PART III — NARRATIVE

Super Micro Computer, Inc. (the "Registrant") has determined that it is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2015 (the "Form 10-K") within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense. The Registrant recently discovered certain irregularities regarding certain marketing expenses and additional time is required for the Registrant to complete its investigation of the matter. The Registrant currently does not anticipate any material change to its previously reported results of operations for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2015. The Registrant plans to file the Form 10-K with the SEC within the extension period of 15 calendar days provided under Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

The Company's expectation regarding the timing of the filing of the Annual Report and the lack of material changes from the press release dated August 8, 2015 are forward looking statements as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and actual events may differ from those contemplated by these statements. These statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, including the Company's, or its independent auditors, inability to complete the work required to file Annual Report in the time frame that is anticipated or due to unanticipated changes being required in its reported operating results. The Company undertakes no obligation to revise or update any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof.
