Transcript of Annual Meeting Website Welcome Video by Ryan Lance, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of ConocoPhillips

Welcome to the website for our annual meeting of shareholders.

Here you'll find a great deal of information about our company, as well as tools to help you cast your votes as a shareholder and participate in this year's meeting.

Our 2018 meeting is on Tuesday, May 15 at 9 a.m. Central time. We encourage you to review the 2018 Proxy Statement. It offers information on our company – our leadership and policies – and how we ensure good corporate governance.

The proxy also gives you the procedures for voting your shares. You can vote your shares either on this website, via the telephone, through the mail, or in person at the meeting.

We're excited to share our 2017 achievements with you. ConocoPhillips has taken a leadership stance with a new approach to delivering predictable performance and superior returns to shareholders across a wide range of commodity prices. At the core of our returns-focused value proposition are five cash flow allocation priorities for shareholders:

First, invest enough cash to maintain flat production and pay our existing dividend;

Second, grow our dividend;

Third, reduce our debt levels to target an 'A' credit rating;

Fourth, pay out roughly 20 to 30 percent of our cash from operating activities to shareholders through a combination of the dividend and share buybacks; and Fifth, invest in our low cost of supply portfolio to expand cash flow.

When we introduced this value proposition in 2016 we were met with skepticism. Some challenged whether we could execute our bold set of priorities. Others questioned whether there was a market for an E&P company focused on returns rather than growth. In 2017 we addressed both of those concerns.

We significantly reset our portfolio by reducing our exposure to North American gas and oil sands, through dispositions that generated about $16 billion. Our cash flow from operations exceeded our capital by $2.5 billion. We reduced our debt by almost 30 percent. And we returned 61 percent of our cash flow from operations to our shareholders via our dividend and buybacks.

We delivered on our operational metrics while achieving one of our best years ever on safety, and we took a visible step to sustain our environmental, social and governance leadership by announcing a long-term target to reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

So by any measure, 2017 was an exceptional year for the company. We generated a total shareholder return of 12 percent, which was differential to most other E&P companies. Most importantly, we're in a stronger position to deliver improved cash and financial returns even if crude prices retreat to $50 per barrel or less.

I look forward to reviewing our 2017 performance and our outlook for the years ahead at the upcoming shareholder meeting. So again, please join us if you can, either in person or via the live video webcast.

We appreciate your support and your interest in our company.
