Retention Agreement between Total Plastics, Inc. and Thomas L. Garrett (“STIP”)

Effective as of February 12, 2016 (the “Effective Date”), the Human Resources Committee of the Board of Directors of A.M. Castle & Co. (the “Company”) approved a Retention Agreement between the Company’s Total Plastics, Inc. subsidiary (“TPI”) and Thomas L. Garrett, Vice President of the Company and President of TPI (the “Agreement”). The Agreement provides payments and benefits to Mr. Garrett in the event of the closing of a transaction or series of transactions in which all or substantially of the assets or common stock of TPI are sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of (“Sale of TPI”) before the first anniversary of the Effective Date (the “Expiration Date”).

The Agreement requires that it be assumed by any entity into which TPI is merged or that purchases substantially all of the stock or assets of TPI (a “Successor”). If the Company or TPI were to execute a binding agreement before the Expiration Date to enter into a transaction that, when consummated, would be a Sale of TPI, the Expiration Date would be extended by 60 days, with respect to the transaction contemplated by that binding agreement.

The Agreement provides for a Retention Bonus to Mr. Garrett equal to 75% of his annualized base salary with the Company, payable within 30 days following the Sale of TPI, provided that he has remained employed by the Company or an affiliate until the Sale of TPI (or his employment is terminated without Cause or for Good Reason before a Sale of TPI). “Cause” and “Good Reason” have the same definitions as in Mr. Garrett’s Severance Agreement dated December 22, 2010, and his Change in Control Agreement dated September 15, 2010.

The Agreement also provides for payment of a so-called Enterprise Value Escalator if the gross sale price at closing of the Sale of TPI exceeds the target price established by the Board (the “Target Price”), the Company will pay Mr. Garrett a lump sum cash amount equal to $1.25 for every $100 in excess of the Target Price, realized on the Sale of TPI, provided that Mr. Garrett has remained employed by TPI or a Successor (or an affiliate of either of them), for at 180 days following the Sale of TPI (or his employment is terminated without Cause or for Good Reason after the Sale of TPI, but before 180 days following the Sale of TPI).

The Agreement also provides for severance benefits if Mr. Garrett’s employment is terminated within 24 months following the Sale of TPI other than by TPI or a Successor for a reason other than Cause or by him for Good Reason. The severance benefit would be equal to the sum of (i) 1.5 times Mr. Garrett’s annualized base salary, and (ii) the grossed-up cost of 18 months of COBRA health insurance continuation coverage at the level of coverage Mr. Garrett had elected prior to his termination, payable within 30 days following his termination. Any severance benefits would be reduced by base salary amounts and COBRA benefits paid under Mr. Garrett’s Severance Agreement or his Change in Control Agreement. The Agreement requires Mr. Garrett to sign a release of all claims against the Company and TPI in order to receive severance benefits.

The Agreement also provides for a $100,000 cash payment to Mr. Garrett in lieu of and not in addition to any bonus or amount payable under the Company’s 2015 Short-Term Incentive Plan on the earlier of April 1, 2016 or the Sale of TPI provided that Mr. Garrett has remained continuously employed by the Company or an affiliate of the Company until the earlier of such dates.

The Agreement requires Mr. Garrett to adhere to non-competition, non-solicitation, non-disparagement, and non-disclosure restrictive covenants to receive payments.
