Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On April 18, 2013, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Accretive Health, Inc. (the “Company”) increased the number of members of the Board to ten and elected Steven J. Shulman as a Class I Director of the Company to serve until the 2014 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and until his successor is duly elected and qualified, or until his earlier removal or resignation. Mr. Shulman was elected upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board. Mr. Shulman was not selected pursuant to any arrangement or understanding between Mr. Shulman and any other person. In addition, Mr. Shulman is not a party to any transaction, or series of transactions, involving the Company required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

Mr. Shulman will receive compensation for his board service as a non-employee director consistent with the Company's non-employee director compensation program. In addition, the Company has entered into an indemnification agreement with Mr. Shulman in the form that the Company has entered into with its other directors and provides that the Company will indemnify Mr. Shulman to the fullest extent permitted by law for claims arising in his capacity as a director of the Company, provided that he acted in good faith and in a manner that he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the Company's best interests and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. In the event that the Company does not assume the defense of a claim against Mr. Shulman, the Company will be required to advance his expenses in connection with his defense, provided that he undertakes to repay all amounts advanced if it is ultimately determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company.

Mr. Shulman, 61, has been an operating partner at Water Street Health Partners, a healthcare-focused private equity firm, since April 2008. From December 2002 to February 2008, Mr. Shulman served as chairman and chief executive officer of Magellan Health Services, a specialty healthcare management organization. From 2000 to 2002, he served as chairman and chief executive officer of Internet Healthcare Group (IHCG), an early-stage health care services and technology venture fund that he founded. From 1997 to 1999, Mr. Shulman served as chairman, president and chief executive officer of Prudential Healthcare, Inc. Mr. Shulman serves on the boards of several privately-held companies. He also serves on the Dean's Council at the State University of New York at Stony Brook.
