Item 8.01 Other Events

On October 17, 2005, in its earnings press release filed as an 8-K under Item 2.02, General Motors (GM) announced that the company is exploring options to further enhance General Motors Acceptance Corporation's (GMAC's) liquidity position and its ability to support GM/GMAC synergies. In a separate 8-K filed under Item 8.01, General Motors stated that "GM is exploring the possible sale of a controlling interest in GMAC to a strategic partner, with the goal of restoring GMAC's investment grade rating and renewing its access to low-cost financing. In addition, GMAC will continue to evaluate strategic and structural alternatives to help ensure that its residential mortgage business, Residential Capital Corp. retains its investment grade credit ratings".

* * * *

In the Form 8-K our use of the words "expect", "anticipate", "estimate", "forecast", "objective", "plan", "goal", "project", "outlook", "priorities/targets", "intend", "evaluate" and similar expressions is intended to identify forward looking statements. While these statements represent our current judgment on what the future may hold, and we believe these judgments are reasonable, actual results may differ materially due to numerous important factors that are described in our most recent report on SEC Form 10-K which may be revised or supplemented in subsequent reports on SEC Forms 10-Q and 8-K. Such factors include, among others, the following: the ability of GM and GMAC to complete a transaction with a strategic investor while maintaining a significant stake in GMAC, securing separate credit ratings and low cost funding for GMAC and maintaining the mutually beneficial relationship between GMAC and GM; and the ability to enhance GMAC's liquidity position and support synergies.

Neither GM nor GMAC intends or assumes any obligation to update any of these forward-looking statements.
