For the reasons set forth in the attached Proxy Statement, we do not believe the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”) is acting in the best interests of its shareholders. ## BACKGROUND TO THE SOLICITATION

The following is a chronology of material events leading up to this proxy solicitation:

- On December 6, 2012, the Balch Hill Entities delivered a letter to the Board expressing their serious concerns about the strategic direction of the Company and its current performance. In the letter, the Balch Hill Entities recognized the substantial value of the Company's underlying technology, but noted that the Company's performance has declined significantly over the past two years, mainly as a result of increasing competition. The Balch Hill Entities conveyed their belief that the Company's strategy, to increase its operating expenses, particularly in R&D spending, in order to gain scale and compete against larger industry players, has not resulted in commensurate growth in revenues. Accordingly, the Balch Hill Entities called upon the Company to immediately consider (i) a reduction in expenses, particularly in R&D or, greater disclosure to shareholders as to why such spending is justified, (ii) focusing the Company's efforts on its core products, particularly, the SAS market, and (iii) exploring all strategic alternatives, including a sale of the Company.
- On December 20, 2012, Mr. Michael met with Mark Moshayedi, President and Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of the Company, Manouch Moshayedi, Founder and director of the Company, and Kevin C. Daly, interim Chairman of the Board, to discuss the concerns about the Company that were outlined in the Balch Hill Entities' December 6, 2012 letter.
- On January 25, 2013, the Balch Hill Entities and the Potomac Entities entered into a Joint Filing Agreement pursuant to which, among other things, (i) they agreed to the joint filing on behalf of each of them of statements on Schedule 13D, and any amendments thereto, with respect to the securities of the Company, (ii) they agreed to solicit proxies or written consents for the election of persons to be nominated by the Group to the Board at the Annual Meeting (the "Solicitation"), (iii) they agreed that all decisions and activities of the Group would require unanimous consent, (iv) Balch Hill Partnership agreed to indemnify each of the Potomac Entities and hold each of them harmless against any and all third party claims of any nature arising from the Solicitation and any related activities, subject to certain exceptions, and (v) Balch Hill Partnership agreed to pay directly all pre-approved expenses incurred in connection with the Solicitation.
- On February 8, 2013, Messrs. Michael and Singer met with Manouch Moshayedi, the Company's Founder, Mark Moshayedi, the Company's President and CEO, Kevin Daly, the Chairman of the Board, and Christopher Colpitts, an independent Board member. At this meeting, Mr. Michael expressed Balch Hill's belief, which was based on conversations with industry contacts and the Company's analysts, as well as calls received from a number of shareholders, that STEC had lost the trust of key constituents, including large storage OEM customers. Mr. Michael expressed Balch Hill's belief that in order to regain this trust, Manouch Moshayedi should resign from the Board and executive management team and the Company should search for a new, independent CEO with world-class industry experience to lead the Company forward. The Board did not respond to Mr. Michael at this meeting.
- Also on February 8, 2013, Balch Hill delivered a letter to the Company nominating the Nominees for election to the Board at the Annual Meeting.
- Later in the day on February 8, 2013, Robert Saman, the Company's Chief Legal Officer, General Counsel and Secretary called Balch Hill's legal counsel. Mr. Saman and Balch Hill's legal counsel spoke on February 9, 2013. Mr. Saman expressed the Board's surprise by Mr. Michael's desire to seek the resignation of Manouch Moshayedi and replace Mark Moshayedi with a new CEO. Mr. Saman also informed Balch Hill's legal counsel that the Board would be meeting on February 11, 2013 to discuss the Nominees and would be in touch thereafter.

- On February 12, 2013, Mr. Saman and the Company's outside legal counsel had a call with Balch Hill's legal counsel. The Company proposed expanding the Board to nine, agreeing to interview four of the Nominees (Messrs. Colombatto, Leventhal, Masters and Singh), and selecting two of the four Nominees to be added to the Company's slate of directors for election at the Annual Meeting. The Company requested that Balch Hill respond to the settlement offer prior to the filing of its Schedule 13D amendment which was due that same day as a result of Balch Hill's nomination of the Nominees. Balch Hill responded that the Company's initial settlement offer would not result in meaningful change or restore trust to the Company, if Manouch Moshayedi remained in control of the Company. Balch Hill instead proposed that Manouch Moshayedi resign immediately, the Board be expanded by two, the Board appoint three of the Nominees, and that the Company engage in a search for a truly independent CEO with world class experience.
- On February 12, 2013, Balch Hill filed a Schedule 13D amendment announcing its nomination of the Nominees for election to the Board at the Annual Meeting. Balch Hill also expressed its belief that meaningful change to the Board and executive management team were necessary to restore trust to the Company. Balch Hill indicated that it remained willing to engage in constructive discussions with management and the Board regarding the nomination of directors at the Annual Meeting and the composition of the Board in order to avoid a protracted and costly proxy contest, but that it believed shareholder value is at risk without a reconstituted Board.
- Later in the day on February 12, 2013, the Company issued a press release responding to Balch Hill's nomination. The Company argued that Balch Hill had discounted the Company's 2013 strategic plan and rejected what they considered a good faith effort to engage in constructive dialogue, in order to pursue a proxy contest aimed at taking control of the Company and potentially seeking the sale of the Company.
- From February 21, 2013 to March 12, 2013, the Company's outside legal counsel and Balch Hill's legal counsel engaged in discussions regarding the composition of the Board in order to avoid a proxy contest. The Company and Balch Hill were in verbal agreement that Manouch Moshayedi would resign immediately from the Board, Eric Singer would be appointed to fill the resulting vacancy, the Board would form a four person special committee to search for a new CEO, of which Eric Singer would be a member, Mark Moshayedi would not stand for election at the Annual Meeting, the Company would propose amending the Bylaws to expand the Board by two directors, one additional Nominee would be supported by the Company for election at the Annual Meeting, one Board seat would be reserved for the new CEO, and the final seat would be reserved for a new independent director to be selected by the Board. However, the Board disagreed on the timing of the announcement of Mark Moshayedi's intended departure from the Board and the announcement of the search for a new CEO and would not memorialize these material terms of our verbal agreement in a written settlement agreement.
  - On March 14, 2013, Balch Hill Partnership and PCP II issued an open letter to shareholders and a press release announcing that settlement discussions with the Company had broken down. Balch Hill Partnership and PCP II also expressed their belief that Manouch Moshayedi had lost the trust of STEC's key OEM customers and shareholders and that his continued presence at the Company was detrimental to STEC. Balch Hill Partnership and PCP II argued that in order to move the Company forward, both Manouch and Mark Moshayedi should resign from the Board immediately.

- Also on March 14, 2013, the Company filed its earnings release for the fourth quarter and 2012 fiscal year, disclosing operating losses of over $103 million, a 510% decline from the prior year. The Company separately issued a press release acknowledging that settlement discussion with Balch Hill had broken down.
- On March 18, 2013, Balch Hill Partnership and PCP II issued an open letter to shareholders and a press release stating that it believes STEC has tremendous value to be realized but that the Board and executive management team must be reconstituted for this underlying value to be realized. Balch Hill Partnership and PCP II argued that the current Board and executive management team have presided over a massive loss of revenue and market share in the Company's core OEM enterprise SSD market even as that market grows strongly, because they have misallocated corporate funds and are pursuing a misguided business strategy of customer diversification instead of focusing on the Company's business on SAS SSD sales to large storage OEM customers. Balch Hill Partnership and PCP II reiterated their belief that in order for the Company to move forward, the Board and management team but we reconstituted without Manouch or Mark Moshayedi in control.
- On March 20, 2013, the Company issued an open letter to shareholders responding to our March 18, 2013 letter. The Company reiterated its confidence in and commitment to its new business strategy focused on diversifying its customer base and argued that its Board and management have the track record to create shareholder value. We disagree.

REASONS FOR THE SOLICITATION

We believe there is significant value to be realized at STEC, but we do not believe this value will be realized unless the current Board is reconstituted with truly independent directors. Accordingly, we have nominated a slate of highly qualified nominees for election to the Board who have a wealth of industry and management experience to guide the Company in addressing market share losses and enhancing shareholder value for all.

We believe that the Company is suffering significant reputational damage by the continued presence of Manouch and Mark Moshayedi.

In 2009, the SEC commenced a formal investigation of the Company, Manouch Moshayedi, the Company's Founder, and Mark Moshayedi, the Company's CEO and President, involving trading in the Company's securities, which ultimately led to an SEC action brought against Manouch Moshayedi for insider trading. Various shareholder class actions and shareholder derivative actions have also been brought against the Company alleging that the Company and certain of its senior officers and directors, including Manouch Moshayedi and Mark Moshayedi, made materially false or misleading public statements. In addition to the legal costs that have resulted for the Company (for the year ended December 31, 2012, STEC recorded approximately $21.8 million of settlement costs and legal fees in excess of its insurance deductible under its director and officer insurance coverage, $15 million of which relates to the settlement of a federal shareholder class action, which is subject to court approval), we believe the Company has suffered considerable reputational damage that, when compounded with increasing competition, has resulted in incredible market share loss for the Company.

While Manouch Moshayedi recently stepped down in July 2012 as Chairman of the Board and CEO pending the resolution of the civil complaint filed against him by the SEC for insider trading, we believe his change in title to Founder and continuation as a director of the Company are merely cosmetic changes. Why, for example, did Manouch Moshayedi continue to receive the same salary and benefits following his resignation as Chairman and CEO until both Mark and Manouch Moshayedi decided to reduce their salaries to $1.00 shortly after the filing of our initial Schedule 13D in November 2012? Also, rather than appointing an outside candidate as CEO to replace Manouch Moshayedi to energize the business and represent a new direction for the Company, why did the Board appoint Mark Moshayedi, Manouch Moshayedi's brother, to the role of CEO? Did the Board believe that Mark Moshayedi was the best candidate for the position? Was he appointed after a full and robust process to identify the best candidate to lead the Company forward? We believe the Company's continuing underperformance clearly indicates that Mark Moshayedi is the wrong man for the job. Would he really have been appointed to CEO if he had not been the brother of Manouch Moshayedi?

We believe the continued presence of Manouch Moshayedi and the appointment of his brother to continue at the helm of STEC are the actions of a Board that is too heavily influenced by its founders. We believe the Board must be reconstituted with truly independent directors that will hold management accountable for the Company's poor financial performance and work to restore the reputational harm caused by the continued presence of the Moshayedi brothers.

We are concerned with the Company's poor stock price performance.

In just over three (3) years, the current Board and management team have overseen the destruction of over $437 million in shareholder value. STEC's share price has declined over 60% in the year preceding our initial filing of a Schedule 13D on November 16, 2012, and approximately 70% since the Company first announced, in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009, that the SEC had commenced a formal investigation involving trading in the Company's securities by Manouch Moshayedi, the Company's Founder, and Mark Moshayedi, the Company's CEO and President. We believe that the entire Board must be held accountable for this significant destruction of shareholder value.

We are concerned with the Company's poor capital allocation and growing size of its operating expenses.

We believe the Company has a strong but eroding balance sheet due to the current Board and executive management team's poor capital allocation and financial performance. For example, the Company spent approximately $55 million to repurchase 1,546,700 shares of common stock at an average price per share of $9.72 and 4,063,911 shares of common stock at an average price per share of $9.86, from August 9, 2011 until March 30, 2012. Less than eight months later, the stock closed at a low of $4.07 on the trading day immediately preceding the filing of our initial Schedule 13D on November 16, 2012.

STEC has also spent over $66 million in research and development spending for the year ended December 31, 2012, an increase of $12 million more than the year ended December 31, 2011, and an over 68% increase since fiscal 2008. Despite this increase in research and development spending, the Company has failed to see commensurate increases in revenue or income.

We are concerned with the Company's poor operating performance and the growing size of its operating losses.

STEC's total revenue for the year ended December 31, 2012 declined by more than 45% from the year ended December 31, 2011. The Company also suffered operating losses of over $103 million for the year ended December 31, 2012, an over 510% decline in operating income from the year earlier, despite significant growth in the SAS SSD market, the primary market for STEC's products. According to STEC's own investor presentation, the SAS SSD market, which is the bulk of STEC revenues, grew significantly from fiscal 2011 to fiscal 2012.

We believe the Company has lost incredible market share in the wake of increasing competition because it has lost the trust of its large storage OEM customers under the leadership of the Moshayedi brothers. For example, revenues from sales to STEC's three largest customers in fiscal 2011 declined by more than 65% in the year ended December 31, 2012.

Based on the Company's guidance, STEC will post non-GAAP losses of $0.40 to $0.42 per share in the quarter ended March 31, 2013, implying a cash burn from operations of over $19 million. It appears that in order for the Company to breakeven, it would need to generate revenues of $70 million in the first quarter of 2013 or, in other words, grow its revenue by over 200%. Without immediate action, we do not believe the Company can breakeven for several more quarters.

We believe the Company is pursuing a misguided business strategy.

Rather than trying to repair its relationships with its large storage OEM customers, the Board and executive management team have decided to go after a broader array of enterprise customers. We believe this is a failing strategy. A strategy that Manouch Moshayedi himself once considered "not a long-term strategy." On the Company's conference call held on November 8, 2011, Manouch Moshayedi stated the following, in response to a question on the Company's sales strategy and why the Company was not building a direct to customer sales effort:

"First of all, building a distribution channel is not something that can be done overnight. It takes months if not years to build a proper channel out there. But, at the end of the day, this is a product that has to get integrated into an OEM system.

...that type of a sales model that you are talking about, it is very good if you are selling a system, a fully enclosed system, that you go sell it to an end-user, and they just plug it in and it all works. But if you have to sell a component that goes into another system, another OEM system, then it is pretty tough. It is good on a temporary basis, but not a long-term strategy."

We believe the Company's precipitous decline over the past year clearly demonstrates that the Company's strategy is not working. We believe that the only means to recapture the loss of market share and unlock the value of the Company's underlying assets is to reconstitute the Board with truly independent directors who will act in your best interests.

Our Nominees have the experience and qualifications necessary to restore the trust that has been lost under the leadership of the Moshayedi brothers and to unlock shareholder value.

Our Nominees have the extensive range of relevant operating expertise and quality industry experience necessary to address the difficult challenges currently facing the Company. We believe a reconstituted Board with new, highly-qualified directors focused on reviewing all strategic options, with a skill set designed to allow for better execution on such options, is the best way to create value going forward. If elected, our Nominees will exercise their independent judgment in accordance with the fiduciary duties imposed by law in all matters that come before the Board and will act in your best interests and promptly explore all alternatives for maximizing shareholder value, including to:

- Replace Mark and Manouch Moshayedi with trusted industry veterans to assist in the reengagement of large OEM customers;
- Refocus the business on SAS SSD sales to large storage OEM customers;

- Align operating expenses with revenues;
- Judiciously manage shareholder capital;
- Reevaluate the direction of the Company's PCI Express, SATA, I/O software, and other business initiatives; and
- Explore all strategic alternatives, including a possible sale of the Company if the Company cannot remain a stand-alone entity.

Each of the Nominees may be deemed to be a member of the Group for the purposes of Section 13(d)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”) and accordingly may be deemed to beneficially own the Shares owned directly by the other members of the Group. Each of the Nominees disclaims beneficial ownership of the Shares that he does not directly own, except to the extent of his pecuniary interest therein. For information regarding purchases and sales during the past two years by the Nominees and the other members of the Group of securities of the Company that may be deemed to be beneficially owned by the Nominees, see Schedule I.

Balch Hill Partnership has signed letter agreements, pursuant to which it agreed to indemnify each of the Nominees against claims arising from the solicitation of proxies from the Company’s shareholders in connection with the Annual Meeting and any related transactions.

Balch Hill Partnership has signed compensation letter agreements with each of Messrs. Colombatto, Leventhal, Masters, Schwartz, Singh and Xavier, pursuant to which the Balch Hill Partnership has agreed to pay each of Messrs. Colombatto, Leventhal, Masters, Schwartz, Singh, and Xavier: (i) $10,000 in cash as a result of the submission by the Balch Hill Partnership of its nomination of each of Messrs. Colombatto, Leventhal, Masters, Schwartz, Singh, and Xavier to the Company and (ii) $10,000 in cash upon the filing of a definitive proxy statement with the SEC by the Balch Hill Partnership relating to the solicitation of proxies in favor of each of Messrs. Colombatto, Leventhal, Masters, Schwartz, Singh, and Xavier’s election as a director at the Annual Meeting. Pursuant to the compensation letter agreements, each of Messrs. Colombatto, Leventhal, Masters, Schwartz, Singh, and Xavier has agreed to use the after-tax proceeds from such compensation to acquire securities of the Company (the “Nominee Shares”) at such time that each of Messrs. Colombatto, Leventhal, Masters, Schwartz, Singh, and Xavier shall determine, but in any event no later than 14 days after receipt of such compensation. If elected or appointed to serve as a director of the Board, each of Messrs. Colombatto, Leventhal, Masters, Schwartz, Singh, and Xavier agrees not to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any Nominee Shares within two (2) years of his election or appointment as a director; provided, however, in the event that the Company enters into a business combination with a third party, each of Messrs. Colombatto, Leventhal, Masters, Schwartz, Singh, and Xavier may sell, transfer or exchange the Nominee Shares in accordance with the terms of such business combination.

Other than as stated herein, there are no arrangements or understandings between members of the Balch Hill Entities, the Potomac Entities and any of the Nominees or any other person or persons pursuant to which the nomination of the Nominees described herein is to be made, other than the consent by each of the Nominees to be named in this Proxy Statement and to serve as a director of the Company if elected as such at the Annual Meeting. None of the Nominees are a party adverse to the Company or any of its subsidiaries or has a material interest adverse to the Company or any of its subsidiaries in any material pending legal proceedings.

Balch Hill Partnership believes that each Nominee presently is, and if elected as a director of the Company, Balch Hill Partnership believes each of the Nominees would be, an “independent director” within the meaning of (i) applicable NASDAQ listing standards applicable to board composition, including Rule 5605(a)(2), and (ii) Section 301 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. No Nominee is a member of the Company’s compensation, nominating or audit committee that is not independent under any such committee’s applicable independence standards.

We do not expect that the Nominees will be unable to stand for election, but, in the event that such persons are unable to serve or for good cause will not serve, the shares of Common Stock represented by the enclosed GOLD proxy card will be voted for substitute nominees, to the extent this is not prohibited under the Second Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company (the "Bylaws") and applicable law. In addition, we reserve the right to nominate substitute persons if the Company makes or announces any changes to its Bylaws or takes or announces any other action that has, or if consummated would have, the effect of disqualifying the Nominees, to the extent this is not prohibited under the Bylaws and applicable law. In any such case, Shares represented by the enclosed GOLD proxy card will be voted for such substitute nominees. We reserve the right to nominate additional persons, to the extent this is not prohibited under the Bylaws and applicable law, if the Company increases the size of the Board above its existing size or increases the number of directors whose terms expire at the Annual Meeting. Additional nominations made pursuant to the preceding sentence are without prejudice to the position of Balch Hill Partnership that any attempt to increase the size of the current Board constitutes an unlawful manipulation of the Company's corporate machinery.

The Company is submitting the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for ratification of the shareholders at the Annual Meeting.

LLP AS THE INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM OF THE COMPANY FOR ITS FISCAL YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2013 AND INTEND TO VOTE OUR SHARES "FOR" THIS PROPOSAL.

VOTING AND PROXY PROCEDURES

Only shareholders of record on the Record Date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. Each Share is entitled to one vote. Shareholders who sell Shares before the Record Date (or acquire them without voting rights after the Record Date) may not vote such Shares. Shareholders of record on the Record Date will retain their voting rights in connection with the Annual Meeting even if they sell such Shares after the Record Date. Based on publicly available information, we believe that the only outstanding classes of securities of STEC entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting are the Shares.

Shareholders do not have the right to cumulate their votes in the election of directors. Shares of Common Stock represented by properly executed GOLD proxy cards will be voted at the Annual Meeting as marked and, in the absence of specific instructions, will be voted FOR the election of the Nominees to the Board, FOR the ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm for the 2013 fiscal year, and ABSTAIN with respect to the non-binding advisory vote on executive compensation, as described herein, and in the discretion of the persons named as proxies on all other matters as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

You are being asked to elect the Nominees. The enclosed GOLD proxy card may only be voted for the Nominees and does not confer voting power with respect to the Company's nominees. You can only vote for the Company's nominees by signing and returning a proxy card provided by STEC. The participants in this solicitation intend to vote all of their Shares in favor of the Nominees. There is no assurance that any of the Company's nominees will serve as directors if our Nominees are elected.

QUORUM; BROKER NON-VOTES; DISCRETIONARY VOTING

A quorum is the minimum number of Shares that must be represented at a duly called meeting in person or by proxy in order to legally conduct business at the meeting. The presence at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Shares on the Record Date is required to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. Votes withheld for director nominees and abstentions on the other proposals to be considered at the Annual Meeting will be counted in determining whether a quorum has been reached, but the failure to execute and return a proxy will result in a shareholder not being considered present at the meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as present for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum.

Shares held by brokers, banks or nominees (i.e. in "street name") may not be voted by such brokers, banks or nominees on the proposal to elect directors or the Say on Pay Proposal unless the beneficial owners of such Shares provide them with instructions on how to vote. Shares held by brokers, banks or nominees may be voted by such brokers, banks or nominees on the proposal to ratify the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP if the beneficial owners of such Shares do not provide them with instructions on how to vote.

VOTES REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL

Election of Directors The Company has adopted a plurality vote standard for director elections. The seven (7) nominees for director receiving the highest vote totals will be elected as directors of the Company. With respect to the election of directors, neither an abstention nor a broker non-vote will count as a vote cast "for" or "against" a director nominee. Therefore, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no direct effect on the outcome of the election of directors. The election of nominees for director is a "non-routine" proposal on which a broker, bank or other nominee does not have discretion to vote any uninstructed shares.

Say on Pay – The vote presented in Proposal 2 is an advisory vote, and therefore, is not binding on the Company or the Board. According to the Company’s proxy statement, this advisory vote requires the affirmative vote of a majority of shares of Common Stock present at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy, and voting on the proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not count as shares voting on this proposal and will not impact the outcome of the vote on Say on Pay. The Say on Pay proposal is a “non-routine” proposal on which a broker, bank or other nominee does not have discretion to vote any uninstructed shares.

Ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP– According to the Company’s proxy statement, if a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the Shares present and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will be required to ratify the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm. Abstentions will not count as shares voting on this proposal and will not impact the outcome of the vote. The approval of this proposal is a “routine” proposal on which a broker, bank or other nominee is generally empowered to vote. Accordingly, it is unlikely that any broker non-votes will result from this proposal.

REVOCAION OF PROXIES

Shareholders of the Company may revoke their proxies at any time prior to exercise by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy) or by delivering a written notice of revocation. The delivery of a subsequently dated proxy which is properly completed will constitute a revocation of any earlier proxy. The revocation may be delivered either to Balch Hill Partnership in care of Okapi Partners at the address set forth on the back cover of this Proxy Statement or to the Company at 3001 Daimler Street, Santa Ana, CA 92705-5812, or any other address provided by the Company. Although a revocation is effective if delivered to the Company, we request that either the original or photostatic copies of all revocations be mailed to Balch Hill Partnership in care of Okapi Partners at the address set forth on the back cover of this Proxy Statement so that we will be aware of all revocations and can more accurately determine if and when proxies have been received from the holders of record on the Record Date of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. Additionally, Okapi Partners may use this information to contact shareholders who have revoked their proxies in order to solicit later dated proxies for the election of the Nominees.

IF YOU WISH TO VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES TO THE BOARD, PLEASE SIGN, DATE AND RETURN PROMPTLY THE ENCLOSED GOLD PROXY CARD IN THE POSTAGE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED.

On September 28, 2012, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (the “Court”) found that Mr. Michael, a director of Shocking Technologies, Inc. (“STI”), had breached his fiduciary duty of loyalty to STI by seeking to dissuade a potential investor from investing in STI and by sharing certain confidential information about STI with the same investor. The Court however did not award any damages to STI or relieve STI of its legal fees, finding that Mr. Michael’s conduct did not cause any material damage to STI nor did it rise to the level of subjective bad faith that would warrant the shifting of legal fees. Despite this ruling, Mr. Michael continues to believe that this civil action was in retaliation for the questions raised by Mr. Michael regarding STI’s corporate governance practices and management’s apparent missteps. Specifically, Mr. Michael believes that the lawsuit was in response to Mr. Michael’s concerns raised over the substantially enhanced compensation and severance package approved by STI’s Board of Directors (the “STI Board”) for the Chief Executive Officer of STI in exchange for additional director compensation, despite failing to meet projections and STI's declining performance. Mr. Michael also believes that the lawsuit was in response to Mr. Michael's efforts to press for an independent STI Board and to inform STI's shareholders of his concerns regarding management's misrepresentations and omissions and the failure of the STI Board to act in the best interests of shareholders.

On January 17, 2013, STI filed a supplement to its amended complaint alleging, among other things, that Mr. Michael has again breached his fiduciary duties to STI by failing to attend Board meetings in order to deprive the STI Board of a quorum which has left STI unable to approve a short term financing. Mr. Michael denies all allegations made by STI, believes that the supplement is without merit, and intends to vigorously defend against the litigation. On March 12, 2013, an involuntary bankruptcy case was filed against STI by certain of its creditors.
