ii) JAB Holding Company, Parent and the Company agreed to indemnify P&G and its affiliates for any taxes resulting from such purchases or due to breach of the consent agreement.

The Company's subsidiary Beamly has also entered into service agreements with certain affiliates of Parent for the provision of digital media services on customary market terms. Aggregate fees under these arrangements totaled approximately $76,000 for the six months ended December 31, 2018, which were approved by the Audit and Finance Committee of the Board (AFC). Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (DGCL) grants each Delaware corporation the power to indemnify any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of serving or having served in any such capacity, if he or she acted in good faith in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. A Delaware corporation may similarly indemnify any such person in actions by or in the right of the corporation if he or she acted in good faith in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification may be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which the person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which the action was brought determines that, despite adjudication of liability, but in view of all of the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for expenses which the Delaware Court of Chancery or other court shall deem proper.

As permitted by Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL, the Company's amended and restated certificate of incorporation (the Certificate of Incorporation) includes a provision that eliminates the personal liability of its directors for monetary damages for breach of their fiduciary duty as directors, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Company or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for unlawful payments of dividends or unlawful stock repurchases, redemptions or other distributions or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The Company's Certificate of Incorporation and amended and restated by-laws (the Bylaws) indemnify the Company's directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL. In addition, as permitted by Section 145 of the DGCL, the Company's Bylaws provide that:

The Company may, in its discretion, indemnify employees and agents in those circumstances where indemnification is permitted by applicable law.

The Company is required to advance expenses, as incurred, to its directors and officers in connection with defending a proceeding, except that such director or officer shall undertake to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification.

The Company will not be obligated pursuant to the Bylaws to indemnify a person with respect to proceedings initiated by that person, except with respect to proceedings authorized by the Company's Board or brought to enforce a right to indemnification.

The rights conferred in the Bylaws are not exclusive, and the Company is authorized to enter into indemnification agreements with its directors, officers, employees and agents and to obtain insurance to indemnify such persons.

The Company may not retroactively amend the Bylaws provisions to reduce its indemnification obligations to directors, officers, employees and agents.

In addition, the Company has entered into indemnification agreements with each of its directors and executive officers pursuant to which the Company has agreed, subject to certain exceptions, to indemnify and advance expenses to such persons to the fullest extent permitted by law. The Company also maintains a directors and officers insurance policy.

Item 4. The Solicitation or Recommendation.

Solicitation/Recommendation

The Special Committee requests that the Company's stockholders take no action and not tender their Shares with respect to the Offer at the current time and instead defer making a determination whether to accept or reject the Offer until the Special Committee has advised the Company's stockholders of the Special Committee's recommendation, if any, with respect to the Offer.

The Special Committee is unable to take a position with respect to the Offer at the present time because it has not yet completed a full and deliberate review and evaluation of the material terms and provisions of the Offer and the prospects of the Company with the Special Committee's legal and financial advisors, sufficient to enable the Special Committee to take an informed position with respect to the Offer and to discharge properly its fiduciary duties under applicable law. The Special Committee expects that, after the Special Committee has completed its review and evaluation of the Offer, it will be able to cause the Company to inform the Company's stockholders as to whether the Special Committee has determined (i) to recommend acceptance or rejection of the Offer; (ii) to express no opinion and remain neutral toward the Offer; or (iii) to state that it is unable to take a position with respect to the Offer.

A copy of the press release communicating the Special Committee's position with respect to the Offer is filed as Exhibit (a)(1) to this Statement and is incorporated herein by reference.

If you have tendered your Shares, you can withdraw them. For assistance in withdrawing your Shares, you can contact your broker or the Company's information agent, Okapi Partners LLC (Okapi), at the address and phone number below.

Background of the Offer and Reasons for Recommendation

Background of the Offer

From time to time, the Board, in consultation with senior management of the Company and the Company's advisors, periodically reviews the Company's strategic alternatives, capital structure and business, including potential strategic combinations with parties operating in the Company's same or similar industry, financing needs and the condition of its business.

On February 12, 2019, an affiliate of Offeror delivered the following letter to the Board:

February 12, 2019

Coty Inc.

350 Fifth Avenue

New York, NY

Attention: Board of Directors

Members of the Board of Directors:

On behalf of JAB Holding Company S.à r.l. (JAB), we are pleased to advise you that we are commencing shortly a tender offer, pursuant to which we would acquire up to 150 million shares of Class A common stock (the Common Stock) of Coty Inc. (the Company) at a price per share of $11.65 in cash (the Offer). The Offer represents a premium of approximately 38% to the 90-day volume-weighted average share price as of yesterday, a premium of approximately 51% to the 30-day volume-weighted average share price as of yesterday, and approximately a 21% premium to yesterday's closing share price. If shareholders tender more than 150 million shares of Common Stock, we will purchase such shares on a pro rata basis.

We at JAB have been investors in the Company for almost three decades and expect to remain so. We believe that the Company has the potential to address its challenges and prosper over the long-term, and that the Company's recent management changes are an important first step in addressing the Company's recent performance.

We understand that not all investors may share our long-term approach and we expect that shareholders will value the opportunity to obtain a significant premium for their shares in the Offer, even taking into account the recent strong increase in the Company's share price. At the same time, we appreciate that some shareholders will want to participate in the Company's long-term potential value by retaining some or all of their shares in the Company after the Offer.

It is our expectation that the members of the Board of Directors who are determined to be independent for purposes of considering our Offer, advised by independent counsel and financial advisors of their choosing, will consider our proposal in the interests of all shareholders, determine the Company's course of action in response and make a recommendation to the Company's shareholders as required by applicable law. We believe that our offer is very full and compelling, but if the independent directors do not have a similar view, we will not proceed with the Offer.

The Offer is subject to certain conditions, including that the independent directors of the Company approve the Offer and recommend that the Company's shareholders accept the Offer (the "Board Approval Condition"). We, of course, would be pleased to meet with the independent directors or their advisors to provide any additional information necessary to assist the directors in their deliberations.

The Offer is also subject to other customary conditions, as well as the condition that at least 50 million shares of Common Stock are validly tendered and not withdrawn (the "Minimum Tender Condition"). The Offer is not subject to a financing condition. We have sufficient financial resources to consummate the Offer, including debt commitments from BNP Paribas, HSBC Bank plc and UniCredit Bank AG for all funds required to purchase the maximum number of shares in the Offer.

If all 150 million shares of Common Stock are purchased in the Offer, we would own, together with our current shareholdings, an aggregate of 450,908,041 shares of Common Stock, representing approximately 60% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock. If 50 million shares of Common Stock are purchased in the Offer, which represents the number of shares of Common Stock necessary to satisfy the Minimum Tender Condition, we would own an aggregate of 350,908,041 shares of Common Stock, representing approximately 47% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock.

JAB believes it is in everyone's interest to complete the transaction expeditiously, which includes working with the Company to make the required regulatory filings with the relevant governmental authorities for the Offer. We do not anticipate any substantive competition issues.

We are pleased to provide what we believe is an attractive opportunity to our fellow shareholders and look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

/s/ Peter Harf

Chairman, JAB

Shortly following delivery of the letter to the Board, an affiliate of Offeror issued a press release disclosing the letter sent to the Board and its intention to conduct the Offer.

Separately, Parent advised the Board that it considers itself a long-term stockholder of the Company and that it is not interested in selling any of its Shares, including in any sale, merger or similar transaction.

On February 12, 2019, at a regularly scheduled meeting of the Board, the Board discussed that, in light of Offeror's and its affiliates' significant ownership of Shares and the fact that a number of members of the Board were officers, employees or affiliates of Offeror or its affiliates, the Company should explore forming a Special Committee of independent directors. Several of the independent directors, including Sabine Chalmers, Robert Singer and Erhard Schoewel, spoke or met several times over the ensuing two days regarding the formation of the Special Committee. During that period, Ms. Chalmers and Messrs. Singer and Schoewel interviewed potential financial advisors and Ms. Chalmers and Mr. Schoewel interviewed potential legal advisors.

On February 13, 2019, Offeror commenced the Offer and filed the Schedule TO with the SEC.

Effective as of February 14, 2019, by unanimous written consent of the Board, resolutions were adopted that, among other things, formed the Special Committee, comprised of Sabine Chalmers, Erhard Schoewel and Robert Singer, and delegated to the Special Committee the power and authority to (i) formulate, establish, oversee and direct a process for the evaluation and negotiation of the Offer or certain alternative transactions, (ii) evaluate and negotiate the terms of any proposed definitive agreements in respect of the Offer or such alternative transactions that the Special Committee may determine to be necessary or advisable, (iii) make recommendations to the Board in consideration of the Offer or such alternative transactions that the Special Committee deems necessary or advisable, including that the Board (A) approve or reject the Offer, (B) approve any definitive agreement or other documentation related to the Offer, (C) recommend to the stockholders of the Company that they participate or not participate in the Offer and (D) take any other actions and consider any other matters that the Special Committee deems necessary or appropriate with respect to the Offer or any other potential strategic alternative and (iv) retain and compensate its own legal counsel and retain and compensate financial and other professional advisors, as it deems appropriate, to advise in the performance of its duties and responsibilities.

Over the course of the day on February 14, 2019, the Special Committee engaged in a series of additional conversations with prospective counsel, and the Special Committee engaged Sidley Austin LLP (Sidley) as its independent legal advisor in connection with the Offer and Richards, Layton & Finger, P.A. (Richards Layton) as its independent legal advisor to advise with respect to matters of Delaware law in connection with the Offer.

On February 15, 2019, the Company issued a press release announcing that the Board had formed the Special Committee to evaluate the Offer.

On February 15, 2019 through February 16, 2019, the Special Committee held meetings at which counsel participated during which, among other things, the Special Committee discussed organizational matters and the Special Committee received presentations and proposals from additional investment banking firms that the Special Committee had determined to consider as potential financial advisors in connection with the Offer, including Centerview Partners LLC (Centerview). In connection with its presentation, Centerview informed the Special Committee that it had not in the past three years been engaged by either the Company or the JAB Group.

On February 18, 2019, after due consideration, the Special Committee selected Centerview to act as its independent financial advisor and instructed Sidley to negotiate an appropriate engagement letter with Centerview. After being formally engaged, Centerview commenced its due diligence review of the Company and contacted members of the Company's management to obtain additional information regarding the operations, performance and future prospects of the Company.

Table of Contents

On February 20, 2019, the Special Committee held a telephonic meeting with the Special Committee's financial and legal advisors. At the meeting, among other things, representatives of Sidley discussed with the Special Committee its duties and responsibilities with respect to considering and evaluating the Offer. The Special Committee also discussed with representatives of Sidley and Centerview related process and organizational matters concerning the Offer.

On February 22, 25 and 26, 2019, the Special Committee held telephonic meetings with legal counsel and Centerview present at which, among other things, the Special Committee further discussed various process and timing matters concerning the Offer and received updates from Centerview on its due diligence process to date.

On February 26, 2019, the Special Committee executed an engagement letter with Centerview.

Pursuant to a resolution of the Board, the Special Committee has been authorized to consider, evaluate, respond to, negotiate and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the Offer or any similar transaction involving the JAB Group or its affiliates or certain alternative transactions. The Board has also resolved that neither the Offer nor such alternative transactions shall be approved by the Board without the recommendation of the Special Committee. The Special Committee has engaged in discussions with representatives of the JAB Group through its advisors in connection with the Offer and anticipates continued discussions, which may include negotiations, with the JAB Group or its representatives as the Special Committee continues its review and evaluation of the Offer.

Reasons for the Recommendation

The Special Committee is unable at the current time to take a position with respect to the Offer, because it has not yet had sufficient time to complete a full and deliberate review and evaluation of the material terms and provisions of the Offer, including the prospects of the Company, with the Special Committee's financial, legal and other advisors to enable the Special Committee to take an informed position with respect to the Offer and to discharge properly its duties under applicable law. The Special Committee is continuing to review and evaluate the Offer. As part of that process, the Special Committee and its advisors will continue to engage in discussions with the Company's management to assist in that review and evaluation. The Special Committee expects that the additional time will allow the Special Committee and its financial advisor to work with the Company's management to obtain more information about the Company and thus enable the financial advisor to further refine and complete its analysis and diligence review of the Company, thereby assisting the Special Committee in formulating its recommendation, if any, with respect to the Offer.

The Special Committee expects that after the Special Committee has completed its review and evaluation of the Offer, it will be able to cause the Company to inform its stockholders as to the Special Committee's position or recommendation, if any, with respect to the Offer.

Intent to Tender

To the Company's knowledge, after making reasonable inquiry, none of the Company's executive officers, directors, affiliates and subsidiaries, as of the date hereof, intends to tender pursuant to the Offer any Shares held of record or beneficially owned by such person.

Item 5. Persons/Assets, Retained, Employed, Compensated or Used.

The Special Committee, through the Company, has retained Centerview as its financial advisor in connection with, among other things, the Special Committee's analysis and consideration of, and response to, the Offer. The Company has agreed to pay customary compensation for such services. A portion of Centerview's fee is payable following the Company filing a Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 that includes a recommendation by the Special Committee to accept or reject the Offer or an ultimate determination by the Special Committee following the conclusion of its work that it is unable to take a position on the Offer (the amount being the same in each case), and a portion of Centerview's fee is payable following the abandonment or consummation of the Offer (the amount being the same in either case). Centerview is also entitled to receive a mutually agreed fee in the event the Special Committee recommends and the Company consummates certain alternative transactions, including a sale of the Company. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse Centerview for certain expenses arising out of or in connection with its engagement and to indemnify Centerview against certain liabilities relating to or arising out of the engagement.

The Company has engaged Okapi to provide advisory, consulting and solicitation services in connection with, among other things, the Offer. The Company has agreed to pay customary compensation for such services. In addition, the Company has arranged to reimburse Okapi for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and to indemnify it against certain liabilities arising from or in connection with the engagement.

Except as set forth above, neither the Company nor any person acting on its behalf has or currently intends to employ, retain or compensate any person to make solicitations or recommendations to the security holders of the Company with respect to the Offer.

Item 6. Interest in Securities of the Subject Company.

Except as set forth below, during the past 60 days, no transactions with respect to Shares have been effected by the Company or, to the Company's knowledge after making reasonable inquiry, by any of its executive officers, directors, affiliates or subsidiaries.

The amount of cash or number of shares of Class A Common Stock, at the Company's election, received upon exchange will equal the difference between (i) the fair market value of the Class A Common Stock on the date that the Series A-1 Preferred Stock is exchanged less (ii) $8.75, subject to adjustment.

The acquisitions shown in the table above are grants of incentive awards from the Company that have been authorized by the Remuneration and Nomination Committee of the Board.

In addition, on January 15, 2019 and February 15, 2019, the Company redeemed an aggregate of 3,475,554 Shares of Series A Preferred Stock at a price of $0.01 per share, in connection with the departures of Camillo Pane, Patrice de Talhouet and Mario Reis.

Item 7. Purposes of the Transaction and Plans or Proposals.

The Company routinely maintains contact with other participants in its industry regarding a wide range of business transactions. It has not ceased, and has no intention of ceasing, such activity as a result of the Offer. The Company's policy has been, and continues to be, not to disclose the existence or content of any such discussions with third parties (except as may be required by law) as any such disclosure could jeopardize any future negotiations that the Company may conduct.

Pursuant to a resolution of the Board, the Special Committee has been authorized to consider, evaluate, respond to, negotiate and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the Offer or any similar transaction involving the JAB Group or its affiliates or certain alternative transactions. The Board has also resolved that neither the Offer nor such alternative transactions shall be approved by the Board without the recommendation of the Special Committee. The Special Committee has engaged in discussions with representatives of the JAB Group through its advisors in connection with the Offer and anticipates continued discussions, which may include negotiations, with the JAB Group or its representatives as the Special Committee continues its review and evaluation of the Offer.

Except as described above or otherwise set forth in this Statement (including in the Exhibits to this Statement) or incorporated herein by reference, the Company is not currently undertaking or engaged in any negotiations in response to the Offer that relate to (i) a tender offer for, or other acquisition of, Shares by the Company, any of its subsidiaries or any other person, (ii) any extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries, (iii) any purchase, sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or (iv) any material change in the present dividend rate or policy, or indebtedness or capitalization, of the Company.

Except as described above or otherwise set forth in this Statement (including in the Exhibits to this Statement) or as incorporated in this Statement by reference, there are no transactions, resolutions of the Board, agreements in principle or contracts entered into, in each case in response to the Offer, that relate to, or would result in, one or more of the events referred to in the third paragraph of this Item 7.

Item 8. Additional Information.

Information Regarding Compensation for Termination following a Change in Control

As noted in Item 3, because the Offer will not constitute a change in control under the Company's compensation arrangements, there is no compensation that would become payable to the Company's named executive officers as a result of the successful consummation of the Offer and, accordingly, the tabular disclosure regarding Golden Parachute Compensation has been excluded from this Statement.

Appraisal Rights

Holders of Shares will not have appraisal rights in connection with the Offer under the DGCL.

Regulatory Approvals

U.S. Antitrust Clearance. Under the HSR Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder by the U.S. Federal Trade Commission (the "FTC"), certain acquisition transactions may not be consummated until specified information and documentary material has been furnished for review by the FTC and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice (the "Antitrust Division") and statutory waiting period requirements have been satisfied.

These requirements apply to Parent by virtue of Offeror's acquisition of Shares in the Offer. As a result, Parent is required to file a Notification and Report Form with the Antitrust Division and the FTC in connection with the Offer and the Company is required to submit a responsive Notification and Report Form with the FTC and the Antitrust Division on or before 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the tenth calendar day (extended to the following business day if the tenth calendar day falls on a weekend or holiday) following the Offeror's filing of its Notification and Report Form. Offeror has notified the Company that Agnaten filed a Notification and Report Form with respect to the Offer on February 21, 2019. As a result, the Company must file a responsive Notification and Report Form with the FTC and the Antitrust Division on or before 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on March 4, 2019.

Under the HSR Act, the purchase of Shares in the Offer may not be completed until the expiration of a 15-day waiting period following the filing by Parent of the Notification and Report Form under the HSR Act with the FTC and the Antitrust Division in connection with the purchase of Shares in the Offer. Under the HSR Act, the required waiting period will expire at 11:59 P.M., New York City time on the 15th calendar day after the filing by Parent, unless earlier terminated by the FTC and the Antitrust Division or Parent receives a request for additional information or documentary material (Second Request) from either the FTC or the Antitrust Division prior to that time. If a Second Request is issued, the waiting period with respect to the Offer would be extended for an additional period of ten calendar days following the date of Parent's substantial compliance with that request. If either the 15-day or ten-day waiting period expires on a Saturday, Sunday or federal holiday, then the period is extended until 11:59 P.M. of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or federal holiday. Only one extension of the waiting period pursuant to a Second Request is authorized by the HSR Act rules. After that time, the waiting period could be extended only by court order or with Parent's consent. The FTC or the Antitrust Division may terminate the additional ten-day waiting period before its expiration. Complying with a Second Request can take a significant period of time. Although the Company is required to submit a responsive Notification and Report Form with the FTC and the Antitrust Division in connection with the Offer, neither the Company's failure to make its filing nor comply with its own Second Request in a timely manner will extend the waiting period with respect to the purchase of Shares in the Offer.

At any time before or after the Offeror's acquisition of the Shares pursuant to the Offer, the Antitrust Division or the FTC could take such action under the antitrust laws as either deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin the purchase of the Shares pursuant to the Offer, or seeking the divestiture of the Shares acquired by the Offeror or the divestiture of substantial assets of the Company or its subsidiaries or the Offeror or its subsidiaries. State attorneys general and private parties may also bring legal action under the antitrust laws. There can be no assurance that a challenge to the Offer on antitrust grounds will not be made, and, if such a challenge is made, there can be no assurance as to the result thereof.

If any waiting period under the HSR Act applicable to the Offer has not expired or been terminated prior to the Expiration Date, or if the FTC, the Antitrust Division, a state attorney general or a private party obtains an order enjoining the purchase of the Company voting securities, then the Offeror will not be obligated to proceed with the Offer or the purchase of any of the Shares pursuant to the Offer.

Foreign Competition Law Filings. The Company and certain of its subsidiaries conduct business in a variety of countries outside of the United States. Offeror has informed the Company that it has determined that merger control or competition law filings outside of the U.S. are required by it in various jurisdictions, including Brazil, Canada, China, the European Union, Mexico, Russia, South Africa, Turkey and Ukraine before the purchase of Shares in the Offer may be completed. The Company has provided, and expects to continue to provide, Offeror with information and certifications regarding its business and finances that are required for such filings.

Competition authorities in those countries may refuse to grant required approvals or clearances, bring legal action under applicable foreign antitrust laws seeking to enjoin the purchase of the Shares pursuant to the Offer or seek the divestiture of the Shares acquired by the Offeror or the divestiture of substantial assets of the Company or its subsidiaries or the Offeror or its subsidiaries. There can be no assurance that the Offeror will obtain all required foreign merger control or competition law approvals or clearances or that a challenge to the Offer by foreign competition authorities will not be made, or, if such a challenge is made, the result thereof.

Additionally, the Offeror may terminate the Offer if:

there shall have been instituted, pending or threatened any litigation, suit, claim, action, proceeding or investigation before any Governmental Entity (i) challenging or seeking to, or which, in the reasonable judgment of Offeror, is reasonably likely to, make illegal, delay or otherwise, directly or indirectly, restrain or prohibit or make more costly, or in which there are allegations of any violation of law, rule or regulation relating to, the making of or terms of the Offer or the provisions of the Offer or, the acceptance of the Shares pursuant to the Offer by Offeror or any other subsidiary or affiliate of Offeror, or seeking to obtain material damages in connection with the Offer, (ii) seeking to, or which in the reasonable judgment of Offeror is reasonably likely to, individually or in the aggregate, prohibit or limit the full rights of ownership or operation by the Company, Offeror or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates of all or any of the business or assets of the Company, Offeror or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates (including in respect of the capital stock or other equity of their respective subsidiaries) or to compel the Company, Offeror or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates to dispose of or to hold separate all or any portion of the business or assets of the Company, Offeror or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates, or (iii) seeking to, or which in the reasonable judgment of Offeror is reasonably likely to, require divestiture or holding separate by Offeror or any other subsidiary or affiliate of Offeror of any of the businesses or assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates; or any clearance, approval, permit, authorization, waiver, determination, favorable review or consent of any governmental or regulatory authority or agency (including the matters arising under the HSR Act) or other person required in the reasonable judgment of Offeror in connection with the Offer shall not have been obtained on terms reasonably satisfactory to Offeror and such approvals shall not be in full force and effect, or any applicable waiting periods or extension thereof imposed by any Governmental Entity for such clearances or approvals shall not have expired.

See Item 2 for additional information regarding the Offeror's conditions to the Offer.
