GOL Increases Flight Frequencies to Argentina

São Paulo, April 11, 2006 GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes (Bovespa: GOLL4 and NYSE: GOL), Brazil's low cost, low fare airline, announced that it will increase the frequency of flights to Argentina, beginning today. A new flight will be added to the Rosário route and will begin operating four times per week. Flights to Córdoba will increase from two flights per week to four flights per week. Flights to Buenos Aires will continue to operate daily.

This increase of our international flight frequencies confirms GOL's commitment to fulfilling the demand of this high potential growth market and contributing to stronger ties throughout the region, says Tarcisio Gargioni, vice-president of Marketing and Services at GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes.

Tickets are available for purchase by telephone, through your travel agent, or on GOL's website, www.voegol.com.br. Please see the destination table below for more information on new flight schedules:

About GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes

GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes, a low-cost, low-fare airline, is one of the most profitable and fastest growing airlines in the industry worldwide. GOL operates a simplified fleet with a single class of service. It also has one of the youngest and most modern fleets in the industry that results in low maintenance, fuel and training costs, with high aircraft utilization and efficiency ratios. In addition, safe and reliable services, which stimulate GOL's brand recognition and customer satisfaction, allow GOL to have the best value proposition in the market. GOL currently offers over 460 daily flights to 49 major business and travel destinations in Brazil, Argentina, Bolivia, Paraguay and Uruguay. GOL growth plans include increasing frequencies in existing markets and adding service to additional markets in both Brazil and other high-traffic South American travel destinations. GOL shares are listed on the NYSE and the Bovespa. GOL: here everyone can fly!
