Note to Monster Energy NASCAR Cup Series Team Owners

Earlier today, NASCAR made a formal offer to purchase all outstanding shares of International Speedway Corporation not already owned by the controlling shareholders of NASCAR. Our family remains committed to growing the sport and working across the industry to deliver the best experience and racing product possible for our fans, and we believe this prospective joining of operations will positively serve that end.

This process will take some time and ISC and NASCAR will continue to operate as separate entities during this process. I look forward to speaking with you individually this weekend to address any thoughts or concerns.

Thank you for all you do to deliver for our race fans everywhere. We have two great race weekends ahead of us and look forward to an exciting finish to the 2018 season.

Sincerely,

Jim France & Lesa France Kennedy
