NOTICE TO MARKET

Companhia Brasileira de Distribuição ("CBD"), for purposes of the Official Letter CVM/SEP/GEA-2/Nr. 239/2012, received from the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission ("CVM"), and pursuant to Instruction CVM nr. 381, dated January 14, 2003, hereby discloses, in addition to the information available at Version 3.0 of CBD's Reference Form (Formulário de Referência) related to fiscal year 2012:

- Ernst & Young Terco Auditores Independentes S.S. ("EYT" or "External Auditors") was the independent external auditor in charge for auditing CBD's financial statements referred to the fiscal years from 2004 to 2011;
- In addition to the external auditing provided for CBD, in 2011 EYT was hired by CBD for the rendering of other services related to auditing ("Other Services"), which substantially refer to auditing of financial statements of controlled companies and to the review of the income tax returns;
- The results from the Other Services, accomplished by the external auditors, are provided together with the results of the auditing of financial statements to CBD's Fiscal Council and Board of Directors members;
- For the rendering of Other Services provided in fiscal year 2011, CBD paid EYT approximately R$400,000.00, amount equivalent to approximately 5% of the fee paid to EYT related to the services of external auditing hired for the same fiscal year;
- All contracts related to Other Services were concluded before the publication of the financial statements referred to the fiscal year of 2011;
- All Other Services rendered by EYT were previously disclosed and approved by CBD's Fiscal Council, for purposes of avoiding conflict of interest, loss of independence and of objectivity by the external auditors. As a part of the approval process, the external auditors confirm their best understanding that the Other Services rendered do not affect their independence and objectivity.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
