Operating expenses have increased to approximately $141,000 from $55,631 in the prior comparable period largely due to an increases in investor relations and professional fees related to the public listing.

The Company expects to report a net loss of approximately $127,000 compared to $24,000 in the prior comparable period, $73,848 of which is which amount reflects a loss related to the issuance of shares for date and the different between the book value of the loan payable and the market value of the 2,400,000 shares issued on the date of settlement.
