Item Other Events

8.01.

Ashland Inc. (“Ashland”) and Süd-Chemie AG (“Süd-Chemie”) announced today that they have signed a nonbinding memorandum of understanding to form a new, global joint venture to serve foundries and the metal casting industry. Under the terms of the memorandum, each parent company would hold a 50-percent share of the joint venture, which is planned to be headquartered in Venlo, The Netherlands.

Assets and employees would transfer to the new joint venture upon closing, anticipated by early calendar year 2009. The transaction is dependent upon the successful negotiation of definitive agreements, and closing will depend upon satisfactory completion of a number of standard closing conditions, including regulatory review.

The new enterprise would combine three businesses: Ashland’s Casting Solutions business group, the foundry-related businesses of Süd-Chemie, and Ashland-Südchemie-Kernfest GmbH (ASK). Had it existed in 2007, this new venture would have generated sales revenues of approximately U.S. $1.1 billion or €700 million, with approximately 1,300 employees.
