DYCOM COMPLETES ACQUISITION OF ARGUSS

PALM BEACH GARDENS, FLORIDA (February 21, 2002) - Dycom Industries, Inc. (NYSE: DY) announced today that it has completed its acquisition of Arguss Communications, Inc. (NYSE: ACX). The acquisition was completed in two steps. In the first step, Dycom, through its wholly owned subsidiary, Troy Acquisition Corp., acquired approximately 94.3% of the outstanding common stock of Arguss in an exchange offer that expired on February 20, 2002. In the second step, Troy was merged into Arguss. Under applicable law, the merger was not subject to the approval of the remaining stockholders of Arguss. Each share of Arguss common stock was exchanged, in connection with the offer and the merger, into the right to receive 0.3333 shares of Dycom common stock. As a result of the merger, Arguss has become a wholly owned subsidiary of Dycom.

Dycom is a leading provider of engineering, construction, and maintenance services to telecommunication providers throughout the United States. Additionally, Dycom provides similar services related to the installation of integrated voice, data, and video local and wide area networks within office buildings and similar structures. Dycom also provides underground utility locating and mapping and electric utility construction services.
