Section 5 – Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02	Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(b), (c) On June 16, 2016, National Amusements, Inc. and NAI Entertainment Holdings LLC (together, “NAI”) delivered to Viacom Inc. (“Viacom” or the “Company”) two Actions by Written Consent that NAI claimed (1) effected amendments to Viacom’s Amended and Restated Bylaws providing that vacancies on the Viacom Board of Directors (the “Board”) occurring as a result of stockholder action to remove directors or to increase the number of authorized directors shall be filled only by the affirmative vote of stockholders representing at least a majority of stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, and any vacancy for any other reason shall be filled by the affirmative vote of the stockholders representing at least a majority of stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, unless such other vacancy is not filled by stockholder action within 30 days of the occurrence of such other vacancy, in which case such other vacancy may then be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director (the “Purported Bylaw Amendments”), (2) removed from the Board, without cause, George S. Abrams, Philippe P. Dauman, Blythe J. McGarvie, Frederic V. Salerno and William Schwartz, and (3) filled the vacancies on the Board resulting from the removal of such directors with Kenneth Lerer, Thomas J. May, Judith McHale, Ronald Nelson and Nicole Seligman (the “Purported New Directors,” and (1), (2) and (3) together, the “Purported Director Actions”). A copy of the Purported Bylaw Amendments is filed herewith as Exhibit 3.2 and is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety.

The Company has been advised that each of the Purported New Directors has been asked to serve as a director of Viacom by NAI and has an understanding with NAI concerning indemnification. The Company does not have knowledge as to whether there is any other arrangement or understanding between any of the Purported New Directors and any other person pursuant to which he or she was or is to be selected as a director of Viacom (other than between the Purported New Directors and Viacom, as to which there is no such arrangement or understanding).

At the time of the filing of this Current Report on Form 8-K, the Purported New Directors have not been named to any committees of the Board.

The Company will disclose on a Current Report on Form 8-K the information required by Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K, regarding related person transactions with the Purported New Directors, if and when they are confirmed as directors.

To the extent that any information called for in this Item 5.02 is not determined or is unavailable at the time of this filing, the Company will file an amendment to this filing containing such information within four business days after the information is determined or becomes available.

Item 5.03	Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

(a) The information contained in Item 5.02 above is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety.

Section 7 – Regulation FD

Item 7.01	Regulation FD Disclosure.

On June 16, 2016, Viacom Inc. issued the press release furnished herewith as Exhibit 99, which is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety.

Section 8 – Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On June 16, 2016, NAI filed a lawsuit in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (1) seeking the court's confirmation of the validity and effectiveness of the Purported Director Actions, as well as of the purported bylaw amendments contained in the written consents delivered to the Company on June 6, 2016, as previously reported, and (2) requesting that, pending a final court ruling, the court maintain the existing Board and prohibit the Board from taking any action not in the ordinary course of business.

On June 16, 2016, Mr. Salerno, who is Viacom's Lead Independent Director, filed a lawsuit in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, with the support of the independent directors of the Board, seeking an expedited determination (1) that the Purported Director Actions are invalid, (2) that the Board remains as currently comprised, (3) enjoining NAI from taking further wrongful actions under the authority of Sumner M. Redstone and (4) entering a status quo order providing that NAI shall not take any actions that would disrupt the Board's continuing management of the business and affairs of the Company in the ordinary course.

NAI owns approximately 79.8% of Viacom's Class A (voting) common stock and approximately 10% of Viacom's common equity, represented by its combined ownership of Viacom's Class A (voting) and Class B (non-voting) common stock. The remaining 90% of Viacom's common equity is owned by non-controlling public stockholders of Viacom.

As a precautionary matter, Viacom intends to file an Information Statement on Schedule 14C in a timely manner pursuant to Regulation 14C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, in order to provide stockholders with required information regarding the Purported Director Actions.
