HOME FEDERAL BANCORP, INC. & SUBSIDIARY SELECTED NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Unaudited)

Note 1 - Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements presented in this quarterly report include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Home Federal Bank (the "Bank"). The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial information and are unaudited. All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated. In the opinion of the Company's management, all adjustments consisting of normal recurring accruals necessary for a fair presentation of the financial condition and results of operations for the interim periods included herein have been made. The consolidated statement of financial condition as of September 30, 2004 has been derived from the audited consolidated statement of financial condition of the Association as of that date.

Certain information and note disclosures normally included in the Company's annual financial statements have been condensed or omitted. Therefore, these consolidated financial statements and notes thereto should be read in conjunction with the Company's September 30, 2004 audited financial statements and notes included in the Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 29, 2004.

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements. Changes in these estimates and assumptions are considered reasonably possible and may have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements, and thus actual results could differ from the amounts reported and disclosed herein. The Company considers the allowance for loan losses, mortgage servicing rights, and deferred income taxes to be critical accounting estimates.

The accounting estimate related to the allowance for loan losses is a critical accounting estimate because it is highly susceptible to change from period to period requiring management to make assumptions about future losses on loans. The impact of a sudden large loss could deplete the allowance and potentially require increased provisions to replenish the allowance, which would negatively affect earnings.

The most critical accounting policy associated with mortgage servicing is the methodology used to determine the fair value of capitalized mortgage servicing rights, which requires the development of a number of estimates, the most critical of which is the mortgage loan prepayment speeds assumption. The Company performs a quarterly review of mortgage servicing rights for potential declines in value. This review may include an independent appraisal by an outside party of the fair value of the mortgage servicing rights.

Deferred income taxes are computed using the asset and liability approach as prescribed in the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Under this method, a deferred tax asset or liability is determined based on the currently enacted tax rates applicable to the period in which the differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and tax basis of the existing assets and liabilities are expected to be reported in the Company's income tax returns.

At December 31, 2004, there were no material changes in the Company's significant accounting policies or critical accounting estimates from those disclosed in the Company's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2004.

Note 3 Mutual Holding Company Reorganization

On May 18, 2004, the Board of Directors of the Association unanimously adopted a Plan of Reorganization and Stock Issuance. At the special meeting of members of the Association held on September 20, 2004, members approved the plan of reorganization and stock issuance and the contribution to the Home Federal Foundation by more than the required majority of the total votes entitled to be cast at the special meeting.

Pursuant to the Plan of Reorganization and Stock Issuance, the Association: (i) converted to a federal stock savings bank (Stock Savings Bank) as the successor to the Association in its current mutual form; (ii) organized a Stock Holding Company as a federally-chartered corporation that owns 100% of the common stock of the Stock Savings Bank; and (iii) organized a Mutual Holding Company as a federally-chartered mutual holding company that owns at least 51% of the common stock of the Stock Holding Company for as long as the Mutual Holding Company remains in existence. The Stock Savings Bank succeeded to the business and operations of the Association in its mutual form, and the Stock Holding Company sold 40.0% of its common stock in a public stock offering that was complete on December 6, 2004.

All depositors who had membership or liquidation rights with respect to the Association as of December 6, 2004 (the effective date of the reorganization) continue to have such rights solely with respect to the Mutual Holding Company for as long as they continue to hold deposit accounts with Home Federal Bank (the "Bank"). In addition, all persons who become depositors of the Bank subsequent to the reorganization have membership and liquidation rights with respect to the Mutual Holding Company. Borrower members of the Association at the time of the reorganization have the same membership rights in the Mutual Holding Company that they had in the Association immediately prior to the reorganization for as long as their existing borrowings remain outstanding.

On December 6, 2004, the Association completed the mutual holding company reorganization and minority stock offering. The Company sold 6,083,500 shares of its common stock, $0.01 par value, at a price of $10.00 per share. The Company also established and capitalized the Home Federal Foundation (the "Foundation") by issuing an additional 146,004 shares of its common stock. In addition, the Company issued 8,979,246 additional shares to Home Federal MHC, a federally-chartered mutual holding company.

Note 4 Employee Stock Ownership Plan

In connection with the minority stock offering, the Company established an Employee Stock Ownership Plan ("ESOP") for the benefit of its employees. The Company issued 498,360 shares of common stock to the ESOP in exchange for a ten-year note of approximately $5.0 million, which has been recorded as "Unearned shares issued to employee stock ownership plan" within shareholders' equity. As shares are released from collateral, the Company will report compensation expense equal to the current market price of the shares. Dividends on allocated ESOP shares reduce retained earnings; dividends on unearned ESOP shares reduce accrued interest on the ESOP loan.

Note 5 Earnings Per Share

Earnings per share ("EPS") is computed using the basic and diluted weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Basic EPS is computed by dividing the Company's net income or loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS is computed by dividing net income or loss by diluted weighted average shares outstanding, which include common stock equivalent shares outstanding using the treasury stock method, unless such shares are anti-dilutive. There were no outstanding securities or contracts that could be exercised or converted into common stock as of December 31, 2004. Therefore, basic and diluted earnings per share are the same. ESOP shares are not considered outstanding for earnings per share purposes until they are committed to be released.

The following table presents the computation of basic and diluted earnings per share for the periods indicated (in thousands, except share data):

	Three Months Ended December 31,
	2004	2003

(1) Shares outstanding and earnings per share information is not meaningful. The Company did not complete its initial public offering until December 6, 2004.

Note 6 Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued SFAS No. 123(R), Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. This Statement is a revision of SFAS No. 123 and supercedes APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and its related implementation. SFAS 123(R) requires that the compensation cost relating to stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock or units, employee stock purchase plans and other share-based payment transactions, measured based on the fair value, be recognized in financial statements. For the Company, the provisions of SFAS No. 123(R) will be effective for the quarter ending September 30, 2005. The Company is currently assessing the impact that this pronouncement will have on its consolidated financial statements.

* statements of our goals, intentions and expectations;

Edgar Filing: HOME FEDERAL BANCORP INC - Form 10-Q

- * statements regarding our business plans, prospects, growth and operating strategies;
- * statements regarding the quality of our loan and investment portfolios; and
- * estimates of our risks and future costs and benefits.

These forward-looking statements are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements due to, among others, the following factors:

- * general economic conditions, either nationally or in our market area, that are worse than expected;
- * changes in the interest rate environment that reduce our interest margins or reduce the fair value of financial instruments;
- * increased competitive pressures among financial services companies;
- * changes in consumer spending, borrowing and savings habits;

Overview

The Company was organized as a federally chartered stock corporation at the direction of the Association in connection with its mutual holding company reorganization. The reorganization was completed on December 6, 2004. In connection with the reorganization, the Association converted to a federally chartered stock savings bank and changed its corporate title to "Home Federal Bank". In the reorganization, the Company sold 40.00% of its outstanding shares of common stock (6,083,500 shares) to the public and issued 59.04% of its outstanding shares of common stock (8,979,246 shares) to Home Federal MHC, the mutual holding company parent of the Company. In connection with the reorganization, the Company issued an additional 146,004 shares and $365,010 to the Home Federal Foundation, Inc., a charitable foundation established as part of the reorganization. The Company's common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Stock Market under the symbol "HOME."

The Association was founded in 1920 as a building and loan association and reorganized as a federal mutual savings and loan association in 1936. The Bank is a community-oriented financial institution dedicated to serving the financial service needs of consumers and businesses within our market area. The Bank's primary business is attracting deposits from the general public and using these funds to originate loans. We emphasize the origination of loans secured by first mortgages on owner-occupied, residential real estate, residential development and construction, and commercial real estate. To a lesser extent, we originate other types of real estate loans, commercial business loans and consumer loans.

The Bank serves the Treasure Valley region of southwestern Idaho, which includes Ada, Canyon, Elmore and Gem Counties, through our 15 full-service banking offices and two loan centers. Nearly 40% of the state's population lives and works in the four counties served by Home Federal. Ada County has the largest population and includes the city of Boise, the state capitol. Home Federal maintains its largest branch presence in Ada County with seven locations, followed by Canyon County with five offices, including the Company's corporate headquarters in Nampa. The two remaining branches are located in Elmore and Gem Counties.

The local economy is primarily urban with the city of Boise being the most populous of the markets that we serve, followed by Nampa, the state's second largest city. The regional economy is well diversified with government, healthcare, manufacturing, high technology, call centers and construction providing sources of employment. In addition, agriculture and related industries continue to be key components of the economy in southwestern Idaho. Generally, sources of employment are concentrated in Ada and Canyon Counties and include the headquarters of Micron Technology, Albertsons, Washington Group International, J.R. Simplot Company and Boise Cascade, LLC. Other major employers include Hewlett-Packard, two regional medical centers and Idaho state government agencies. The city of Boise is also home to Boise State University, the state's largest and fastest growing university.

Critical Accounting Policies

Allowance for Loan Losses. Management believes that the accounting estimate related to the allowance for loan losses is a critical accounting estimate because it is highly susceptible to change from period to period requiring management to make assumptions about future losses on loans; and the impact of a sudden large loss could deplete the allowance and potentially require increased provisions to replenish it, which would negatively affect earnings.

Our methodology for analyzing the allowance for loan losses consists of three components: formula, specific and general allowances. The formula allowance is determined by applying an estimated loss percentage to various groups of loans based on historical measures such as the amount and type of classified loans, past due ratios and loss experience, which could affect the collectibility of the respective loan types. The specific allowance component is created when management believes that the collectibility of a specific large loan has been impaired and a loss is probable. The general allowance element relates to assets with no well-defined deficiency of weakness and takes into consideration loss that is inherent within the portfolio but has not been realized.

Mortgage Servicing Rights. Mortgage servicing rights represent the present value of the future loan servicing fees from the right to service loans for others. The most critical accounting policy associated with mortgage servicing is the methodology used to determine the fair value of capitalized mortgage servicing rights, which requires the development of a number of estimates, the most critical of which is the mortgage loan prepayment speeds assumption. The amount and timing of mortgage servicing rights amortization is adjusted quarterly based on actual results and updated projections. The Company performs a quarterly review of mortgage servicing rights for potential declines in value. This review may include an independent appraisal by an outside party of the fair value of the mortgage servicing rights.

Deferred Income Taxes. Deferred income taxes are reported for temporary differences between items of income or expense reported in the financial statements and those reported for income tax purposes. Deferred taxes are computed using the asset and liability approach as prescribed in Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Under this method, a deferred tax asset or liability is determined based on the currently enacted tax rates applicable to the period in which the differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and tax basis of existing assets and liabilities are expected to be reported in the Company's income tax returns. The deferred tax provision for the year is equal to the net change in the net deferred tax asset from the beginning to the end of the year, less amounts applicable to the change in value related to investments available for sale. The effect on deferred taxes of a change in tax rates is recognized as income in the period that includes the enactment date. The primary differences between financial statement income and taxable income result from depreciation expense, mortgage servicing rights, loan loss reserves and dividends received from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle ("FHLB"). Deferred income taxes do not include a liability for pre-1988 bad debt deductions allowed to thrift institutions which may be recaptured if the institution fails to qualify as a bank for income tax purposes in the future.

Comparison of Financial Condition at December 31, 2004 and September 30, 2004

General. Total assets decreased $125.6 million or 16.9% to $618.3 million at December 31, 2004 compared to $743.9 million at September 30, 2004. Assets at September 30, 2004 included $220.8 million that was received from subscribers in the stock offering. These subscription funds were subsequently refunded to subscribers in the quarter ended December 31, 2004 as a result of a change in the appraisal of the Company, which increased the valuation range. Following the refund to subscribers, the Company conducted a resolicitation and received $153.1 million from subscribers. The Company's stock offering, however, was oversubscribed and as a result, $97.2 million of the $153.1 million subscription funds were returned to investors.

Assets. For the three months ended December 31, 2004 total assets decreased $125.6 million. The increases and decreases were primarily concentrated in the following asset categories:

	Balance at December 31, 2004	Increase/ Decrease from September 30, 2004	Percentage Increase/ Decrease

(dollars in thousands)
Cash and amounts due from depository institutions	$10,795	$ (204,868)	(95.0)%

allowance for loan losses	401,752	9,118	2.3
Loans held for sale	1,586	(1,991)	(55.7)

Cash and amounts due from depository institutions decreased $204.9 million as a result of the completion of the Company's minority stock offering. Assets at September 30, 2004 included $220.8 million that was received from subscribers in the stock offering. These subscription funds were subsequently refunded to subscribers in the quarter ended December 31, 2004 as described above.

The Company invested the net proceeds from the offering and additional borrowings in mortgage-backed securities to leverage the balance sheet and achieve the desired level of interest-earning assets. During the three months ended

December 31, 2004, mortgage-backed securities increased $71.9 million or 73.7%. The increase in mortgage-backed securities consisted of intermediate-term securities, including hybrid adjustable and fixed rate securities with terms of 20 years or less.

Loans receivable, net, increased $9.2 million to $401.8 million at December 31, 2004, compared to $392.6 million at September 30, 2004. Single-family residential loans and commercial real estate loans increased $4.9 million and $3.6 million, respectively. Over 90% of the Company's loan portfolio is secured by real estate, either as primary or secondary collateral, located in its primary market areas.

Loans held for sale decreased $2.0 million to $1.6 million at December 31, 2004, compared to $3.6 million at September 30, 2004. The Company originates fixed-rate residential loans, the majority of which are sold in the secondary market. Selling fixed-rate mortgage loans allows the Company to reduce interest rate risks associated with long term, fixed-rate products. It also frees up funds to make new loans and diversify the loan portfolio. The Company retains the servicing rights on most loans sold in the secondary market, thereby maintaining the customer relationship and generating ongoing noninterest income.

Deposits. Deposits increased $15.7 million during the three months ended December 31, 2004. Deposit growth resulted from increases in demand deposits and certificates of deposits. The following table details the changes in deposit accounts.

	Balance at December 31, 2004	Increase from September 30, 2004	Percentage Increase/ (Decrease)
----- (dollars in thousands)
Savings deposits	$ 24,975	$ (478)	(1.9)%

Noninterest-bearing demand deposits increased $2.8 million to $32.4 million at December 31, 2004, compared to $29.6 million at September 30, 2004.

Interest-bearing deposits grew $9.0 million to $132.8 million at December 31, 2004, compared to $123.8 million at September 30, 2004. Certificates of deposit increased $4.4 million primarily as a result of local advertised specials for certificate accounts with maturities ranging from 19 to 39 months.

Borrowings. Advances from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle increased $25.5 million or 20.8%, to $148.3 million during the three months ended December 31, 2004. The Company uses advances from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle as an alternative funding source to deposits in order to manage funding costs, reduce interest rate risk, and to leverage the balance sheet. The net effect was to fund increases in total interest-earning assets, thereby incrementally increasing net interest income.

Equity. Total shareholders' equity increased $55.1 million or 122.2%, to $100.2 million at December 31, 2004 as compared to $45.1 million at September 30, 2004. The increase was primarily due to the $53.6 million net proceeds from the stock offering and $1.5 million for the 146,004 shares issued to the Foundation.

Comparison of Operating Results for the Three Months ended December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003

General. Net income for the three months ended December 31, 2004 was $74,000, or less than $0.01 per basic share, compared to net income of $1.0 million for the three months ended December 31, 2003. The Association completed its mutual holding company reorganization, at which time the Company was organized, on December 6, 2004. As a result, comparisons to prior periods refer to the results of the Association, and per share data is not applicable.

The quarter ended December 31, 2004 is the first quarter of results since the completion of the Bank's mutual holding company reorganization and the Company's minority stock offering. As part of the reorganization, the Company formed the Foundation and contributed $1.8 million to the Foundation, which consisted of 146,000 shares of its common stock and $365,000 in cash. The Foundation was formed for the purpose of supporting charitable organizations and activities that enhance the quality of life for residents within the Company's market area. The

$1.8 million contribution made by the Company to the Foundation during the first fiscal quarter was the primary factor in the net income decrease from the same period a year ago.

Excluding the contribution to the Foundation, the Company had net income of $1.2 million, or $0.08 per share for the quarter ended December 31, 2004, compared to $1.0 million for the same period a year ago. The per share data for the quarter ended December 31, 2004 is being reported on shares outstanding from December 6, 2004 through December 31, 2004, since the Bank completed its conversion on December 6, 2004. The following table reconciles the Company's actual net income to pro forma net income, exclusive of the Net Interest Income. Net interest income increased $800,000, or 19.0%, to $5.0 million for the three months ended December 31, 2004, compared to $4.2 million for the three months ended December 31, 2003. Average total interest-earning assets increased $142.4 million primarily due to the receipt of cash from stock subscription requests and the purchase of mortgage-backed securities with the net proceeds of the stock offering. The additional cash and mortgage-backed securities contributed to a 73 basis point decline in our average asset yields. During that same period our average cost of funds declined 28 basis points, resulting in a 45 basis point decrease in our net interest spread.

Interest and Dividend Income. Total interest and dividend income for the three months ended December 31, 2004 increased $1.2 million, or 18.5% to $7.7 million, compared to $6.5 million for the three months ended December 31, 2003. The increase was the result of the $142.4 million increase in the average balance of interest-earning assets. The increase in average balance of interest-earning assets was partially offset by lower interest rates, prepayment of higher rate loans and mortgage backed securities in our portfolio, and the FHLB election to delay their next dividend declaration and payment until the first quarter of 2005. The FHLB is also changing the manner for paying dividends while it seeks approval of its and capital management plan. Until final adoption of this plan, the Company expects quarterly dividend income from the FHLB to decrease as compared to prior quarters. We do not expect the impact of the change to have a significant effect on our results of operations or financial condition.

The average balance of total interest-bearing liabilities increased $115.4 million for the three months ended December 31, 2004 compared to the three months ended December 31, 2003. The increase was primarily due to cash received from stock subscription requests prior to the completion of the minority stock offering. The average cost of funds for total interest-bearing liabilities decreased 28 basis points as a result of the lower interest rate environment.

Provision for Loan Losses. The Company's Asset Liability Committee (the "Committee") assesses the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses on a quarterly basis. The Committee analyzes several different factors, including delinquency, charge-off rates, and the changing risk profile of the loan portfolio, as well as local economic conditions including unemployment rates, bankruptcies and vacancy rates of business and residential properties. The Committee's methodology for analyzing the allowance for loan losses consists of three components: formula, specific and general allowances. The formula allowance is determined by applying an estimated loss percentage to various groups of loans. The loss percentages are based on various historical measures such as the amount and type of classified loans, past due ratios and loss experience, which could affect the collectibility of the respective loan types. The specific allowance component is determined when management believes that the collectibility of a specific large loan has been impaired and a loss is probable. The general allowance component is established to ensure the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses in situations where the Committee believes there are risk factors associated with the collectibility of the portfolio that may not be adequately addressed in the formula or specific allowance components. Information considered for the general allowance element includes regional economic and employment data.

The provision for loan losses decreased $241,000 to $59,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2004 compared to $300,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2003. The following table details selected activity associated with the allowance for loan losses for the three months ended December 31, 2004 and 2003:

The Company increased its provision for loan losses for the prior fiscal year in connection with the unseasoned nature of its loan portfolio that resulted from a record volume of refinanced mortgage loans. In management's judgment, the increase in the amount of refinanced mortgage loans resulted in an increase in the level of unseasoned loans within the loan portfolio thereby increasing the inherent risk of loss to the Company. In addition, management revised the estimated loss ratios of several loan categories to better reflect the Company's loss history. Industry or peer loss rates were used if the Company did not have a meaningful history of losses. As a result, the allowance for loan losses increased to $2.6 million as of September 30, 2004. Management considers the allowance for loan losses at December 31, 2004 to be adequate to cover probable losses inherent in the loan portfolio based on the assessment of the above-mentioned factors affecting the loan portfolio.

Noninterest Income. Noninterest income decreased $110,000 to $2.2 million for the three months ended December 31, 2004 compared to $2.3 million for the three months ended December 31, 2003. As management expected, the slowdown in mortgage refinance activity affected the gains on the sale of single-family residential loans.

Mortgage servicing rights is an accounting estimate of the present value of the future servicing fees from the right to service mortgage loans for others. This estimate is affected by prepayment speeds of the underlying mortgages and interest rates. In general, during periods of falling interest rates, mortgage loans prepay faster and the value of the mortgage-servicing asset declines. The Company performs a quarterly review of mortgage servicing rights for potential declines in value. As part of this review, the Company determined the value of the mortgage servicing right had declined $100,000 at December 31, 2004 as compared to the prior quarter.

Compensation expense increased due to annual merit pay increases, the establishment of the ESOP, and an increase in the number of employees. As of December 31, 2004, the Company employed 234 full-time equivalent employees, compared to 228 at December 31, 2003. Advertising expense increased due to additional marketing campaigns in the current quarter. The efficiency ratio (excluding the charitable contribution to the Foundation), which is defined as the percentage of noninterest expense to net interest income plus noninterest income, increased to 72.61% compared to 70.38% for the three months ended December 31, 2003.

Income Tax Expense. Income tax expense decreased $580,000 to $16,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2004 compared to $596,000 for the same period a year ago. Income before income taxes was $90,000 for the three months ended December 31, 2004 compared to $1.6 million for the three months ended December 31, 2003. The Company's combined Federal and State effective income tax rate for the first quarter of 2004 was 17.8% compared to 36.5% for the same quarter in 2003. The decrease in the effective tax rate was due to the increase in the cash surrender value of the bank-owned life insurance which is not subject to income taxes and the decrease in net income before income taxes due to the $1.8 million contribution to the Foundation.

Liquidity, Commitments and Capital Resources

Liquidity. The Company actively analyzes and manages the Bank's liquidity with the objectives of maintaining an adequate level of liquidity and to ensure the availability of sufficient cash flows to support loan growth, fund deposit withdrawals, fund operations and satisfy other financial commitments. See "Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows" contained in the Consolidated Financial Statements included in this document.

The primary sources of funds are customer deposits, loan repayments, loan sales, maturing investment securities, and advances from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle. These sources of funds, together with retained earnings and equity, are used to make loans, acquire investment securities and other assets, and fund continuing operations. While maturities and the scheduled amortization of loans are a predictable source of funds, deposit flows and mortgage prepayments are greatly influenced by the level of interest rates, economic conditions and competition. Management believes that our current liquidity position and our forecasted operating results are sufficient to fund all of our existing commitments.

At December 31, 2004, the Company maintained a line of credit with the Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle equal to 40% of total assets to the extent the Company provides qualifying collateral and holds sufficient FHLB stock. At December 31, 2004, we were in compliance with our collateral requirements and $54.5 million of the line of credit was available. In addition, we held readily saleable loans and mortgage-backed securities available for sale for liquidity purposes.

At December 31, 2004, certificates of deposits amounted to $168.7 million, or 47.0% of total deposits, including $75.2 million which are scheduled to mature by December 31, 2005. Historically, we have been able to retain a significant amount of our deposits as they mature. Management believes the Company has adequate resources to fund all loan commitments through deposits, advances from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle, loan repayments, maturing investment securities, and the sale of mortgage loans in the secondary markets.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements. The Company is a party to financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk in the normal course of business to meet the financing needs of its customers. These financial instruments generally include commitments to originate mortgage, commercial and consumer loans, and involve to varying degrees, elements of credit and interest rate risk in excess of the amount recognized in the balance sheet. Our maximum exposure to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the borrower is represented by the contractual amount of those instruments. Since some commitments may expire without being drawn upon, the total commitment amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements. The Company uses the same credit policies in making commitments as it does for on-balance sheet instruments. Collateral is not required to support commitments.

Undisbursed balances of loans closed include funds not disbursed but committed for construction projects. Unused lines of credit include funds not disbursed, but committed to, home equity, commercial and consumer lines of credit. Commercial letters of credit are conditional commitments issued by the Company to guarantee the performance of a customer to a third party.

Item 3 - Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

Our Board of Directors has established an asset and liability management policy to guide management in maximizing net interest spread by managing the differences in terms between interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities while maintaining acceptable levels of liquidity, capital adequacy, interest rate sensitivity, credit risk and profitability. The Asset Liability Management Committee, consisting of certain members of senior management, communicate, coordinate and manage our asset/liability positions consistent with our business plan and Board-approved policies, as well as to price savings and lending products, and to develop new products.

One of our primary financial objectives is to generate ongoing profitability. The Company's profitability depends primarily on its net interest income, which is the difference between the income it receives on its loan and investment portfolio and its cost of funds, which consists of interest paid on deposits and borrowings. The rates we earn on assets and pay on liabilities generally is established contractually for a period of time. Market interest rates change over time. Our loans generally have longer maturities than our deposits. Accordingly, our results of operations, like those of other financial institutions, are affected by changes in interest rates and the interest rate sensitivity of our assets and liabilities. We measure our interest rate sensitivity on a monthly basis using an internal model.

Management employs various strategies to manage our interest rate sensitivity including: (1) selling long-term fixed-rate mortgage loans in the secondary market to Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac and the Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle; (2) borrowing intermediate- to long-term funds at fixed rates from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle; (3) originating consumer loans at shorter maturities or at variable rates; (4) originating adjustable rate mortgage loans; (5) appropriately modifying loan and deposit pricing to capitalize on the then current market opportunities; and (6) increasing lower cost core deposits, such as savings and checking accounts.

At December 31, 2004, the Company had no off-balance sheet derivative financial instruments, and the Bank did not maintain a trading account for any class of financial instruments or engage in hedging activities or purchase high risk derivative instruments. Furthermore, the Company is not subject to foreign currency exchange rate risk or commodity price risk.

There has not been any material change in the market risk disclosures contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2004.

Item 4 - Controls and Procedures

(a) Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures.

The Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as currently in effect are effective in ensuring that the information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports it files or submits under the Act is (i) accumulated and communicated to the Company's management (including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer) in a timely manner, and (ii) recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms.
