Item 8.01 Other Events.

On April 2, 2009, Saia, Inc. announced actions the Company is taking to reduce expenses and strengthen its financial position in response to the continued deterioration of volumes and yields due to the economy. In the first quarter of 2009, the Company's LTL tonnage per day is down more than seven percent from the prior year quarter while in the fourth quarter of 2008 LTL tonnage per day was down 4.7 percent. The Company's total tonnage per day in the first quarter of 2009 was down more than nine percent and total revenue per day is down approximately sixteen percent compared to the prior year quarter.

The cost reduction actions consist of a reduction in compensation equal to ten percent of salary for the Company's leadership team and a five percent wage reduction for hourly, linehaul and salaried employees in operations, maintenance and administration. The Company also reduced annual retainer and meeting fees paid to the non-employee members of the Company's Board of Directors by ten percent. These cost reduction actions were taken in an effort to save approximately $18 million annually.

The Company had previously suspended the 401(k) match effective February 1, 2009 which is expected to provide annualized savings of $6 million.
