ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS

The ATWOOD FALCON has received a one-well commitment from an operator in Southeast Asia for the drilling of a well in the South China Sea. The drilling of this one well will commence in mid July 2008 at a dayrate of $425,000, with an approximate duration of 40 days; after which the rig will return to its current contracted dayrate of $160,000. The rig is currently under contract with Sarawak Shell Berhad/Sabah Shell Petroleum Co. Ltd in the South China Sea.

ITEM 9.01 EXHIBITS

EXHIBIT 99.1 Press Release dated July 14, 2008

Statements contained in this report with respect to the future are forward-looking statements. These statements reflect management's reasonable judgment with respect to future events. Forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. Actual results could differ materially from those anticipated as a result of various factors including; the Company's dependence on the oil and gas industry; the risks involved the construction of a rig; competition; operating risks; risks involved in foreign operations; risks associated with possible disruption in operations due to terrorism; risks associated with a possible disruption in operations due to a war with Iraq; and governmental regulations and environmental matters. A list of additional risk factors can be found in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2007, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
