Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

On March 29, 2011, the Board of Directors of Banner Corporation, a Washington corporation (the “Company”), approved certain amendments to the Company’s bylaws based on the review and recommendations of the Board’s Corporate Governance/Nominating Committee. As explained below, the amendments were adopted mainly to provide the Company with additional flexibility in certain areas, clarify certain matters and conform certain provisions to current provisions of the Washington Business Corporation Act (the “WBCA”). The following discussion is a summary only and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Company’s amended and restated bylaws, a copy of which is attached to this report as Exhibit 3.1.

Amendments to Article II of the Bylaws (Shareholders)

Article II, Section 3 was amended to clarify, consistent with the WBCA, that only business within the purposes described in the notice of the meeting may be conducted at a special meeting of shareholders.

Article II, Section 5 was amended to allow for notices of shareholder meetings to be given by electronic transmission, as permitted by the WBCA.

Article II, Section 6 was amended to clarify, consistent with the WBCA, that the Board must fix a new voting record date for a shareholder meeting if the meeting has been adjourned for more than 120 days.

Article II, Sections 8 and 12, dealing with the quorum and vote required for approval of matters at shareholder meetings, were each amended to more closely conform these provisions to the WBCA.

Amendments to Articles III and IV of the Bylaws (Board of Directors and Committees of the Board of Directors)

Article III, Section 2 was amended to clarify that the Board is classified except with respect to any directors elected by the holders of one or more series of preferred stock, voting separately as a class.

Article III, Sections 3 and 11 and Article IV, Section 4 were amended to enable directors to receive fees for attending Board and Board committee meetings by telephone.

Article III, Section 4 was amended mainly to allow for notices of special Board meetings to be provided electronically, as permitted by the WBCA. Article III, Section 7 and Article IV, Section 6 were amended to provide, consistent with the WBCA, that actions by the Board and Board committees in lieu of a meeting may be effected through consents provided electronically.

Article III, Section 8 and Article IV, Section 7 were amended to provide that, consistent with the WBCA, the resignation of a Board or Board committee member may be made effective upon a later specified date or upon the happening of a specified event or events.

Article III, Section 12 was amended to more closely conform to the WBCA the steps a director must take in order to not be presumed to have assented to action taken at a Board meeting at which he or she is present.

Article III, Section 15 was amended to provide that the Board may appoint directors emeriti, in addition to advisory directors, of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company, and to clarify the limitations on the authority and responsibilities of advisory directors and director emeriti.

Article IV, Section 2 was amended to conform the stated authority of Board committees to the WBCA.

Amendment to Article V of the Bylaws (Officers)

Article V, Section 1, which previously provided that the President of the Company shall also be the Chief Executive Officer unless the Board designates the Chairman as the Chief Executive Officer, was amended to provide that the President shall be Chief Executive Officer unless the Board otherwise determines.
