PROPOSAL NO. 1
ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

We have nominated five candidates for election to the Board this year. Detailed information on our nominees and Herman Yu, our newly appointed Acting Chief Financial Officer, is provided below and in the section entitled "Additional Information Regarding Directors, Nominees and Executive Officers" in this Supplement. Detailed information on our other directors and executive officers, is provided in the section entitled "Management" that begins on page 9 of the Proxy Statement. Information on Yan Wang and Charles Chao reflects the recent management changes.

Our Amended and Restated Articles of Association currently authorize a Board of not less than two directors and the classification of the Board into three classes serving staggered terms. At each annual general meeting, the terms of one class of directors will expire. The directors whose terms expire each year will be those who have been in office the longest since their last election. A director whose term is expiring will remain in office until the close of the meeting at which his or her term expires, and will be eligible for re-election at that meeting. Our Amended and Restated Articles of Association also provide that any newly appointed director shall hold office only until the next annual general meeting at which time such director shall be eligible for re-election by the shareholders. The Board of Directors of the Company has increased the size of the Board of Directors to ten members and the Board of Directors currently consists of ten directors.

At the Annual General Meeting, the shareholders will elect a total of five directors, three Class I directors who were scheduled to retire this year, one director who was appointed to the Board in January 2006 and is now subject to election by the shareholders and another director who was appointed to the Board in May 2006 and is now subject to election by the shareholders. The Class I directors whose terms expire at the Annual General Meeting are Yongji Duan, Yan Wang and Xiaotao Chen. One of the two newly appointed directors who is subject to election by the shareholders is Charles Chao and, if elected, Charles Chao will be a Class I director. The other newly appointed director who is subject to election by the shareholders is Hurst Lin and, if elected, Hurst Lin will be a Class II director to fill a vacancy among Class II directors.

Assuming that the size of our board remains between 7 and 10 members and that Hurst Lin is elected as a Class II director at this Annual General Meeting, the Class II directors whose terms expire at our 2007 Annual General Meeting are Hurst Lin, Ter Fung Tsao and Song-Yi Zhang, and the Class III directors whose terms expire at our 2008 Annual General Meeting are Pehong Chen, Lip-Bu Tan and Yichen Zhang.

At the Annual General Meeting, the shareholders will elect a total of five directors, four of whom (including Charles Chao) shall be Class I directors and one of whom (Hurst Lin) shall be a Class II director. If elected, the Class I directors will serve until the 2009 Annual General Meeting, and the Class II director will serve until the 2007 Annual General Meeting. In the event any nominee is unable or unwilling to serve as a director at the time of the Annual General Meeting, the proxies may be voted for the balance of those nominees named and for any substitute nominee designated by the present Board or the proxy holders to fill such vacancy, or for the balance of the nominees named without nomination of a substitute, or the size of the Board may be reduced in accordance with our Amended and Restated Articles of Association. The Board has no reason to believe that any of the persons named below will be unable or unwilling to serve as a nominee or as a director if elected.

Required Vote

Assuming a quorum is present, the election of each of the five nominees as directors will require the affirmative vote of a majority of shares cast in person or cast by proxy at the meeting. Unless marked otherwise where Charles Chao or Yan Wang is appointed as proxy, proxies received will be voted FOR the election of each of the five nominees named below. In the event that additional persons are nominated for election as directors, where Charles Chao and Yan Wang are appointed as proxy holders, they intend to vote all proxies received by them in such a manner as will ensure the election of as many of the nominees listed below as possible, and, in such event, the specific nominees to be voted for will be determined by the proxy holders.

Director Nomination

Criteria for Board Membership. The Company does not have a nominating committee; however, beginning from the date of our 2004 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, the members of the Board who are independent under the current rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market (Yongji Duan, Pehong Chen, Lip-Bu Tan, Ter Fung Tsao, Yichen Zhang, Xiaotao Chen, and Song-Yi Zhang) are responsible for selecting candidates for appointment or re-election to the Board. In making such selections, this group of independent members of the Board (the Selection Body) considers the appropriate balance of experience, skills and characteristics required of the Board of Directors, and seeks to ensure that at least a majority of the directors are independent under the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market, and that members of the Company's audit committee meet the financial literacy, sophistication and independence requirements under the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market. Nominees for director will be selected on the basis of their depth and breadth of experience, integrity, ability to make independent analytical inquiries, understanding of the Company's business environment, and willingness to devote adequate time to Board duties. The Selection Body performs similar functions to a nominating committee and operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, which is available on the Company's website at www.corp.sina.com and which was attached to the Company's 2005 Proxy Statement.

Shareholder Nominees. The Selection Body will consider written proposals from shareholders for nominees for director, provided such proposals meet the requirements described herein and in our Amended and Restated Articles of Association. Any such nominations should be submitted to the Selection Body c/o the Secretary of the Company and should include the following information: (a) all information relating to such nominee that is required to be disclosed pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); (b) the names and addresses of the shareholders making the nomination and the number of shares of the Company's ordinary shares which are owned beneficially and of record by such shareholders; and (c) appropriate biographical information and a statement as to the qualification of the nominee, and should be submitted in the time frame described in the Amended and Restated Articles of Association of the Company and in the section entitled, "Proposals for 2007 Annual General Meeting" in the Proxy Statement.

Process for Identifying and Evaluating Nominees. The Selection Body believes the Company is well-served by its current directors. In the ordinary course, absent special circumstances or a material change in the criteria for Board membership, the Selection Body will renominate incumbent directors who continue to be qualified for Board service and are willing to continue as directors. If an incumbent director is not standing for re-election, or if a vacancy on the Board occurs between annual general shareholder meetings, the Selection Body will seek out potential candidates for Board appointment who meet the criteria for selection as a nominee and have the specific qualities or skills being sought. Director candidates will be selected based on input from members of the Board, senior management of the Company and, if the Selection Body deems appropriate, a third-party search firm. The Selection Body will evaluate each candidate's qualifications and check relevant references; in addition, such candidates will be interviewed by at least one member of the Selection Body. Candidates meriting serious consideration will meet with all members of the Board. Based on this input, the Selection Body will evaluate which of the prospective candidates is qualified to serve as a director and whether it should recommend to the Board that this candidate be appointed to fill a current vacancy on the Board or be presented for the approval of the shareholders, as appropriate.

The Selection Body expects to use a similar process to evaluate nominees recommended by shareholders. However, to date, the Company has not received a shareholder proposal to nominate a director.

Board Nominees for the 2006 Annual General Meeting. Each of the nominees listed in this Supplement are current directors standing for reelection by the shareholders, other than Charles Chao and Hurst Lin. In January 2006, Hurst Lin indicated his intention to resign from his position of Chief Operating Officer of the Company, the Selection Body recommended the election of Hurst Lin as a member of the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors unanimously elected Hurst Lin as a member of the Board of Directors. In May 2006, Charles Chao was appointed as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, the Selection Body recommended the election of Charles Chao as a member of the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors unanimously elected Charles Chao as a member of the Board of Directors.
