First Financial Bancorp.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On January 25, 2018, First Financial Bancorp (NASDAQ: FFBC) (“First Financial”) and MainSource Financial Group, Inc. (NASDAQ: MSFG) (“MainSource”) entered into a Letter of Agreement with the United States Department of Justice (“DOJ”) regarding the divestiture of four (4) MainSource Bank branch locations in Columbus (Bartholomew County), Indiana, and one (1) MainSource Bank branch location in Greensburg (Decatur County), Indiana. The divestiture will include all deposits and loans, as well as all real and personal property, associated with the branches. The divestiture is designed to resolve competitive concerns raised by the DOJ regarding the pending merger of First Financial and MainSource. The divestiture is not expected to have a material impact on the financial metrics of the proposed merger or the combined company following the merger.

The Letter of Agreement provides, among other things, that the parties will take certain required steps to sell the branches to a competitively suitable purchaser or purchasers, subject to the approval of the DOJ. Prior to sale, First Financial and MainSource will preserve, maintain and continue to operate the branches, including maintaining all branch personnel. The sale of the branches must be consummated within 180 days following completion of the merger of First Financial and MainSource. Additionally, the agreement requires that if the parties determine to discontinue retail banking services at any branch located in Decatur or Bartholomew County within two years following the merger, the parties will notify the DOJ and sell or lease such branch to an FDIC insured institution. A divestiture statement identifying the subject branches is available on the website of each party.

The proposed merger remains subject to final approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the “Federal Reserve Board”) and other customary conditions.
