ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS

In this prospectus, unless otherwise indicated, the terms “we,” “us,” “our” and the “Company” refer to 1st Source Corporation and, where appropriate, our subsidiary companies.

1st Source Bank (the “Bank”) is an Indiana banking corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. The Bank serves as trustee (the “Trustee”) of various trusts held for the benefit of Mrs. Ernestine Raclin and her descendants. Thirty-eight of the trusts hold shares of our common stock. These 38 trusts are collectively referred to as the “Morris Trusts”.

In 2012, the Trustee filed an action in St. Joseph Probate Court, St. Joseph County, Indiana, to resolve certain matters related to 22 of the 38 Morris Trusts (the “Litigation”). Two of Mrs. Raclin’s children (and their respective children) filed a counter-petition. The parties reached a settlement of the Litigation which was approved by the Court on October 8, 2015. In connection with the settlement, the Selling Shareholders (the Trustee, as trustee of the Morris Trusts, and certain of the beneficiaries of the Morris Trusts) and the Company entered into a Registration Rights Agreement, dated October 8, 2015. The Company agreed to use commercially reasonable best efforts to register the shares held by the Selling Shareholders for resale under the Securities Act. Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, the Company has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, using a “shelf” registration, or continuous offering, process. Under this shelf registration process, the Selling Shareholders may, from time to time, offer and sell, in one or more transactions, the securities described in this prospectus.

We may provide one or more prospectus supplements containing specific information about the terms of a particular offering by the Selling Shareholders. The prospectus supplements may add, update or change information in this prospectus. If the information in this prospectus is inconsistent with a prospectus supplement, you should rely on the information in the prospectus supplement. You should read both this prospectus and, if applicable, any prospectus supplements. You should rely only on the information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus. We have not, and any underwriters have not, authorized anyone to provide you with information different from that contained in this prospectus, and in any prospectus supplements. If anyone provides you with different or inconsistent information, you should not rely on it.

The Selling Shareholders are not offering to sell shares of common stock or seeking offers to buy shares of common stock in any jurisdiction where offers and sales are not permitted. The information contained in this prospectus is accurate only as of the date of this prospectus, regardless of the time of delivery of this prospectus or any sale of the common stock offered hereby.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The transfer agent and registrar for 1st Source common stock is American Stock Transfer & Trust Company.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Selling Shareholders and their successors, including their transferees, may sell the securities directly to purchasers or through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, who may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the Selling Shareholders or the purchasers of the securities. These discounts, concessions or commissions as to any particular underwriter, broker-dealer or agent may be in excess of those customary in the types of transactions involved.

The securities may be sold in one or more transactions at fixed prices, at prices then prevailing or at prices related to the current market price or at negotiated prices. These sales may be effected in transactions, which may involve block transactions, in the following manner:

on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the common stock may be listed or quoted at the time of sale, including, as of the date of this prospectus, the Nasdaq Global Select Market;

- in the over-the-counter market; or
- in transactions otherwise than on these exchanges or services or in the over-the-counter market; involving one or more of the following:
 - an offering in which any or all of the Selling Shareholders' shares are sold to an underwriter for reoffering to the public, whether on a firm commitment or best efforts basis;
 - purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its own account;
 - brokerage transactions in which the broker-dealer as agent solicits purchases, which may involve compensation in excess of customary commissions;
 - private transactions negotiated by the Selling Shareholders or their agents directly with purchasers;
 - exchange distributions in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;
 - through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions, whether such options are listed on an options exchange or otherwise; or
 - any other lawful transaction.

In addition, any securities that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to this prospectus. In addition, the Selling Shareholders may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of, at any time and from time to time, shares of our common stock in other transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

In connection with the sale of the shares or otherwise, the Selling Shareholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers, which may in turn engage in short sales of the securities in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The Selling Shareholders may also sell short the securities and deliver securities to close out short positions, or loan or pledge the securities to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these securities.

The aggregate proceeds to the Selling Shareholders from the sale of the securities will be the purchase price of the securities less discounts and commissions, if any.

In effecting sales, broker-dealers or agents engaged by the Selling Shareholders may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate. Broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions, discounts or concessions from the Selling Shareholders in amounts to be negotiated immediately prior to the sale.

In offering the securities covered by this prospectus, the Selling Shareholders and any broker-dealers who execute sales for the Selling Shareholders may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. Any profits realized by the Selling Shareholders and the compensation of any broker-dealer may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions. Selling shareholders who are "underwriters" within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act and may be subject to certain statutory and regulatory liabilities, including liabilities imposed pursuant to Sections 11, 12 and 17 of the Securities Act and Rule 10b-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act").

In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, if applicable, the securities must be sold in such jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in certain states the securities may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with.

The anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Exchange Act may apply to sales of securities pursuant to this prospectus and to the activities of the Selling Shareholders. In addition, we will make copies of this prospectus available to the Selling Shareholders for the purpose of satisfying the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act, which may include delivery through the facilities of the Nasdaq Global Select Market pursuant to Rule 153 under the Securities Act.

At the time a particular offer of securities is made, if required, a prospectus supplement will set forth the number and type of securities being offered and the terms of the offering, including the name of any underwriter, dealer or agent, the purchase price paid by any underwriter, any discount, commission and other item constituting compensation, any discount, commission or concession allowed or reallocated or paid to any dealer, and the proposed selling price to the public.

We have agreed to indemnify the Selling Shareholders against certain liabilities, including certain liabilities under the Securities Act. We have also agreed, among other things, to register the securities and bear substantially all expenses in connection with the registration of the securities covered by this prospectus and associated state securities law qualifications. We will not bear transaction expenses associated with offers of shares except in the case of limited underwritten offerings. We will not bear transaction expenses associated with an underwritten offering in excess of $100,000 (up to an aggregate of $400,000 for four underwritten offerings).

SELLING SHAREHOLDERS

We are registering for resale an aggregate of 3,068,851 of our common shares to be sold by the Selling Shareholders set forth herein. Once the registration statement, of which this prospectus is a part, is declared effective, the common shares held by the Selling Shareholders indicated in the table below as having been registered under such registration statement will be available for resale in the public market.

The registration for resale of the shares of our common stock by the Selling Shareholders is an accommodation extended to the Selling Shareholders pursuant to the settlement of the Litigation. We do not know when or in what amounts the Selling Shareholders may offer shares for sale. The Selling Shareholders might not sell any of the shares registered pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. Because the Selling Shareholders may offer all or some of the shares pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part and because there are currently no agreements or understandings with respect to the sale of any shares, we cannot estimate the number of shares that will be held by the Selling Shareholders after completion of this offering. 1st Source Bank is the Trustee of various trusts held for the benefit of Mrs. Ernestine Raclin and her descendants. Thirty-eight of those trusts hold shares of our common stock. These 38 trusts are collectively referred to as the "Morris Trusts". The Bank has served as Trustee of the Morris Trusts continuously since 1985. There are four groups of Morris Trusts, divided according to family line groups corresponding to Mrs. Raclin's four living children, namely Ernestine C. Nickle, Stanley C. Carmichael, Oliver C. Carmichael III and Carmen C. Murphy (the "Raclin Siblings"). The Selling Shareholders are:

- the Trustee, as trustee of certain of the Morris Trusts, and
- certain beneficiaries of such Morris Trusts.

In 2012, the Trustee filed an action in St. Joseph Probate Court, St. Joseph County, Indiana, to resolve certain matters related to 22 of the 38 Morris Trusts (the "Litigation"). Two of the Raclin Siblings and their respective children filed a counter-petition objecting to the Trustee's proposed division of the Morris Trusts and alleging that the Trustee breached its duty by, among other things, failing to diversify the assets in the Morris Trusts. The parties reached a settlement of these proceedings which was approved by the Court on October 8, 2015 and became effective on that date. Pursuant to the settlement agreement, six of the Morris Trusts that were not otherwise allocated among the four family groups were divided into subtrusts corresponding to the four separate family lines. The Morris Trusts were modified to allow representatives of the four respective family trust lines (if and when they so choose) to direct the trustee (or appoint a special trustee) to diversify the Company stock holdings in such trusts. Each family line representative may also separately direct the Trustee to engage an independent proxy service to provide voting recommendations to the Trustee, in which case the Trustee has agreed to vote the Company shares in the trusts of such family line in accordance with the recommendations of such independent proxy service, unless to do so would be contrary to applicable Commission legal and regulatory guidelines and requirements or violate the Trustee's fiduciary obligations. If the family representative appoints a special trustee for shares in one or more trusts in such representative's family group, the special trustee will have power to vote such shares.

In connection with the settlement, the Selling Shareholders (the Trustee, as trustee of the Morris Trusts, and certain of the beneficiaries of the Morris Trusts) and the Company entered into a Registration Rights Agreement, dated October 8, 2015. The Company agreed to use commercially reasonable best efforts to register the shares held by the Selling Shareholders for resale under the Securities Act. Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, the Company has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, using a "shelf" registration, or continuous offering, process. Under this shelf registration process, the Selling Shareholders may, from time to time, offer and sell, in one or more transactions, the securities described in this prospectus.

The Registration Rights Agreement obligates us to file the registration statement and seek to maintain the effectiveness of the registration statement at our expense. If a Selling Shareholder proposes an underwritten offering of the Company shares covered by this prospectus, we are obligated to take steps to coordinate the opportunity for other Selling Shareholders to participate in such transaction if they choose and otherwise reasonably cooperate with the underwriting. We will not bear transaction expenses associated with any underwritten offering in excess of $100,000 (up to an aggregate of $400,000 for four underwritten offerings).

Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the Commission and includes voting or investment power with respect to the securities. Unless and until the family representative of a separate family trust line appoints a special trustee for shares in one or more trusts in such representative's family group, the Trustee will have sole voting power and the respective family representative will have shared investment power with respect to the Company common shares held in trust, and will be deemed the beneficial owner of the shares. If a family representative of a separate family trust line appoints a special trustee for shares in one or more trusts in such representative's family group, then the Trustee and that special trustee will each have investment power with respect to the Company common shares held in trust, and both will be deemed a beneficial owner of the shares.

The Selling Shareholders have a material relationship with the Company due to the Bank's role as Trustee of the Morris Trusts and their family relationship with Ernestine M. Raclin, Chairman Emeritus of the Company. In addition, Mrs. Raclin's daughter, Carmen C. Murphy, a beneficiary of one of the Morris Trusts and the family representative for one of the four family lines in which the trusts are categorized, is the wife of Christopher J. Murphy III, the current Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. In addition, Allison N. Egidi and Christopher J. Murphy IV, directors of the Company, and Christopher J. Murphy III, the current Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, are beneficiaries of certain trusts in the four family lines.

Information about the Selling Shareholders may change over time and changed information will be set forth in supplements to this prospectus if and when necessary. In addition, the Selling Shareholders listed in the table below may have sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, or may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of, at any time and from time to time, shares of our common stock in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act after the date on which they provided the information set forth on the table below.

The following table sets forth: (1) the name of each Selling Shareholder for whom we are registering the resale of shares under the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part; (2) the number of our shares of common stock owned by such Selling Shareholder prior to this offering and percentage of such shares of the total number of the Company's issued and outstanding shares, calculated based on 26,082,147 outstanding as of the date of this prospectus; and (3) the number of our shares of common stock being offered pursuant to this prospectus. The registration of shares of common stock for resale pursuant to this registration statement does not necessarily mean that the Selling Shareholders will sell all or any shares of common stock offered by this prospectus. However, for illustrative purposes, we also set forth the number of shares that would be beneficially owned by each Selling Shareholder based on the assumption that all shares offered by this prospectus are sold.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Indiana Business Corporation Law provides in regard to indemnification of directors and officers as follows:

23-1-37-8 Indemnification of director against liability

Sec. 8. (a) A corporation may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

(1) the individual's conduct was in good faith; and

(2) the individual reasonably believed:

(A) in the case of conduct in the individual's official capacity with the corporation, that the individual's conduct was in its best interests; and

(B) in all other cases, that the individual's conduct was at least not opposed to its best interests; and

(3) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the individual either:

(A) had reasonable cause to believe the individual's conduct was lawful; or

(B) had no reasonable cause to believe the individual's conduct was unlawful.

(b) A director's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a purpose the director reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirement of subsection (a)(2)(B).

(c) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, determinative that the director did not meet the standard of conduct described in this section.

23-1-37-9 Mandatory indemnification of director against expense

Sec. 9. Unless limited by its articles of incorporation, a corporation shall indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director was a party because the director is or was a director of the corporation against reasonable expenses incurred by the director in connection with the proceeding.

23-1-37-13 Officers, employees or agents; indemnification and advance of expense

Sec. 13. Unless a corporation's articles of incorporation provide otherwise:

(1) an officer of the corporation, whether or not a director, is entitled to mandatory indemnification under section 9 of this chapter, and is entitled to apply for court-ordered indemnification under section 11 of this chapter, in each case to the same extent as a director;

(2) the corporation may indemnify and advance expenses under this chapter to an officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, whether or not a director, to the same extent as to a director; and

(3) a corporation may also indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee, or agent, whether or not a director, to the extent, consistent with public policy, that may be provided by its articles of incorporation, bylaws, general or specific action of its board of directors, or contract.

23-1-37-15 Indemnification rights under articles of incorporation, bylaws, or resolutions

Sec. 15. (a) The indemnification and advance for expenses provided for or authorized by this chapter does not exclude any other rights to indemnification and advance for expenses that a person may have under:

(1) a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws;

(2) a resolution of the board of directors or of the shareholders; or

(3) any other authorization, whenever adopted, after notice, by a majority vote of all the voting shares then issued and outstanding.

(b) If the articles of incorporation, bylaws, resolutions of the board of directors or of the shareholders, or other duly adopted authorization of indemnification or advance for expenses limit indemnification or advance for expenses, indemnification and advance for expenses are valid only to the extent consistent with the articles, bylaws, resolution of the board of directors or of the shareholders, or other duly adopted authorization of indemnification or advance for expenses.

(c) This chapter does not limit a corporation's power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee, or agent in connection with the person's appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the person has not been made a named defendant or respondent to the proceeding.

Article VII of the Articles of Incorporation of the Registrant provides:

"The Corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted in and in the manner provided by Chapter 37 of the Act, indemnify every person who is or was a Director of the Corporation. The Corporation may advance expenses to every person who is or was a Director of the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted in and in the manner provided by Chapter 37 of the Act. The Corporation shall indemnify and advance expenses to every person who is or was an Officer of the Corporation to the same extent as if such person were a Director of the Corporation. The foregoing indemnification and advance of expenses for Directors and Officers of the Corporation shall apply when such persons are serving in their official capacity with the Corporation, when serving at the Corporation's request while a Director or Officer of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise, whether for profit or not, and when serving as a director or officer of any corporation at least eighty percent (80%) of the voting capital stock of which is owned of record by the Corporation. All references in this paragraph to Chapter 37 of the Act shall be deemed to include any amendment or successor thereto. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall limit or preclude the exercise of any right relating to indemnification or advance of expenses to any person who is or was a Director or Officer of the Corporation or the ability of the Corporation to otherwise indemnify or advance expenses to any such person. The foregoing provisions shall be binding upon any successor to the Corporation so that each person who is or was a Director or Officer of the Corporation shall be in the same position with respect to any resulting, surviving, or succeeding entity as he or she would have been had the separate legal existence of the Corporation continued; provided, that unless expressly provided or agreed otherwise, this sentence shall be applicable only to Directors and Officers acting in such capacity prior to termination of the separate legal existence of the Corporation. If any word, clause, or sentence of the foregoing provisions regarding indemnification or advancement of expenses shall be held invalid as contrary to law or public policy, it shall be severable and the provisions remaining shall not be otherwise affected. This paragraph shall be interpreted and enforced so as to give maximum rights to indemnification and advance of expenses to each person who is or was a Director or Officer of the Corporation. If any Court holds any word, clause, or sentence of this paragraph invalid, the Court is authorized and empowered to rewrite these provisions to achieve such purpose.”

Article VI of the Bylaws of the Registrant provides as follows:

ARTICLE 6 INDEMNIFICATION

Section 6.1 Indemnification of Directors and Officers. Every person who is or was a Director or Officer of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all liability, including any obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, excise tax, or fine, and against reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, actually incurred by such person in his or her Official Capacity, provided that such person is determined in the manner specified in Section 6.3 to have met the standard of conduct specified in Section 6.4.

Section 6.2 Reimbursement of Expenses in Advance of Final Disposition. The Corporation may, upon authorization of those entitled to select counsel under Section 6.3, pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, incurred by any person who is or was a Director or Officer of the Corporation in connection with any Proceeding to which such person is a Party because of such person serving in his or her Official Capacity in advance of final disposition of the Proceeding if:

- (1) The person furnishes the Corporation a written affirmation of the person’s good faith belief that the person has met the standard of conduct specified in 6.4 below;
- (2) The person furnishes the Corporation an unlimited general written undertaking, executed personally or on the person’s behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the person did not meet such standard of conduct; and
- (3) A determination is made in the manner specified in 6.3 below that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under 6.1 above.

Section 6.3 Authorization of Indemnification. Upon demand for indemnification, the Corporation shall determine whether to authorize indemnification by any one of the following procedures, as selected by the Board of Directors by majority vote of the entire Board of Directors:

- (1) By the Board of Directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors not at the time Parties to the Proceeding as to which indemnification or advancement of expenses is at issue.
- (2) If a quorum cannot be obtained under Subdivision (1), by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the Board of Directors (in which designation Directors who are Parties may participate), consisting solely of two or more Directors not at the time Parties to the Proceeding.
- (3) By special legal counsel selected by the Board of Directors or its committee in the manner prescribed in Subdivision (1) or (2); or, if a quorum of the Board of Directors cannot be obtained under Subdivision (1) and a committee cannot be designated under Subdivision (2), by special legal counsel selected by majority vote of the full Board of Directors (in which selection Directors who are Parties may participate).
- (4) By a majority vote of shareholders excluding shares owned or controlled by Directors or Officers who at the time of the vote are Parties to the Proceeding.

II-3

Section 6.4 Standard of Conduct. The standard of conduct for any act or omission is:

- (1) In the case of any criminal Proceeding, the person either had reasonable cause to believe that the person’s conduct was lawful, or, had no reasonable cause to believe the person’s conduct was unlawful.
- (2) In all non-criminal Proceedings, either (a)(i) the person’s conduct was in good faith, and (ii) the person reasonably believed (A) in the case of conduct in the person’s Official Capacity, that the person’s conduct was in the Corporation’s best interest, or, (B) in all other cases, that the person’s conduct was not opposed to the Corporation’s best interests; or (b) the person’s breach of or failure to act in accordance with the standard set forth in this subsection (2)(a) above did not constitute willful misconduct or recklessness. A person’s conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a purpose which the person reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirements of this subsection (2)(a)(i)(B).
- (3) The termination of a Proceeding by judgment, order, agreement, or settlement, or upon conviction or a plea of nolo contendere, or the equivalent of any of the foregoing, is not, of itself, determinative that the person did not meet the standard of conduct.

Section 6.5 Definitions. As used in this Article 6, the following terms have the following meanings:

Item 17. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of the securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i), (1)(ii) and (1)(iii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment will be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

(6) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES
