On April 15, 2009, the Board of Directors of Wilhelmina International, Inc. (the “Registrant”) appointed Mark E. Schwarz, age 48, as the Registrant’s Chief Executive Officer, the principal executive officer of the Registrant. Mr. Schwarz has served as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Registrant since June 2004, has functioned as its Interim Chief Executive Officer since October 2007 and was formally appointed its Interim Chief Executive Officer effective in July 2008.

Mr. Schwarz has served as Chairman of the Board of Hallmark Financial Services, Inc., a property and casualty insurance company, since October 2001 and was its Chief Executive Officer from January 2003 to August 2006. He currently serves as Chairman of the Boards of Bell Industries, Inc., a computer systems integrator, and Pizza Inn, Inc., a franchisor and food and supply distributor, and as a director of Nashua Corporation, a specialty paper, label and printing supplies manufacturer, SL Industries, Inc., a power and data quality products manufacturer, and MedQuist Inc., a provider of electronic transcription and document management services to the healthcare industry.

Mr. Schwarz has served as the general partner, directly or through entities that he controls, of Newcastle Capital Management, L.P. (“NCM”) since 1993. NCM is an investment partnership and the general partner of Newcastle Partners, L.P. (“Newcastle”), a significant stockholder of the Registrant.

Newcastle, which owns 31,526,517 shares of Common Stock of the Registrant, or approximately 24.4% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, recently purchased 12,145,749 shares of Common Stock from the Registrant pursuant to a certain purchase agreement (the “Equity Financing Agreement”), dated as of August 25, 2008, between the Registrant and Newcastle. The terms of the Equity Financing Agreement and the issuance of Common Stock pursuant to the Equity Financing Agreement, together with the registration rights agreement entered into by the parties in connection therewith, are described in the Registrant’s Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on August 26, 2008. In addition, NCM and the Registrant are parties to a services agreement pursuant to which the Registrant receives the use of NCM’s office facilities and equipment and accounting and administrative services from employees of NCM. A description of this arrangement is set forth in the Registrant’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008 filed April 15, 2009.

On April 15, 2009, the Registrant's Board of Directors adopted a revised Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the "Code of Business Conduct and Ethics") that amends and restates the Registrant's former code of ethics (the "Code of Ethics"). The principal purpose of the amendment and restatement was to update the Code of Ethics to include more expansive and current provisions with respect to areas such as conflicts of interest, legal compliance, confidentiality, reporting and compliance procedures and waivers.

The Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, which is effective as of April 15, 2009, sets forth legal and ethical standards of conduct for directors, officers and employees of the Registrant and includes provisions specifically designed to help and guide the Registrant's directors, officers and employees to: (i) avoid violations of laws, rules and regulations and promote disclosure to the Registrant of any such violations that become known; (ii) refrain from engaging in any activity or having a personal interest that presents a "conflict of interest" and promote disclosure to the Registrant of any such "conflicts of interest"; (iii) avoid violations of insider trading laws; (iv) maintain the confidentiality of confidential information entrusted to them in connection with their position with, or service to, the Registrant; (v) endeavor to deal honestly, ethically and fairly with the Registrant's suppliers, customers, competitors and employees; (vi) protect the Registrant's assets and refrain from using the Registrant's assets and services for personal benefit; (vii) comply with applicable law and the Registrant's policy regarding gifts, gratuities, favors and business entertainment expenses; (viii) accurately report all business transactions and accurately maintain the Registrant's books, records and accounts in accordance with applicable regulations and standards; (ix) disclose concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters or complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters; (x) avoid making any direct or indirect materially false or misleading statements to an accountant in connection with any audit, review or examination of the Registrant's financial statements and avoid any direct or indirect action to coerce, manipulate, mislead or fraudulently influence any independent public or certified public accountant engaged in the performance of an audit or review of the Registrant's financial statements; and (xi) comply with reporting and compliance procedures under the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. The Code of Business Conduct and Ethics also sets forth procedures to obtain waivers of the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, as well as to amend and disseminate the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics.

The foregoing description of the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to its full text, which is attached as Exhibit 14.1 hereto.
