subsidiary of Greene County Bancorp, Inc. (the "Company"), filed an application with the Office of Thrift Supervision to convert its charter from a New York savings bank charter to a federal savings bank charter. As a result of the charter conversion, the Bank and the Company will have a single primary regulator, the Office of Thrift Supervision.

The Bank's deposits are currently insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and will continue to be so insured following the completion of the charter conversion.

The charter conversion is expected to be completed in the third calendar quarter of 2006.
