LETTER DATED MARCH 13, 2006, FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE ISSUER TO HOLDERS OF SERIES C AND WARRANTS TO PURCHASE SERIES B-1 AND SERIES C PREFERRED STOCK OF THE ISSUER, IN CONNECTION WITH THE OFFER TO EXCHANGE SERIES C PREFERRED STOCK AND WARRANTS TO PURCHASE SERIES B-1 AND SERIES C PREFERRED STOCK IN WHICH THE ISSUER HAS AGREED TO REGISTER THE SHARES OF COMMON STOCK ISSUED PURSUANT TO THE EXCHANGE ON A SUITABLE FORM AND SUBSTANTIALLY IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE EXISTING REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT COVERING THE SERIES C STOCK AND SERIES C WARRANTS WITHIN 60 DAYS OF THE COMPLETION OF THE EXCHANGE OFFER AND TO REIMBURSE MEDCAP FOR CERTAIN LEGAL EXPENSES INCURRED IN CONNECTION WITH THE EXCHANGE OFFER

TO: Holders of Series C and Warrants to Purchase Series B-1 and Series C Preferred Stock of Crdentia Corp.

FROM: The Board of Directors of Crdentia Corp.

DATE: March 13, 2006

SUBJECT: Offer to Exchange Series C Preferred Stock and Warrants to Purchase Series B-1 and Series C Preferred Stock

We are pleased to inform you that an independent Special Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Special Committee") of Crdentia Corp. (the "Company") has approved the exchange of the Company's outstanding Series C Preferred Stock ("Series C Stock") and warrants to purchase Series C Stock ("Series C Warrants") and Series B-1 Preferred Stock ("Series B-1 Warrants", together with the Series C Warrants, the "Warrants") for unregistered shares of Common Stock (the "Exchange Offer").

Under the terms of the Exchange Offer, holders of Series C Stock will receive 500 shares of Common Stock for each outstanding share of Series C Stock. Holders of Warrants will receive 85 shares of Common Stock for each share of Series B-1 Preferred Stock ("Series B-1 Stock") or Series C Stock covered by the Warrants.

Through this memorandum, the Company is taking the opportunity to (A) describe the terms of the Exchange Offer, (B) explain why the Special Committee considers the Exchange Offer to be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, (C) discuss certain risks associated with the Exchange Offer and (D) provide instructions to holders regarding how to participate in the Exchange Offer.

SCHEDULE 13D

(A) Terms of Exchange Offer

On or about March 1, 2006, the Special Committee approved the Exchange Offer pursuant to which holders of Series C Stock will receive 500 shares of Common Stock for each outstanding share of Series C Stock and holders of Warrants will receive 85 shares of Common Stock for each share of Series B-1 Preferred Stock or Series C Stock covered by the Warrants, in exchange for the cancellation of the Series C Stock and Warrants.

Edgar Filing: CRDENTIA CORP - Form SC 13D/A

The terms of the Exchange Offer were negotiated between the Special Committee and MedCap Partners, L.P. ("MedCap"), the largest holder of Series C Stock. Both MedCap and James D. Durham, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and a holder of Series C Stock and Warrants, have agreed to accept the Exchange Offer. The terms of the Exchange Offer are voluntary with respect to each holder of Series C Stock and/or Warrants, but MedCap may elect not to proceed unless all such holders accept the Exchange Offer.

Under the current terms of the Series C Stock and Series C Warrants, each share of Series C Stock may be automatically converted to Common Stock upon the earlier of a qualified underwritten public offering or the date specified by the written consent or agreement of the holders of a majority of the then outstanding shares of Series C Stock voting as a class, at a rate of 100 shares of Common Stock for each share of Series C Stock. The Series C Warrants are exercisable into Series C Stock, which can then be converted to Common Stock as indicated above.

Under the current terms of the Series B-1 Stock and Series B-1 Warrants, each share of Series B-1 Stock may be automatically converted to Common Stock upon the earlier of a qualified underwritten public offering or the date specified by the written consent or agreement of the holders of a majority of the then outstanding shares of Series B-1 Stock voting as a class, at a rate of 100 shares of Common Stock for each share of Series B-1 Stock. The Series B-1 Warrants are exercisable into Series B-1 Stock, which can then be converted to Common Stock as indicated above.

In connection with the Exchange Offer, the Company will effect a 10:1 reverse split of the Company's Common Stock simultaneously with the closing of the Exchange Offer (the "Reverse Split"). The Company's stockholders approved the Reverse Split at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on November 8, 2005 and the Company's Board of Directors approved the Reverse Split on March 1, 2006.

The Company has agreed to register the shares of Common Stock on a suitable form and substantially in compliance with the existing Registration Rights Agreement covering the Series C Stock and Series C Warrants within 60 days of completion of the Exchange Offer. The Company has also agreed to reimburse MedCap for certain legal expenses incurred in connection with the Exchange Offer. The Exchange Offer will terminate if not consummated by May 31, 2006.

(B) Consideration By Board of Directors

The Special Committee deems the Exchange Offer and the related Reverse Split to be in the best long-term interests of the Company and its stockholders for a number of reasons, including but not limited to the following:

First, the Exchange Offer eliminates liquidation preferences which could exceed $92 million (assuming exercise of all Warrants). At current estimates of the Company's value and as that value may grow in the foreseeable future, these liquidation preferences mandate the payment of all proceeds of a sale or liquidation of the Company to the holders of Series C Stock. Thus, the Special Committee believes that the Exchange Offer provides immediate and significant value to holders of the Company's Common Stock.

Edgar Filing: CRIDENTIA CORP - Form SC 13D/A

Second, the Exchange Offer eliminates the "full ratchet" antidilution protection enjoyed by the holders of Series C Stock and Series B-1 Stock, which could impose significant and possibly punitive dilution upon the Company's common stockholders in future financings at a per share purchase price of less than $0.60.

Third, the Special Committee has determined that the Exchange Offer will significantly simplify the Company's capital structure. We believe that our current complex capital structure, which includes the liquidation preferences and antidilution protections in favor of the holders of Series B-1 Stock and Series C Stock discussed above, has been a barrier to attracting new investors and strategic partners. A simplified capital structure could make the Company's Common Stock more appealing to new investors and could improve our ability to utilize the Company's Common Stock as consideration in any future acquisitions.

Fourth, we believe that the Exchange Offer and Reverse Split should better enable the Company to list its Common Stock on a national stock exchange such as NASDAQ, thus potentially providing better liquidity for the Company's stockholders. Regulatory bodies have indicated an unwillingness to list the Company's Common Stock on a national exchange with the "overhang" of the Series C Stock and Series B-1 Preferred Stock. By exchanging shares of Series C and B-1 Stock for Common Stock pursuant to the Exchange Offer, the Company will improve its shareholders' equity by eliminating the preferred shares from the Company's balance sheet, thus putting the Company in a better position to qualify its Common Stock on a national stock exchange. In addition, the Reverse Split will result in an increase in the price per share of the Company's Common Stock, which will also assist the Company in meeting the listing requirements of a national stock exchange. A listing on a national stock exchange could improve the liquidity of the Company's Common Stock, making investment in the Company's Common Stock more appealing to investors.

Fifth, the Exchange Offer will provide benefits to participants in the Company's equity incentive plans, improving the Company's ability to motivate and reward its employees. Stock options and restricted stock awards are an important part of the Company's compensation program because they reward employees' efforts to increase the success and growth of the Company, align the interests of the employees with those of the stockholders and motivate the employees to remain employed with the Company. As a result of the liquidation preferences and antidilution protections in favor of the holders of Series B-1 Stock and Series C Stock discussed above, stock options and stock awards have had diminished value as an incentive to motivate and retain the Company's valuable employees.

The Special Committee consulted with an investment banker in its deliberations, but the Company has not received an independent valuation of, or a fairness opinion with respect to, the Exchange Offer. C. Fred Toney, a member of our Board of Directors, is the managing member of MedCap Management & Research LLC, the general partner of MedCap (the largest holder of Series C Stock and Warrants). Mr. Toney was not a member of the Special Committee approving the Exchange Offer and, as a result, did not vote with respect to the Company's approval of the Exchange Offer.

(C) Risks Associated with the Exchange Offer

Any decision to approve the Conversion associated with the Exchange

Edgar Filing: CRDENTIA CORP - Form SC 13D/A

Offer involves a number of risks and uncertainties, some of which we have outlined for you below and others of which are described in the Company's filings on Forms 10-QSB and 10-KSB with the SEC under the heading "Risk Factors," which may be reviewed on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. You should carefully review and consider these risks before agreeing to participate in the Exchange Offer, certain of which principal risks we have described in further detail below.

Loss of Liquidation Preference. Series C Stock generally has senior rights, preferences and privileges to all other classes and series of the Company's capital stock. Such senior rights include a liquidation preference entitling such holders to receive five (5) times their original purchase price ($300.00) prior to any distribution of funds to holders of Series B-1 Stock and Common Stock. Upon completion of the Exchange Offer, holders of Series C Stock and Series C Warrants would exchange their Series C Stock and Series C Warrants for Common Stock and forego their preferences. Holders of shares of Series B-1 Stock are currently entitled to receive a liquidation preference equal to $60.00 per share for each share of Series B-1 Stock held by them, to be paid prior and in preference to any payment to the holders of Common Stock. In connection with the Exchange Offer, holders of Series B-1 Warrants would exchange their Series B-1 Warrants for Common Stock and forego their preferences.

Loss of Antidilution Protection. Holders of Series C Stock and Series B-1 Stock currently have "full ratchet" antidilution protection, which provides significant protection to the holders in future financings at a per share purchase price of less than $0.60. In connection with the Exchange Offer, holders of Warrants and Series C Stock would forego this antidilution protection.

Potential for Future Dilution. The Company will need to raise additional capital. If we sell additional shares of our Common Stock, such sales will further dilute the percentage of our equity held by our existing stockholders. In addition, our recent private placement financings have involved the issuance of securities at a price per share that represented a discount to the trading prices listed for our Common Stock on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board, and it is possible that we will close future private placements involving the issuance of securities at a discount to prevailing trading prices.

Lack of Liquidity for Company Common Stock. The shares of Common Stock that will be issued to holders of Series C and Series B-1 Stock and the Warrants will not be immediately registered under the Securities Act and will be subject to restrictions on transfer under the Securities Act in the absence of registration or the availability of a resale exemption, such as Rule 144(k). As the Company has no obligation to register the resale of such shares of Common Stock with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, such holders may be unable to sell all of their shares of Common Stock at the price or upon such other terms and conditions as such holders may desire.

(D) Procedures for Exchanging Shares and Warrants

In order to exchange your shares of Series C Stock and/or Warrants pursuant to the Exchange Offer, holders must complete and deliver the enclosed Notice of Acceptance of Exchange Offer. In addition, holders of Series C Stock must (i) deliver their stock certificates representing shares of Series C Stock and (ii) complete and deliver one completed

Edgar Filing: CRDENTIA CORP - Form SC 13D/A

Assignment Separate From Certificate (in the form attached to this memo) for each stock certificate. Holders of Warrants must (i) complete and deliver the attached Warrant Assignment Form and (ii) deliver the original executed warrant.

All forms and stock certificates should be delivered to the Company's corporate counsel, Morrison & Foerster LLP, at 12531 High Bluff Drive, San Diego, California 92130, Attn: Jeanette V. Filippone. Enclosed for your convenience is a reusable UPS envelope and pre-addressed UPS airbill. If you are unable to locate your original stock certificate(s) or warrant(s), please notify Morrison & Foerster LLP and appropriate arrangements will be made. Once the above documents are received, you will be issued stock certificates representing shares of the Company's Common Stock issued in connection with the Exchange Offer. The Company has retained Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company as its transfer agent for all matters relating to its Common Stock.

A. In connection with the execution of this Agreement by the Purchaser, the Company hereby agrees to the following representations, warranties and covenants and the Purchaser is entitled to rely on such representations, warranties and covenants in making any purchase that it may make of the Stock pursuant to this Agreement.

1.1 Organization. The Company is duly organized and validly existing in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware. Each of the Company and its Subsidiaries (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act) has full power and authority to own, operate and occupy its properties and to conduct its business as presently conducted and as described in the Exchange Act Documents and is registered or qualified to do business and in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the nature of the business conducted by it or the location of the properties owned or leased by it requires such qualification and where the failure to be so qualified would have a material adverse effect upon the condition (financial or otherwise), earnings, business or business prospects, properties or operations of the Company and its Subsidiaries, considered as one enterprise (a "Material Adverse Effect").

1.3 Non-Contravention. Assuming the correctness of the representations and warranties of the Purchaser, no consent, approval, authorization or other order of, or registration, qualification or filing with, any regulatory body, administrative agency, or other governmental body in the United States or any other person is required for the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the valid issuance and sale of the

1.4 Transfer Taxes. All stock transfer or other taxes (other than income taxes) which are required to be paid in connection with the sale and transfer of the Securities to be sold to the Purchaser hereunder will be, or will have been, fully paid or provided for by the Company and all laws imposing such taxes will be or will have been fully complied with.

1.5 Private Offering. Assuming the correctness of the representations and warranties of the Purchasers set forth in this Agreement, the offer and sale of Securities hereunder is exempt from registration under the Securities Act. The Company has not in the past nor will it hereafter take any action to sell, offer for sale or solicit offers to buy any securities of the Company which would bring the offer, issuance or sale of the Securities as contemplated by this Agreement, within the provisions of Section 5 of the Securities Act, unless such offer, issuance or sale was or shall be within the exemptions of Section 4 of the Securities Act.

The foregoing representations and warranties are true, complete and accurate as of the date hereof, shall be true, complete and accurate as of the date of delivery, if any, of the Securities to the Purchaser and shall survive for a period of one year after the delivery, if any, of the Securities. The Company undertakes no duty to update the foregoing representations and warranties.

IV. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Purchaser.

The Purchaser hereby represents and warrants to and covenants with the Company for the Company's benefit with knowledge that the Company is relying thereon in entering into this Agreement and issuing the Securities to such Purchaser, as follows:

A. The Purchaser has reviewed the documents filed by the Company under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), since the end of its most recently completed fiscal year through the date hereof, including, without limitation, its most recent reports on Form 10-KSB, Form 10-QSB and Form 8-K (together with all exhibits thereto). C. Immediately prior to the Purchaser's execution of this Agreement, the Purchaser had such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters (including experience with investments of a similar nature), that the Purchaser was capable of evaluating the merits and risks of an investment in the Securities.

D. The Securities are being acquired solely for the Purchaser's own account for investment purposes only and not with a view to or for any resale or distribution thereof or with any present intention of distributing or selling all or any part of such Securities. The Purchaser agrees that the Securities may not be transferred except upon registration under the Securities Act, and under any applicable state securities or "blue sky" laws, or upon receipt by the Company of evidence in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company, to the effect that such transfer may be made without registration under the Act and applicable state securities or "blue sky" laws.

E. The Purchaser recognizes that the purchase of the Securities is a speculative investment that involves a high degree of risk and is suitable only for persons with the financial capability of making and holding long-term investments not readily reducible to cash. The Purchaser is aware that there is no guarantee that the Purchaser will realize any gain from an investment in the Securities. The Purchaser further understands that the Purchaser could lose the entire amount of the Purchaser's investment.

F. The Purchaser understands that no U.S. federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority, or other authority (within or outside of the United States) has made any finding or determination regarding the fairness of the offer, sale and/or issuance of the Securities, has made any recommendation or endorsement of the offer and sale of the Securities or has passed in any way upon this Agreement.

G. The Purchaser is financially able to bear the economic risk of an investment in the Securities, including the ability to hold such Securities indefinitely and to afford a complete loss of his investment in the Securities.

H. The certificates and/or other documentation evidencing the Securities will contain a legend substantially as follows:

I. Purchaser understands that the Securities are being offered and sold to it in reliance on specific exemptions from the registration and approval requirements of the U.S. federal and state securities laws or the laws of other applicable jurisdictions and that the Company is relying upon the truth, completeness and accuracy of the representations, warranties, agreements, acknowledgments and understandings of Purchaser set forth herein in order to determine the applicability of such exemptions and the suitability of Purchaser to acquire the Securities.
