Item 5.03            AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OR BYLAWS; CHANGE IN FISCAL YEAR

As part of our corporate governance practices, we periodically review and update our organizational documents, including our By-Laws. In connection with this review, effective July 19, 2005, our Board of Directors adopted Amended and Restated By-Laws in order to update certain provisions, add descriptive section headings and reorganize certain sections in a more logical fashion. A brief description of the substantive amendments follows:

- Section 2.3 was amended to state that a special meeting of shareholders may be called by shareholders entitled to cast at least 20% of the votes at that meeting. This provision mirrors the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law.
- Article 9 was amended to require that at least a majority of the directors be "independent" and to require that each class of our board be of approximately equal size. These changes were intended to conform the By-Laws to the New York Stock Exchange listing standards.
- Article 11 was amended to conform the composition, purposes and responsibilities of our board committees to the requirements of the New York Stock Exchange listing standards and SEC rules.
- Section 22.1 was amended to clarify the wording of our permissive indemnification provision.
- Section 22.8, which excluded actions filed prior to January 27, 1989 from the scope of the indemnification provision, was deleted as archaic.
