Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

In connection with the annual meeting of stockholders of Office Depot, Inc. (the "Company") scheduled to be held on April 23, 2008, and in response to inquiries from certain of the Company's stockholders, the Company is making the following supplemental disclosure in addition to the information contained in the Company's proxy statement dated March 14, 2008:

The Compensation Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors of the Company has adopted a performance-based long-term incentive equity vehicle in addition to long-term incentives provided through stock options and time-vested restricted stock elections. The primary goal of the new equity component, in addition to the achievement of the compensation philosophy for named executive officers, is to incent earnings per share growth targets during a three-year period (2008 through 2010). One-half of the new equity vehicle (i.e., performance shares) will immediately vest upon attainment of each of two earnings per share goals during the performance period, which are $1.60 per share and $1.80 per share. The Committee selected these two earnings per share goals based upon recent historical Company performance and the outlook for the future. Any shares that have not vested at the end of 2010 will be forfeited.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS: The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended (the "Act"), provides protection from liability in private lawsuits for forward-looking statements made by public companies under certain circumstances, provided that the public company discloses with specificity the risk factors that may impact its future results. We want to take advantage of the "safe harbor" provisions of the Act. Certain statements made in this document are forward-looking statements under the Act. Except for historical financial and business performance information, statements made in this document should be considered forward-looking as referred to in the Act. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this document; we disclaim any obligation to update these statements, and we caution you not to rely on them unduly. Much of the information that looks towards future performance of our company is based on various factors and important expectations and assumptions about future events that may or may not actually come true. While our management considers these expectations and assumptions to be reasonable, they are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive, regulatory and other risks, contingencies and uncertainties, most of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond our control. As a result, our operations and financial results in the future could differ materially and substantially from those we have discussed in the forward-looking statements made in this document. Certain risks and uncertainties are detailed from time to time in our filings with the SEC. You are strongly urged to review all such filings for a more detailed discussion of such risks and uncertainties. The Company's SEC filings are readily obtainable at no charge at www.sec.gov and at www.freeEDGAR.com, as well as on a number of other commercial web sites.
