ITEM 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 11, 2010, EMCORE Corporation (“EMCORE” or the “Company”) and certain of its subsidiaries entered into a Credit and Security Agreement (the “Loan Agreement”) with Wells Fargo National Association (the “Lender”) and related loan documents.

The Loan Agreement provides the Company with a revolving credit facility of up to $35,000,000 that can be used for working capital requirements, letters of credit and other general corporate purposes. Amounts borrowed under the Loan Agreement may be repaid and reborrowed through November 11, 2013 or the last day of any renewal term, at which time all amounts outstanding become due and payable. Outstanding loans under the Loan Agreement may at no time exceed the borrowing base, as calculated pursuant to the terms of the Loan Agreement.

On November 12, 2010, the Company borrowed $5,461,834 million under the Loan Agreement and used the proceeds to repay the entire $5,199,334 million outstanding under our Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of September 29, 2008, with Bank of America, N.A. (the “Prior Credit Agreement”).

The loans comprising each borrowing bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the daily three month LIBOR rate for the applicable interest period plus 3.00%. Interest is payable each month in arrears. Under the Loan Agreement, the Company also pays the Lender certain fees, including, without limitation, a fee based on the portion of the credit facility that is unused. Outstanding loans may be prepaid without penalty or premium, except that the Company is required to pay a prepayment fee if the Loan Agreement is terminated by the Company prior to the maturity date or by the Lender during a default period, or if the maximum amount available under the line is reduced by mutual agreement of the Company and Lender before November 11, 2012.

The loan is secured by substantially all of the Company’s assets located in the United States and is guaranteed by certain of its subsidiaries. The Loan Agreement contains customary representations and warranties, and affirmative and negative covenants, including among other things minimum tangible net worth and EBITDA covenants and limitations on liens and certain additional indebtedness and guarantees. The Loan Agreement also contains certain events of default that are customary for loan agreements of this type (with customary grace periods, as applicable), including provisions under which, upon the occurrence of an event of default, all outstanding borrowings may be accelerated.

The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Loan Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference herein.

ITEM 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 12, 2010, the Company terminated the Prior Credit Agreement. The guarantees provided by the Company and certain of its subsidiaries under the Prior Credit Agreement terminated simultaneously with the Prior Credit Agreement.

The Prior Credit Agreement originally provided the Company with a revolving credit facility of $25,000,000, and later reduced to $14,000,000, used for working capital requirements, letters of credit and other general corporate purposes. The Company terminated the Prior Credit Agreement after undertaking an assessment of its liquidity and working capital needs, and following entry into the above-described Loan Agreement. At the time of termination, the Company was in compliance with all covenants under the Prior Credit Agreement. The Company will not incur any penalties in connection with the termination of the Prior Credit Agreement. The description of the Prior Credit Agreement contained in the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K filed September 29, 2008 is incorporated by reference in this Form 8-K.
